You Can Play an Important Role in Our Stephen Ministry

Because you may know of a friend, neighbor, co-worker, or relative who is going through a difficult time and who could benefit from the focused care, encouragement, and support of a Stephen Minister. If you know of someone who is hurting, talk with one of our Stephen Leaders: Emily (224-6296) or Dick (469-0615). They can talk with you about how we can connect the person you know with one of our Stephen Ministers. It's a great way for you to show how much you care!

St. Pius X Pastor's Pastoral Page (Facebook) Friday, June 18, 2021

Good Morning World. It is June 18th, Friday of the eleventh week in ordinary time. The readings for today's mass (including an audio version) may be found at usccb.org. The gospel is from Matthew 6:19-23

"For where your treasure is, their also will your heart be."

What do you treasure? Where do you expend your time and energy? Where do you expend your talents and finances?

That's what you treasure. That's where your heart is.

And know to put treasure into perspective.

It is now June 18th, 2121. Yes, you read that correctly, 2121.

What has happened to your treasure after 100 years?

Is your house still standing? Has someone torn it down to build a contemporary house?

Is your business still operating? Has a descendant sold it off because no family member wanted to run it?

Is your family line still intact? Or did some great-great grandchildren not marry or not have children?

Has your financial portfolio remained intact? Or did someone make bad investments? Or dissipate it? Or give it all away to charity?

Is your reputation still intact? Or through some, or all, of the above, have you been completely forgotten by people?

What will happen to your treasure in a hundred years?

What has happened to your faith in one hundred years?

It has become knowledge.

Instead of hoping, trusting and believing that their is a God, you now know that their is a God and you have seen God face-to-face. Your faith is paying you back with interest, eternal interest.

I know it can be difficult, sometimes very difficult, to live in this world without becoming absorbed by this world, to lose focus on God in the center of our lives.

World, God is eternal. The treasures of this world are not. Yes, we have to put time and energy and talents and resources into things of this world just to survive. But can it be balanced by the amount of time we spend putting our energy and talents and resources into our spiritual journey? Even something as simple as praying about the things of this world can bring a sense of balance into our lives: praying about school, work, health, relationships, finances, and so on.

Actively bringing God into our journey of life can make all the difference.

After all, World, you will be with God in one hundred years. So why not store up some treasures in heaven now for your time with God in eternity?

Thank you Donna Muchler & Debbie Schulmerich for your time and talents, planting the flowers in front of church.

From Fr. Paul's Email Update on Wednesday, June 16

Goodbye to a Wonderful School

By: Monica Smith

Back in 1993 my husband and I enrolled our oldest daughter in St. Pius Tenth Preschool. We were looking for a school that would nurture our children, help them learn more about the Catholic Faith on a daily basis, and have a rigorous academic program. We fell in love with St. Pius Tenth School during that first year, and my daughter continued on through 6th grade. Justine was followed by her two sisters Gretchen and Megan who also attended from Pre-k—6th grade.

In late August of 2000, an opening in 4th grade became available. I already knew what a great school it was from my experience as a parent, and I jumped at the chance to become a teacher at the school!

During my teaching years at St. Pius I have worn a number of different hats. While I began and ended my career here at St. Pius as a 4th grade teacher, I spent the majority of my time here as a Preschool Teacher. (14 years) I also had 3 years in the middle of my career where I taught preschool in the morning and Art in the afternoon to the K-6 students.

During my time here I have been blessed to meet and work with so many wonderful children and families. It is such a thrill to run into former students and parents, and catch up with them when I see them around town.

I am so thankful that I had the opportunity to work with such talented administrators. Steve Oberst, Dan Pitnell and Maria Cahill have been outstanding principals and I appreciate all of the guidance and support they have given me during my time here.

I have also had the pleasure to work with very talented and loving co-workers. Each and every one of them is so dedicated to the school and it has been a blessing and a privilege to work with them.

Thanks for all of the well wishes! May God Bless each and every one of you!

Thank You, Lord!

For the reaching of this end
And for this new beginning
For the joy in finished aims and goals
And the evidence of winning

Have mercy on these graduates
As they bask in their successes
Please guide them to their destinies
And show them love that blesses

We ask for You to lead each one
Through missteps they may suffer
On the road to gaining wisdom
Finding faith and hope that buffers

Please touch each heart with joy and peace As Commencement gives promotion And fill each life with love's increase Of strength and deep devotion

For this eager class of graduates
Beribboned with degrees
Please bless them
at this starting gate
With all the keys
they'll need.

Amen!

This year we will be doing the National Catholic Youth Conference LIVE and IN-PERSON right here in our own Parish Center!! For the first time more than 70 St Pius Tenth young parishioners will have the chance to experience NCYC. We will participate in on-site service, prayer and incredible music as well as live-stream at least FOUR Conference keynotes right here at St Pius Tenth and if that's not crazy cool we'll be participating in Diocesan pre-NCYC events as well!!

Of course, there are costs involved, technology issues, swag, materials, special guests working with us from far away—and that's where you come in! We are setting the fee for each teen at $200 which will include National, Diocesan and our own local programming! AND meals, Diocesan and St Pius Tenth swag too! If you're interested (no commitment needed yet) go to the Parish website, saintpiustenth.org and register for events today!

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

"Do not be afraid, just have faith." God does not rejoice in our demise or our destruction. Rather, He made us in his image and desires that we have life. He also desires that we be healed and know His loving touch. There is great power in an embrace offered in love. The touch of another can heal wounds and restore life. There is also power in faith. Faith can turn us toward the truth and turn us toward God. Both love and faith can lead us to hope that no matter what we encounter, God will continue to sustain us in being. He will not allow us to perish. God can profoundly change how we see Him, ourselves, and one another. God desires that we turn toward Him and be healed of all that wounds and binds us so that we can be free and enjoy the fullness of life. We are asked to arise and walk proudly with this life-giving faith. Reach out and share this faith with someone this week so that they too can receive God's life changing embrace and heed His call to wholeness. There are many in our world wandering around aimlessly without hope. Bring it to them. ©LPi

A MOMENT WITH TODAY'S SCRIPTURES

The author of The Cloud of Unknowing prays, "That which I am and the way that I am, with all my gifts of nature and grace, you have given to me, O Lord, and you are all this. I offer it all to you, principally to praise you and to help my fellow Christians and myself." Knowing that God sustains us in being is the key to faith. All that we need to do is to love God as God is and the rest will begin to fall into place. God made us in His image and desires that we have life. God also desires that we be healed of all of our wounds, especially those caused by sin, and know his loving touch. Being weighed down by negativity, imperfections, the cares of the world, and weakness is not something that God desires.

Faith can profoundly change how we see God, ourselves, and one another. It gives a clearer lens through which to see life and connects us with the powerful virtues of love and hope. Three friends journeying with us through all that we encounter, faith, hope, and love, help us experience God's embrace and heal us. All we have to do is let God be who God is and not foolishly try to make Him into what we need or want Him to be. Without God we cease to be. It's that simple. The very blood that flows through my veins and the life that I have come directly from Divine origins. With this knowledge of who God is and who I am, I can open my ears and hear the powerful words Jesus speaks, "Do not be afraid, just have faith." Trust begins.

When we are struggling, we naturally reach out for God because we know that a divine remedy is the only remedy. But, in doing so we wrestle with letting God take charge. We want something more miraculous and visible than the obvious and have difficulty in finding consolation simply resting in God's presence. Our naked being, stripped of any pretense or self-serving agenda, is being called to rest in and love the uncreated Presence of God. Reach out in love to God. Ask God to heal you from all that separates you from Him. Put aside any ideas of God that create barriers between you and God's tender and endearing presence. The Cloud of Unknowing leaves us with wisdom, "think of yourself and of him in the same way, that is, with the simple awareness that he is as he is and that you are as you are." This is a meeting of two friends who desire nothing more than to share life together. ©LPi

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Touching the Cloak of Christ

Look to today's Gospel and you'll find one of the most arresting images in all of Scripture. Christ in a crowd, everyone clamoring for his attention, pressing against him. Several feet away, is a chronically ill woman, weak and desperate for help. She knows she doesn't have a chance of getting his attention. She has no connections. She has no strength. All she can do is lift up her hand.

So that's what she does. She reaches out.

There comes a time, or maybe several times, in each of our lives when we become this woman. We're tired and we're sick. Is it with sin? With fear? With anger? It doesn't matter. Whatever it is, it's made us weak, and we feel like we've run out of options. We've looked for help and come up empty. We've consulted friends and gotten nowhere. We're lost in the crowd of life, unable to stick our heads above the pressing throng to wave for help.

And there is Christ, always passing by us. The hem of his cloak is never far from our grasp. We have no hope of a big miracle like the synagogue leader. We don't even bother asking for that. But that cloak ... we can touch that cloak. That's something we can do.

Do we do it, though? Do we have the confidence of that sick, beaten-down woman who knew so totally that healing was there for the taking? Or do we retreat back into the crowd, stumbling back home with our pain and our sinfulness? Reach out, friends. However, whatever, whenever — reach out. Christ will not fail you. — Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS                      ©LPi

If you're looking to buy or sell a home, you should ask yourself... "What is my agent really doing for me?" are they

- Triaging my house to increase the sale price?
- Producing a professional staging consultation?
- Providing me with a list of the right contractors to prep the house?
- Helping me find the right materials at a frugal price and staying within budget?
- Helping me host an estate sale to generate cash?
- Developing a customized website for my property?
- Staging my home with beautiful inventory?
- Vetting the home I want to buy so I'm sure of what I'm buying?

No? Then you need someone who will... you need
