Sometimes It's Hard to Ask for Help

We're brought up to be strong, self-sufficient, independent people. We tend to think that if we ask for help, it is a sign of weakness. So we try to keep our struggles hidden, stuffed deep inside. However, that's not God's plan. Galatians 6:2 says, "Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ." God wants us to care for others—and allow others to care for us in our time of need.

If you're sad or struggling inside, don't suffer alone. Ask for help. We've got a team of Stephen Ministers who are ready to listen, care, encourage, pray, and help you through a tough time. (It's confidential too!) Find out more about Stephen Ministry by talking with one of our Stephen Leaders: Emily (224-6296) or Dick (469-0615).

At this time of the festive season, with regard to and in spite of the CoVID experience we are living in at this time, we ask for your prayers for our parish. Please keep our church, school, children and collective staff in your daily prayer, as we in turn pray for you. Thank you for your support.

Oh, king of us all.

I find myself standing before your strength and splendor watching, waiting and filled with total joy.

You have lifted my mind in hope.

Now help me to open my life to the coming of the Spirit.

I want to be like Mary, your mother.

Her wonderful courage and strength inspires me to do the same. She simply said Yes and the impossible was done.

Thank you for this Advent journey.

The anticipation has filled my life and made me long for a closer relationship with you.

My life gets so busy that I forget to focus.

Thank you for guidance. Thank you for the quiet moments when I have felt your love.

Nothing will be impossible with God.

Guide my feet on the way of peace.

Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel

Shall come to thee, O Israel!

May the Lord bless us, protect us from all evil and bring us to everlasting life.

Amen.

“Where else would you rather be then right here, right now”?

By Nick Warner

Growing up in western NY there was always one team that the Warner household cheered for every Sunday. That’s right, the Buffalo Bills. It brought us together and gave us something to talk about. I know that when you look at that quote from the legendary coach Marv Levy, “Where else would you rather be then right here, right now?” you don’t think about sticking around with the condition the world is in.

At Saint Pius we have not missed a beat, things are different, things are hard, things are not the same. But “WE CAN DO HARD THINGS”. We have been lead by Mrs. Cahill to bring ‘Normal’ back to our educational community.

In our third grade community we welcome each other, start our day with math morning work, we have our morning prayer and pledge. Then everybody we begin wearing masks, learning, being six feet apart, sanitizing, learning, washing, sanitizing and washing.

We open and close each subject area with a prayer. We are so lucky to be able to be together and to continue to grow as learners. We still go to church for our monthly liturgies.

This year instead of trick or treating to other places in the school, the trick or treating came to us.

We are very lucky to have parents and committees that meet to ensure a sense of normal in these uncertain times. In closing there is no place I would rather be then Saint Pius Tenth.

Would you like to Build a Rosary?

We have rosary making kits available again and would like to give them to some of our Elderly Parishioners at Christmas time.

Please contact Barb if you'd be interested in helping out.

Elder-Link

We're gathering a group of teens who would be willing to help with this. You don't have to be a tech person to do this. You only need to be willing. Note: We will set you up with learning basic tech options and all your contact with the Parish Elder will be by phone.

Please contact Barb if you're interested!

FULL OF JOY

Last year we waited much too long to buy our Christmas trees. We usually have one in the living room and then one by the large window in our room that sits at the front of the house. Essentially, there is one for us to see and then one for all the neighbors walking their dogs in the December cold. If you wait too long to buy a fresh tree you might just not find a tree. But last year I found one tree lot I had not bought from in the past. Luckily, they had some great trees. The price was a little higher than I was used to, but a tree would be mine no matter what.

What I found interesting at the lot was a group of about nine young people sitting around a fire, laughing and drinking coffee. I wondered, "All of these people for a tree lot late at night and this late in the season?" What I found out was that these weren't paid workers. These were recovering drug and alcohol addicts. This was their rehab's tree lot, and this was their service and group therapy. I spoke to a couple of them and found they were the nicest people around. They were full of joy for the new life they had found and thankful for the people who helped bring them through the trial of their lives. Suddenly, that tree they sold me seemed more beautiful and majestic than it had when I first drove up.

This Christmas may the Lord that slept in a manger provide for your rest. May the God that gives many gifts to all of us bless you abundantly. And may the Prince of Peace help you to find true gratitude for the gift of life. May you and yours feel the joy of the season, like a group of recovering addicts around a campfire on a cold December night.

INSPIRATION

Does the world realize that it is waiting? As we go about all of the busyness of our lives and entertain our distractions, there are many holes and gaps in our lives that need to be filled. We are always wanting more, but not really sure what that "more" needs to be. Fulfillment, happiness, contentment, and true satisfactions are fleeting occurrences and often come to us in illusive ways. What we think is the ultimate fix to our anxious emptiness really is only a fancy trend that we entertain. The world does not realize any more today than it did over two thousand years ago that it is waiting for a Savior. We need a Savior. We need to see and embrace the God who has broken into history and become one with us. It is this union of God and man that sets us on a straight path, orders our relationships, establishes proper focus and goals, and tells us whose kingdom we really are meant to serve. The world does not know how truly lost it is. Do you realize how lost you are and that the One you need most is here among us and within your grasp?

©LPi

A MOMENT WITH TODAY'S SCRIPTURES

In Blaise Pascal's work, Pensees, he says: "What else does this craving, and this helplessness, proclaim but that there was once in man a true happiness, of which all that now remains is the empty print and trace? This he tries in vain to fill with everything around him, seeking in things that are not there the help he cannot find in those that are, though none can help, since this infinite abyss can be filled only with an infinite and immutable object; in other words by God himself."

We have a difficult time accepting that fulfillment and happiness are not achieved by our own merits but through a relationship with God. We are hardwired for this relationship and it is in our DNA. The simple fact is that we come from God and are designed to return to God. If our beginning and our end define who we are, why would we not want to seek the One who can truly satisfy? The world does not realize that it is waiting. It is waiting for the birth of God in time, within one's soul and in eternity. We get so confused by seeking other momentary satisfactions that we misinterpret the hunger within. We crave God.

The union of God and humanity, revealed in Jesus Christ, is precisely what sets us on a straight path, orders our relationships, establishes proper focus and goals and tells us whose kingdom we really are meant to serve. We are so lost. God is with us. The prophet Nathan told this to King David, the angel said this to Mary and the birth of Christ brings this Good News to us. We do not need to be busily looking for more things but must learn to find contentment and blessing in the One Presence. This is the beautiful simple message of Advent!

If you are feeling unsettled, anxious, angry, disgruntled, disconnected, unhappy, worried, fearful, off center, becoming overly self-indulgent, unable to spend time alone and without distraction, then there's a good chance you are lost. Now is the time to allow God to find you! Ponder the holy simplicity of Mary's call to be the Mother of God. "Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord. May it be done to me according to your word." When we are helpless and at home with our emptiness, God will fill us. Our Savior has come.

OFFERING REPORT

December 12 & 13, 2020*

The Offering Report was not available at the time the bulletin was sent to the publisher. The Report for Dec 12/13 will be included in next week's bulletin.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

The Journey

Advent comes along every year and will continue to do so until Jesus returns. As this season draws to a close, we can each ask ourselves, "Am I now any better a disciple of Jesus Christ and more of a steward of all my gifts than before the Advent season started?" I have been on this earth for 40+ years. I have had 40+ Advents to draw closer to God and to work on taking more seriously my baptismal call. Some have gone better than others, but I would like to think my spiritual life progressed at least a small amount during each of them.

Conversion is a process. Stewardship is about a way of living and it is about more than simply being generous when a situation calls for it. Stewardship and conversion go hand-in-hand and we are always moving closer to holiness in Jesus Christ. Living in this way takes practice and commitment. If this Advent didn't go as you had hoped, remember is not really an end. It is just another step along your journey.

This Christmas, while you are giving and receiving gifts and hopefully spending time with those you love, may you take the time to cherish the true gift that came to us over 2000 years ago and continues to call us to this day: Jesus. Let us be grateful beyond measure for this gift above all gifts, let us continue on our journey, and let our lives give testimony to the one who leads us.
