Good Morning World. It is September 2nd, Thursday of the 22nd week in ordinary time. The readings for today's mass (including an audio version) may be found at uscgb.org.

The first reading is from Colossians 1:9-14

Brothers and sisters:

From the day we heard about you, we do not cease praying for you and asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of God's will through all spiritual wisdom and understanding to walk in a manner worthy of the Lord, so as to be fully pleasing, in every good work bearing fruit and growing in the knowledge of God, strengthened with every power, in accord with his glorious might, for all endurance and patience, with joy giving thanks to the Father, who has made you fit to share in the inheritance of the holy ones in light. He delivered us from the power of darkness and transferred us to the Kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

We recently celebrated the memorial of Saint Monica who is remembered, in part, for praying for 17 years for the conversion of her son, whom we now know as Saint Augustine.

This came to mind as I read the continuation of Saint Paul's greeting to the Colossians in today's reading: "We do not cease praying for you..."

I'm guessing that there may be someone (or some people) for whom you do not cease praying. It may be a parent, a child, a spouse, a sibling, a friend - whomever - but there may be that person whom you bring to the Lord in your prayer every day, or maybe several times every day.

What are Paul and his companions ceaselessly praying for the people of Colossae?

1. That they be filled will knowledge of God's will through all spiritual wisdom and understanding
2. That they walk in a manner to be fully pleasing to God.
3. That they will, in every good work, bear fruit.
4. That they will grow in their knowledge of God.
5. That they, through God's glorious might, will be strengthened in power.
6. And, joyfully, they pray in thanksgiving to God for the Colossians.

As you think about the people for whom you pray (maybe ceaselessly) is there anything on Paul's list that is a part of your prayer for them?

If there is, would there be something on the list you would consider adding to your prayer?

If there isn't, would there be something on the list you would begin to pray for them?

There is power in prayer. There is power in ceaseless prayer. There is power in what we pray.

Thank you for praying, World. Thank you for praying for others. And thank you for what you may be considering to add to your prayers for others.

Happy New (School) Year!

We are off and running beginning what is going to be a fantastic school year! There are so many new and exciting things to share with all of you as we begin refreshed and renewed in 2021-2022.

First, I would like to acknowledge the work that Mr. John Falk has conquered in the school building over the summer months. He and volunteers Mike Ferugia and Bob Cahoon have transformed our school office and Kindergarten classroom. Many, many hours of work were spent on making some much needed upgrades with fresh paint, new carpeting, and a deep cleaning. It is impossible to express the gratitude that all in our school building felt as we watched the work coming together, especially following some unforeseen challenges. I look so forward to being able to welcome visitors into the building to see the transformation.

We also welcome some new faces to our Saint Pius Tenth School team. Miss Anna Wiater joins us as our new Kindergarten teacher. She follows Mrs. Carol Fusilli who has “graduated” to the Fourth Grade. Miss Wiater worked very closely with Mrs. Fusilli last school year as a Teacher’s Aide, so we know she had practical experience with one of the very best!

Mr. Trevor Freed joins as our new First Grade teacher, as Mrs. Cathy Graves has moved into a full-time Academic Intervention Specialist role. Mr. Freed is a Saint Pius Tenth School alum, and we are thrilled to welcome him back in this position.

Mrs. Margaret McCann has moved into the role of Administrative Assistant in the main office and is eager to carry on the work that Mrs. Floramo did for a number of years.

It goes without saying that we welcome back the rest of our dedicated faculty and staff who returned with a renewed sense of commitment. Our students are truly blessed to have this team of educators to care for them.

Our theme for this school year will center around the school’s mission, and we look forward to sharing the good—no, the great work that Saint Pius Tenth School began so many years ago. Stay tuned for weekly articles that will deepen the vital connectedness of our entire community!

HELP WANTED

We have room for YOU on our staff too!

We have two part-time positions available

- Pre-K 4 Aide
- Before Care & After Care Aide

If you are interested please contact Mrs. Maria Cahill, principal at 247-5650.

Registration for Faith Formation/Youth Ministry for 2021-2022

Join us this coming year to grow in faith and friendship. Go to our parish website: saintpiustenth.org for information about our programs for next year.

SPX NCYC 2021 - November 19-21

Anyone in high school can attend the National Catholic Youth Conferences. Typically St Pius Tenth brings 20-25 pilgrims to the biannual conference in Indianapolis. This year since we're celebrating NCYC at home we're expecting 50-70 pilgrims.

It will be a dynamic weekend - a mixture of in person service & active learning as well as live-streamed events. At a cost of $125 per pilgrim (including Swag & meals!) it's a great price! And this year there is no 10 hour bus ride, no missing school and no overnights! Just you & a whole bunch of new friends, laughing, praying and growing together!

Register by Sept 23 at saintpiustenth.org—register for events!

SPX Sunday Youth 2021-22

The Sunday Youth Team is keeping what worked last year and letting go of what didn't work. You will see more outings and ways to connect and belong throughout the year! One of our regular activities will be to attend the 9:30 AM Mass together and then head up to the Erie Canal to bike or walk and talk about what we heard, saw, felt and understood—just as Jesus did with the disciples on the Road to Emmaus.

As we instituted last year, teens will be doing weekly readings: Grades 6-7 will be using Catholic Connections for Youth; Grades 8-12 will be using The Catholic Youth Handbook and this will be discussed in our Zoom Gatherings. "Not more zooms!". You say? Yes but they're limited, teens only have to be on camera during breakout sessions and we work hard to make them fun and engaging.

We'll be monitoring the Covid protocols throughout the year and if, as we hope, the pandemic quiets down we will happily switch from online to in person gatherings.

To register, hit the QR Code above or go the saintpiustenth.org/register-for-events.

Our next project is for the Angels of Mercy. The Angels of Mercy is a Christ-centered organization dedicated to helping women in need locally and around the world.

Their mission is to help women and girls achieve freedom, dignity and restoration through coordinated efforts and faith in God.

Among their many programs is the “Dress a Girl” program. Participants make dresses for young girls to provide them with dignity and hope and to let them and others know that they are loved and that someone is caring for them. The Dress a Girl label on the outside of the dresses indicates that an organization is looking after these girls, hopefully causing predators to pass them over. The dresses are made from fabric or from pillowcases.

To help the Angels of Mercy with their efforts, we would like to collect toiletries, placed in pillow cases. The toiletries will be given to the women that they aid and the pillowcases will be used to make dresses for young girls. Some donation ideas would be soap, shampoo, deodorant, razors, lotion, sanitary items, brushes/combs, hair ties, makeup, perfume, etc. We will also collect fabric, bias tape & grosgrain ribbon (also for making the dresses). It is preferable that pillowcases and fabric are colors or prints. Donations for this project may be dropped off at St. Pius X Credit Union, 2998 Chili Ave. They may be brought into the credit union or placed in the bin in the foyer. The last day for drop off is Monday September 20th. If you have any questions, please contact Brenda at browns005@gmail.com

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Rest in the presence of God simply because God is God and you are you. This is all that is necessary. Out of this relationship will come inspiration, understanding, courage, constancy, truth, and virtues of all kind. We will find ourselves knowing the true meaning of things and developing a depth of insight that is not found following purely human venues. It is God who inspires and opens human hearts to see truth and beauty. In God, we understand all of our relationships with a richer appreciation and come to know who Jesus, who speaks of God’s kingdom, really is. The trust that is fostered from resting with the Divine One allows us to see that God’s ways are not our ways. There is something bigger going on in this picture of life. It is something mystical and magical that seeks to surprise us at every turn. It is not for us to cling to this world and its limitations. Our adventure is to dream bigger and brighter, realizing that it is even in suffering that the radiant light of the dawn will come. God’s ways allow for our paths to be rocky, challenging, difficult, and even crippling at times. Purely human eyes cannot understand the ‘why’ of such experiences. The eyes and mind of God, however, reveal and detail a journey that ends in glorious resurrection joy. When we lose our axis and become too human in our thinking, Jesus rebukes us and gently reminds us how to see.

©LPi

A MOMENT WITH TODAY’S SCRIPTURES

We need to get our bearings straight and properly lay life’s cornerstone. Otherwise, the rest of our journey will be skewed, and our judgment clouded. We can recall Jesus’ famous rebuke of Peter, “You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do.” Even he, as one of Jesus’ closest friends struggles with understanding things and grasping the big picture. Pierre Teilhard de Chardin (1881-1955) a renowned and learned French Jesuit priest often has these words attributed to him: “We are not human beings having a spiritual experience. We are spiritual beings having a human experience.” Whether they were actually from his lips, they certainly mimic his thought. These wise words orient us and capture the essence of who we really are.

Many people consider spirituality an option. It is no wonder that they come to this conclusion when they predominantly define themselves using human terms and concepts. Immersed in this world view, they struggle finding any semblance of God because God does not work according to human expectations! This is especially true when suffering and death enter life’s picture. If we are only human beings having a spiritual experience, then we wrongly expect our spirituality to serve us as we desire. The human expectation is that my spiritual life is something that is useful in avoiding pain, hardship, and death, not something that gives the courage to live through it!

So, when we protest and get upset with God because our journey is becoming difficult, painful, treacherous, disappointing, and even pointing us toward death, Jesus rebukes us as he did Peter and gently reminds us how to see. It is God who inspires and opens hearts to see truth and beauty. In God, the true meaning of things is understood, and we receive a depth of insight and understanding that is not found following purely human paths. It is not our task to understand God, as God is beyond human understanding. Ours is the joyful privilege of simply resting in God’s presence simply because God is God and we are who we are. As spiritual beings having an exciting and adventurous human experience, it is in our DNA to do so. Through prayer we can let go and let be. This is how we lose our lives but then save them.

OFFERING REPORT

September 4 & 5, 2021

Due to the Labor Day Holiday, the Offering Report for September 4/5 was not available at the time the bulletin was printed. It will appear in next week's bulletin.

Break the Cycle of Poverty: Support the Catholic Campaign for Human Development

Next weekend, Sept. 18/19, will be the collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. CCHD addresses the root causes of poverty in America by supporting community-controlled, self-help organizations of low-income people. Here in our Diocese, four life-changing community organizations are being funded with major CCHD national grants! They include a farmworker organization, a workers' center, a land trust of low-income people becoming homeowners in inner city Rochester, and a refugee organization empowering their members to know their rights as tenants. In addition, 25% of the funds we collect will remain in our diocese to fund smaller anti-poverty projects. By supporting this collection, you are standing with people on the margins and making positive social change.

PRAYERS FOR OUR DECEASED & THEIR LOVED ONES

Please pray for our loved ones who have entered the fullness of life and for their families who mourn their loss.

Jane Doles, wife of Paul

Patricia Woods, mother of Lori Martin

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let your perpetual light shine upon them.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Can You Walk the Walk?

I've met and talked with enough people to feel confident that if you polled 100 fallen-away Catholics about why they didn't want anything to do with the Church, the term "accountability" would pop up in almost all of their answers.

And to be fair, a lack of accountability isn't just a Catholic problem. Talking the talk but not walking the walk has been a shortcoming handed down throughout the ages, across all creeds and nationalities.

Loving our neighbor, welcoming the stranger, clothing the naked, feeding the poor — it all sounds fantastic, especially when we're the ones saying it. But the doing — well, that's a different story, isn't it? We would do well to remember that Christ calls one of his best friends "Satan" when Peter tries to convince Jesus to stray from his destiny.

Have you ever been called Satan by one of your good buddies? I'll bet it's not a great feeling. But think about what Peter was doing. He had just said, "You are the Christ." And now, mere moments later, he's saying: "Don't say these things. Don't say you're going to suffer. Don't say you'll be killed."

He was telling Christ to squander what the Lord had given him. He was telling him that having faith was fine, but being faithful? It's just a little too hard. God has a destiny for you, too, and He's asking you to be open to it. Maybe it's not in your comfort zone. Maybe you don't think you can do it.

Lord, give us faith — but help us, also, to do the work.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS
