Father of all nations and ages,
we recall the day when our country
claimed its place among the family of nations;
for what has been achieved we give you thanks,
for the work that still remains we ask your help,
and as you have called us from many peoples
to be one nation,
grant that, under your providence,
our country may share your blessings
with all the peoples of the earth.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.

Do You Know Someone Going through a Difficult Time?

Do you have a friend, neighbor, co-worker, or relative who has been struggling with the loss of a loved one, loneliness, cancer, a layoff, relocation, divorce, a spiritual crisis, recuperation, single parenthood, or any of countless other life challenges? Our Stephen Ministers can provide them with the focused care, encouragement, and support they need to make it through the crisis. If you know of someone who is hurting, talk with one of our Stephen Leaders: Emily (224-6296) or Dick (469-0615). They can talk with you about how we can connect the person you know with one of our Stephen Ministers. It's a great way for you to show how much you care!

St. Pius X Pastor's Pastoral Page (Facebook) Monday, June 28, 2021

Good Morning World. It is June 28th, Monday of the thirteenth week in ordinary time. June 28th is the memorial of Saint Irenaeus. The readings for today's mass (including an audio version) may be found at usccb.org. The gospel is from Matthew 8:18-22

HOME

In my twenty-five years as a Jesuit, I have lived for extended periods in nine different cities. Though typical for one whose vocation is to be available to be sent on mission, I envy at times the foxes and birds that Jesus speaks about!

I spent my first year as a Jesuit in the northeast of the United States, but I felt that my home was back in Florida, where I grew up and later worked as a lawyer and high school teacher. After professing vows, that sense of home evolved. I began moving around so much that I felt like I did not have a home. Approaching the end of my decade-long formation as a Jesuit, I finally realized the grace offered to me all along: my home was everywhere. In each place I was sent, God always sent incredible people and meaningful work my way. I loved the people and ministry so much that it was always hard to leave.

My geographical journey mirrors a spiritual pilgrimage of growing interior freedom. Over the years, I learned to empty myself so that God could fill my life in a new, unexpected way.

As disciples, we are called at times to let go so that we can respond more fully to God's call in our lives. We may leave people, places, and work we love because we intuit some divine push or pull to grow or live in a different way. This letting go is hard because we might also experience emptiness, loss, or anxiety about what's next. But if we can summon some holy courage or patience during these in-between moments, then we might just experience being filled in ways previously unimaginable.

(Fr. Kevin O'Brien, SJ, is president of Santa Clara University and author of The Ignatian Adventure: Experiencing the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius in Daily Life.)

I remember hearing it as a little kid. I don't remember how old I was, but know I wasn't mature enough to understand it: "Home is where the heart is."

I'm still not sure I'm mature enough to understand it. But I think I'm further enough along my spiritual journey to have some insight into what this saying could mean.

Home (defined)

noun : a house, apartment, or other shelter that is the usual residence of a person, family, or household; the place in which one's domestic affections are centered.

adjective: of, relating to, or connected with one's home or country; domestic; principal or main adverb: to, toward, or at home; deep; to the heart (dictionary.com)

Home - a shelter that is the usual residence of a person. Most of us are blessed with a place to reside. However, we know there are too many people who have no shelter. We need to work for a solution - temporary and permanent - for our sisters and brothers who have no home.

Home - the place where domestic affections are centered. Again, many of us are blessed with a home where we are loved. But there are people whose home is not happy and loving. There are people who are alone, and not by choice. We need to support our sisters and brothers who do not experience a home of domestic affections. This support should be prayer. This support could include friendship and inclusion.

Home - deep, to the heart. I know how this definition is intended. When we have had a prior experience that is similar to a current situation, we can say that it really hits home: "When I heard my boss' wife was diagnosed with breast cancer, that really hit home. My wife is a breast cancer survivor."

But another way of something hitting home, hitting deep, to the heart, is when something resounds deep to the core of our being, deep into the essence of who I am as a person.

The spiritual interpretation of "home is where the heart is" reflects who I am in my relationship with God.

I am made in the image and likeness of God. When I grow in a deeper knowledge and understanding of what that means, it forms my heart.

When I realize how much God loves me, the love that Jesus has for me, the love of the Holy Spirit that fills me, it forms my heart.

When I accept and grow to realize the presence of Jesus constantly with me and within me, that forms my heart.

I may or may not have a shelter. I may or may not have domestic affections. I may or may not have experiences that hit home.

But when I have a heart formed with and by God, then I will always have a home and I will always be at home.

World, home is indeed where your heart is.

THE YEAR IN MUSIC

MISS ANNE VIRGIL

HAPPY INDEPENDENCE DAY!

As you read this, the classrooms and halls at St. Pius Tenth School have been silent for over a week. We carry many memories of this unique school year into the summer and beyond. Among these memories, I believe most are good ones!

Our First Friday and Holy Day Masses included music, too! Although we couldn't sing, there was piano music, recorded songs, motions and sign language, 5th grade chime music, and even finger-drumming on the pews!

PreK 4—"Ohana"

1st Graders in the classroom and outside!

For music classes, we learned to adapt our music-making without singing, without sharing instruments and manipulatives, and without getting too close to each other when playing music games. We sang in our heads, hearts, and hands, and with "magic lips". Students received individual music kits with instruments and manipulatives of their own. We adapted games to keep our distance.

2nd Graders responding to "Butterfly" by Grieg

Kindergarteners responding to "Listen to the Water"

God bless our 5th grade students as they move on to the next level of their education. God bless all of our students, faculty, and staff with a safe, fun-filled, relaxing summer!

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

God never ceases to proclaim His Word. His life-giving presence continues to sustain all things and keep them in being regardless of whether there is the faith to receive or perceive Him. Our personal agendas, preconceived ideas, misconceptions, and expectations can often cause us to be so hard of heart and obstinate that we fail to see what God is trying to do. While God remains ever present, faith is necessary for God's power to bear fruit. As we celebrate our country's independence, let us not forget the difference between liberties and freedom. While the liberties we have are most welcome treasures, only freedom from what blinds, deceives, and weighs us down can bring happiness. God is all about healing, transformation, and hope. In order for God to do what God does best, we have to invite Him in and see Him for who he is. Otherwise, God's will for humanity will be something at which we simply take offense, a common reaction when something challenges or unsettles us. ©LPi

A MOMENT WITH TODAY'S SCRIPTURES

It's all so ordinary that we can easily miss it. The seagulls hunting and diving for mollusks at the beach offer a display of determination and precision as they gather their food for the day. It's simply what these creatures do. Yet, there's a magical artfulness and skill to their work that speaks volumes about the One who breathed life into their being. This is pretty much the way it is with God's presence. God comes in common ways through common things and ordinary people. Sadly, we are so engulfed in our little worlds of order and ideas to notice the beauty and wonder of it all. Many have numbed themselves to the Divine spark at the essence of all life because that's just the way it is. What's so special about it? A sunset is a sunset and a seagull is a seagull. That's precisely what they thought about Jesus too. After all, isn't he just the carpenter's son? What merit can his words possibly have?

If we're looking for God to come in an event that is so dramatic and intense that it knocks our socks off, then think again. When pondering God's relationship with His people and God's action in our lives, we have to go back to the stable and the recurring, creative, unending power of God's presence. It was a quiet, run of the mill kind of night. There was nothing spectacular or extraordinary. To the naked eye, a woman gave birth to a child and there wasn't anything extraordinary to see. We have a hard time understanding God's ordinary-ness. Jesus grew up in an ordinary town, had neighbors and did normal human things. Perhaps that's why we don't always like the Gospel. It doesn't dazzle us with extraordinary things but simply challenges us to take a different look at our ordinary stuff. That makes us uncomfortable. We prefer things as they are. Our lack of faith can even cause us to take offense at what Jesus says and does, dismissing it as folly.

God's life-giving presence continues to sustain that seagull in flight and keep all things in being regardless of whether we have the faith to see and understand this. Our personal agendas, preconceived ideas, misconceptions, and expectations can often cause us to be hardened and blinded to what God is doing or desiring to do. While God continues to do what he has done for all eternity, faith is needed for God's presence to bear fruit. The blinders we wear and the expectations we bring to life can often prevent us from seeing graced moments that radiate with God's graceful presence. They also prevent God's transforming, healing, and hope filled vision for our world from being realized. Without faith, God won't be able to do much for us either. ©LPi

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

The Prophecy of You and Me

Prophet. There's a heaviness to this word. It's weighted down with meaning. We think of prophets and we think of Charlton Heston with wild hair and a booming voice, reaching out his hand to work wonders of nature by the grace of God. We think of prophets and we think of ancient Biblical history — someone far away, someone so removed from our everyday life. A prophet is someone who knows something we don't.

When I let you in on this secret, it might scare you at first: in a way, God is calling you to be a prophet. He is calling me. He is calling anyone who hears the truth of the Gospel. However, there is no need for the megaphone and the wild locusts. This prophet gig might not be what you're thinking.

What does a prophet do? He hears and testifies to the truth, even when it's uncomfortable, even when it's unpopular, even when it results in, as Paul says, "weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions and constraints." A prophet doesn't have to be smart or rich or ordained; heck, he doesn't even have to be particularly willing.

All a prophet has to do is listen to the truth. The truth we receive from Christ, through the Gospel and the sacraments, is a mighty gift. But it is a gift that we are not meant to simply keep for ourselves. In possessing it, we are compelled to also pass it on, to share it, to let the Spirit set us on our feet.
