Wednesday, February 24, 2021

Good Morning World. It is February 24th, Wednesday of the first week of Lent. The readings for today's mass (including an audio version) may be found at uscgb.org.

The verse before the gospel is from Joel 2:12-13

Even now, says the LORD,
return to me with your whole heart
for I am gracious and merciful.

As we proceed on our journey of Lent, these first weeks focus us on our spiritual life. The spiritual tools of fasting, almsgiving and prayer are before us.

There is a danger in these first weeks. As we work on advancing in our spiritual life, we can lose focus and think this is all about self-improvement. We can become self-centered in our Lenten practices.

"Isn't Lent about making ourselves better?"

That can be a consequence of our Lenten activities. But listen again to the words of the prophet Joel: "return to me with your whole heart".

Sin is turning away from God. Sin is following my pursuits and turning away from God's will. Sin is neglecting others in need. Sin can divide our hearts where we do not love God above all things.

It seems daunting to hear God speak through His prophet Joel that we are to return to God with our WHOLE heart.

At first, I can become discouraged. How can I ever love God with my whole heart?

It will not be accomplished during my journey of Lent. It will not be accomplished during my journey of life.

It is something that I am called to work on throughout my entire life.

God understands that I will not attain this wholeheartedness in my lifetime. God is "gracious and merciful" and helping us every step of our journey. It's a part of being in relationship with God.

The fullness of our being whole-heartedly in love with God will be experienced in eternal life.

Our Lenten activities and devotions are a way of expressing to God that this is our desire, this is our focus, to love God wholeheartedly.

Thanks be to God, World, for this journey of Lent that can help us draw closer to God.

The Places We Will Go !!!!!!!

By: Mr. Nicholas Warner

For Christmas this year I received some socks from my parents. Now I know what your saying, Mr. Warner you did not get the GI Joe with the Kung-fu grip. No I did not, not this year. Socks it what I got, and I was very happy to receive them. They were a collection of Dr. Seuss. They, like his writing, are very colorful. The one pair that really stood out for me was the Oh The Places You'll Go!

will go and there are many set backs and pit falls, but we must keep going.

Previously in Third Grade we have been on field trips and had visitors come in who have been on a journey or who have a story to tell. This year we have been unable to do those things or have those experiences. A pit fall you might say, or a set back it might be.....But here at Saint Pius Tenth School we have traveled to this place every day, we have been to mass, we have been outside on the playground, we have taken walks, we have been silly, we have walked these halls 6 feet apart wearing a mask, but this is our story and we have not finished our journey. We still have visitors in our classroom, they are zooming a message to us that we can do hard things.

We will continue on our path with God by our side and my socks on my feet.

God Bless You!!!

When I graduated from Brockport College, I received this book from the director of the program I was in. It is a wonderful story about how our journey is not always how we think it

Collecting St Patrick's Day Cards for Creekview

The residents at Creekview have been hit pretty hard by the isolation of the Covid pandemic so we are asking each teen to make THREE St Patrick's Day cards for our Creekview friends! Other parishioners are welcome to send cards also!

March In Person Event for Sunday Youth

For our March In-Person Event we will be back with our Family Faith friends and will join them at Davis Park in Chili to pray the Rosary for the Poor

We are also asking each teen to create a Blessing Bag to be donated to St Joseph House of Hospitality.

This is an opportunity to participate in a walking prayer meditation, listening to and praying the rosary while experiencing nature and (hopefully) some sunshine.

Please arrive at 11:00 AM and use the Paul Road entrance. (Teens will be allowed to pray and walk in small, socially distanced groups. Masks are required for this event. Families are welcome to participate.

WE ARE ASKING EACH TEEN TO BRING THREE THINGS TO THIS EVENT:

1. A rosary
2. THREE St Patrick's Day Cards for our friends at Creekview Nursing Home (you can bring these to event or drop them off in the SPX Church narthex)
3. a BLESSING BAG - a gallon sized ziploc bag with toiletries for people who are homeless.

PLEASE REGISTER FOR THIS EVENT with the link in the online Youth News so we have enough Adult Leaders and we know to be looking for your teen.

WHAT ARE BLESSING BAGS?

A blessing bag is a small assortment of basic toiletries and snacks in a sealable plastic bag. Sunday Youth teens will be assembling Blessing Bags in March to be given to local shelters.

BLESSING BAG IDEAS:

- Chap stick
- Tissues
- Toothbrush and toothpaste
- comb
- soap
- small bottle of shampoo
- packet of disposable razors
- sanitary pads
- trail mix
- granola bars
- Peanut butter tubs
- pack of gum
- bandages
- mouthwash
- hand wipes
- warm pair of socks

Assemble all the items in gallon size sealable bags, and include a note of encouragement with the contents.

Middle School Bible Study

A Catholic Bible Study run by our Middle School Teens for Middle Schoolers (5th thru 8th grade) and their Friends.

When we went into Pandemic Lockdown Isabella and Maddie both thought that they believed in God but they wondered if they could become closer to God and deepen their faith. They started reading using a bible app and reading the bible a few times a week and praying more and they feel like their faith is stronger now than ever!

They are ready to share their story with other middle schoolers who want to grow their faith too!

Join us for 30 minutes on Sundays after the Sunday Youth Zoom for a look at the upcoming readings and time to think about what they mean in YOUR life.

We will meet Sundays at 12:30 –1 pm on the same schedule as the Sunday Youth. If you're interested email Barb.legere@dor.org for the zoom link.

For our next One and Done project, we will be collecting new or gently used backpacks and filling them with school supplies to donate to the Rochester City School District. In addition to the school supplies we will collect new or gently used hats, mittens, socks and scarves. If you would like to donate to this project, you may bring the items into the credit union or place them on a shelf in the foyer of the credit union near the ATM. Monetary donations will be used to purchase the supplies below. Donations will be collected through March 19th.

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

With our world in such constant turmoil and conflict, it makes such good sense to return to the simple directives given in the Ten Commandments. God’s unassuming guidelines provide the perfect recipe for ordering our relationships with God, others, and even ourselves. But yet, we are so quick to glance beyond them and even remove them from public view because we foolishly believe we can create something better. Arrogance runs far deeper in the members of our society than we can ever imagine. Lent is a perfect time to call ourselves back to our foundations and the basic relationships that comprise our lives. It is also a time to remember that Jesus is the true sign of God’s presence. Everything he says and does, including his suffering and death, is a sign of the God who sent him. The anger we witness when Jesus exhorts those in the temple to stop making his Father’s house a marketplace can equally be seen in his anger and frustration over humanity’s constant mission to turn God’s creation into a secular world. We have a lot of work to do for sure. ©LPi

A MOMENT WITH TODAY’S SCRIPTURES

Many prefer a “create as you go” approach to life where laws and protocols primarily exist to secure and protect liberties rather than dictate and outline proper and right behavior. There are no real benchmarks for acceptable ethical and moral behavior, with a “you can’t tell me what to do” attitude prevailing. Parents are even limited in what they can request of their children, and dealing with threatening behaviors, especially from adults, are a challenge as well. Acceptable and expected conduct seems to amount to safeguarding each other’s space rather than increasing awareness of necessary relationships that require a more refined and higher response.

We have lost our axis to the world of “anything goes” and no longer see the Ten Commandments as practical and wise guideposts to effective living. We live on “relativism island” where only a possible suggestion to “love and do not harm” may be the only standard able to be preached. While Jesus most certainly emphasized love above anything else, it was never about warm fuzzy feelings or halfhearted humanitarian efforts. The love of which Jesus spoke establishes an intimate connection with God, neighbor, self, and creation. Because this love, who is God Himself, is at the foundational core of our lives, it demands actions and attitudes that serve to build up, increase, and free up those relationships. Love requires proper conduct. Preserving and enhancing these love centered relationships is at the heart of the Ten Commandments (and the Beatitudes) and the reason for Jesus’ display of anger in the temple.

The Ten Commandments can save the world from turmoil and conflict by instilling basic moral and relational principles within us. They also hold a healthy sense of sin in balance and always remind us of our relationship with God and the freedom God offers. Our faith preserves these jewels of truth that we often look beyond, dismiss altogether, or seek to remove from public view. Human beings can be so arrogant at times. Our Lenten journey, especially when embarked upon with sincerity and resolve, can restore all of our essential relationships. When we get absorbed in life’s preoccupations and demands, things can quickly get distorted and we can find ourselves way off track. In short, we find ourselves in sin. Humanity is losing a sense of both grace and sin. We need both to understand what is real and true. Until we do, the oppressive systems and ideologies that hurt so many will never change. We will never change. We are grateful for those courageous souls who willingly embrace the conversion and hard work Lent demands and stand against antiquated systems and ideologies. They give us hope that all is not lost. ©LPi

Parents Just Don't Understand

Anybody remember the old rap song by the Fresh Prince, aka Will Smith, "Parents Just Don't Understand?" As we grow up, it is sometimes a struggle for us to imagine that our parents understand us. It can seem impossible that Mom and Dad remember the stress of exam week or peer pressure. We never saw them as children; we never saw their disappointed faces when they weren't invited to a party, or their dashed hopes at a bad test grade. We never saw them homesick their first week of college or nervous to ask their crush to Homecoming.

We're often the same way about God. We gripe about what He asks of us. "He doesn't understand sin — he's all-good," we think. "He doesn't understand temptation — He is perfect."

In Scripture, God can be very much a father, telling us what we can and cannot do. And yet, in His divine genius, He is sometimes simply a man at a well, asking for a drink.

For me, it turns out I didn't need to tell my parents anything about what I was going through as a kid — they knew already. What I needed was for them to tell me what to do, and how to do it.

Similarly, we don't need to tell God about human nature. We need God to tell us about His nature. He's good enough to ask us for a drink, to enter into our humanity. But we have to remember, for our own sakes, to have the humility to ask Him for something, too — the water that will quench our eternal thirst.
