You Can Play an Important Role in Our Stephen Ministry

Because you may know of a friend, neighbor, co-worker, or relative who is going through a difficult time and who could benefit from the focused care, encouragement, and support of a Stephen Minister.

If you know of someone who is hurting, talk with one of our Stephen Leaders: Emily (224-6296) or Dick (469-0615). They can talk with you about how we can connect the person you know with one of our Stephen Ministers. It's a great way for you to show how much you care!

Did you know that Planned Parenthood already has a temporary location open in Brighton at 2225 S. Clinton

Ave? Currently, we don't have anyone on the sidewalk praying and offering help. We need to change this! We have two training opportunities for you to put on your calendar:

When:

- Saturday, September 11 from 9am-11am
- Monday, September 13 from 7pm-9pm

Where: The Irenaeus Study Center
542 Blossom Rd, Rochester, NY 14610

These trainings will equip you with the knowledge and confidence you need to be a sidewalk advocate for the women and men who enter our local abortion centers. Our simple, yet effective approach makes it attainable for everyone to begin saving lives from abortion. Both of these trainings will be the same, so choose which one fits into your schedule. You can RSVP by emailing Dorothy Hayes at dorothy@roclovewillendabortion.org

Announcing a Seminar on Alcoholism

*On September 12 three recovering alcoholics will share their experience, strength, and hope with us at St. Catherine of Siena at 7:30 PM
26 Mendon Ionia Rd, Mendon, NY 14506
585-624-4990*

Alcoholic. The word alcoholic often conjures up thoughts about brown paper bags, raincoats and people living under bridges. The fact is that alcoholism strikes doctors, airline pilots, rockets scientists as well as those living under a bridge. It is a disease that doesn't discriminate based upon age, color, nationality, or sexual preference. The end result of untreated alcoholism is usually jails, institutions and death. The good news is that there is a solution that can result in a surprisingly full and rewarding life. Attend the seminar that will be held here on September 12th and hear three sober alcoholics share about their escapades, their struggles, their successes, and the sheer joy of sobriety.

THERE'S STILL TIME!

By: Anne Sabo

As I write this, our school is empty, or so it seems, as our students left us yesterday for their summer holiday. My bucket, on the other hand, is filled with my hopes and dreams for the summer. As you read this, I hope that our buckets are almost empty because you'll be reading this on the last weekend of our students' summer vacation.

I hope I've accomplished most of these and that more items have been added. How about you? Have you made the most of the summer of 2021? Have you accomplished all you had hoped to get done this summer? If not, there's still time! Go out and seize the day!

You'll find some of my list below.

1. Become a better pray-er
2. Become an end-to-ender on the Erie Canal
3. Organize the basement
4. Weekly visits with Mom
5. Pickleball (lots of pickleball!)
6. Pleasure reading
7. Professional reading
8. Watch a sunset at the lake
9. Vacations
10. Bike rides
11. Relax, renew and rejuvenate

SPX CYO SOCCER

SIGN UP TODAY!

We would like to send out a BIG thank you to all who have volunteered to prepare sandwiches for St. Peter's Kitchen. We are continuing to prepare sandwiches on the 4th Thursday of every month for the remainder of the year.

Our next project is for the Angels of Mercy. The Angels of Mercy is a Christ-centered organization dedicated to helping women in need locally and around the world. Their mission is to help women and girls achieve freedom, dignity and restoration through coordinated efforts and faith in God.

Among their many programs is the "Dress a Girl" program. Participants make dresses for young girls to provide them with dignity and hope and to let them and others know that they are loved and that someone is caring for them. The Dress a Girl label on the outside of the dresses indicates that an organization is looking after these girls, hopefully causing predators to pass them over. The dresses are made from fabric or from pillowcases.

To help the Angels of Mercy with their efforts, we would like to collect toiletries, placed in pillow cases. The toiletries will be given to the women that they aid and the pillowcases will be used to make dresses for young girls. Some donation ideas would be soap, shampoo, deodorant, razors, lotion, sanitary items, brushes/combs, hair ties, makeup, perfume, etc. We will also collect fabric, bias tape & grosgrain ribbon (also for making the dresses). It is preferable that pillowcases and fabric are colors or prints. Donations for this project may be dropped off at St. Pius X Credit Union, 2998 Chili Ave. They may be brought into the credit union or placed in the bin in the foyer. The last day for drop off is Monday September 20th. If you have any questions, please contact Brenda at browns005@gmail.com

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Life can be challenging and frightening. Sometimes, it really hurts to be a human being. We face brokenness of all kinds: physical, emotional, and spiritual. For no apparent reason, life can quickly fall apart. What we knew to be familiar is gone and something we relied upon is taken away. We are left sitting with our incompleteness and swimming in the pools of our sadness. Be strong! Fear not! These admonitions flow from the mouths of prophets and are echoed by Jesus. It is difficult to trust that restoration, healing, and rejuvenation will one day come, and remain steadfast in our faith. But we are here because of a God who loves us, not as the result of a random occurrence. When we reach for that truth about who we are and who God is, life changes for us. We are healed from our old distorted way of seeing things. Our eyes, heart, and soul are opened to the beauty and magnificence of life. The pulse of our loving Creator is felt in all things and we can't wait for God to come and touch us again. God made us, God loves us, and God keeps us. He has done all things well. ©LPi

A MOMENT WITH TODAY'S SCRIPTURES

From the time we are born into this world until we die, our human radar picks up signals about how to respond to life. What we picked up on when we were very young carries an even greater power. The messages we receive and process tell us what we are "supposed" to do with our feelings, how to understand and cope with disappointment, anxiety, failure, death, illness, and what to expect out of life. As life unfolds for us, these radar messages kick in and resonate in us at very deep levels. Sometimes what we have learned is helpful and sometimes it is not. The stories we have been told, especially when we are young, about how life is best lived and how to negotiate its pain carry a heavy weight.

Life can be challenging and frightening. Sometimes, it really hurts to be a human being. It also can be quite unpredictable and, at times, unfair. We face our vulnerability and brokenness of all kinds: physical, emotional, and spiritual. It doesn't take much for life to quickly fall apart. What we knew to be familiar and true is gone and something we relied upon, physically, emotionally, or spiritually, can be taken away. It is hard to confront our limitations and sit with our incompleteness. Often, life hurts us so much that we find ourselves sitting in a pool of sadness, not sure what we are supposed to do. It is particularly hard when the signals we have inherited tell us that we need to be successful in what we do, and we have to avoid life's unfairness. We can feel like a failure, wondering what precisely we did to deserve this fate, or ruminate about what we did not do correctly. But it's really not about us. We are part of a bigger picture and a much more fascinating story!

If we cease doing battle with life's incompleteness and see ourselves, as God does, on a journey toward wholeness and completeness we can better accept our disappointments and stand firm. The prophets told us, and Jesus reassured us: Be strong! Fear not! Sometimes we have to update our stories and replace them with newer, more accurate ones. When we make

God's story our own and tune our radar into His voice, what we hear is all about restoration, healing, and rejuvenation! This is true even when we think we have hit rock bottom and can go no further. There is always hope. Remember the words of Julian of Norwich: God made us, God loves us, and God keeps us. Now, listen to God when He says, "be opened!" Be healed and allow your stories to change. ©LPi

Choosing Deafness

If you're a parent, you know that hearing evaluations are usually done at a child's annual physical exam starting around age four. The little person gets hoisted up onto the exam table, fitted with a pair of special headphones, and then they need raise their hand when they hear a sound.

I bet all of us parents who have sat through one of these tests with a preschooler — especially a particularly strong-willed one — have experienced a moment where we ask ourselves: I wonder if there's something wrong with her hearing. Is that why she doesn't listen to me? 'Come here, put on your shoes, pick up your toys, finish your carrots, don't touch that' — she isn't being naughty, she just can't hear it!

And then that moment, for those of us whose kids passed the hearing test with flying colors, comes crashing down into a realization that, yep, they can hear just fine. They're just choosing deafness.

But how can we really get mad when we remember that we do the same thing to God day in and day out? I often wonder if God, sitting in His Heaven, tires of calling to us in the same way young parents tire of calling out unheeded directions to their small children. Help that person. Hear My voice. Open your heart. Give of yourself here. Talk to Me.

What is the call He wishes you to hear today? Can you hear it? Are you listening?

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS
