CHRISTMAS GIVING TREE

Social Ministry wants to thank you, in a very big way, for your generous response to the parish Christmas Giving Tree Ministry. Each of the agencies is so grateful for the outpouring of gifts from our parishioners. The spirit of "Christmas Giving" is truly present.

(We also want to thank the SPX students who cut the tags.)

Happy New Year
COUNT YOUR BLESSINGS.
NAME THEM ONE BY ONE.
COUNT YOUR MANY BLESSINGS.
SEE WHAT GOD HAS DONE.

Lonely? Experiencing a Difficult Time?

Don't suffer alone! Our Stephen Ministers are trained caregivers, ready to listen, care for and encourage you, pray with and for you, and help you through a crisis or difficult time. To find out more, talk with Emily (224-6296) or Dick (469-0615). Our Stephen Ministers are there to care.

Loving God,
We ask for your help in bringing about peace among all people.
As Your children, we are bound to each other through our created nature.
Help us to see that our differences are not cause for conflict.
Open our eyes and allow us to see our neighbors as our brothers and sisters.
Bless our actions, that they may be the cause of peace and not injustice.
Bless our lips, that they may speak your loving words in conversation with all people and be an avenue for change
through prayer.
Amen.

Those of us who are a “certain” age will remember Fr.
Gerry Connor. Most people will remember his admonition, “Don’t forget to share your smile” at the end of Mass. Not everyone remembered that once they got to the parking lot!

But my favorite memory of Fr. Connor was his homily on the Sunday after Christmas, the Feast of the Holy Family. He would say a few words at the ambo, I don’t remember exactly what they were. But after all the traveling, the gifting, the eating, and the clean-up associated with Christmas with our families, Father knew that most of us were just worn out, so he gave us exactly what we needed. He placed his “boom box” (remember, this was the ‘80’s) on one of the altar platform steps, and played a recording of Palchibel’s Canon in D, then he sat down.

I remember the first time I experienced this homily. At first I wasn’t sure what to do, but soon I closed my eyes and welcomed the experience of just being in the presence of God. Just being in the embrace of God.
And it was beautiful and peaceful. And it’s exactly what we needed.

A few years ago, I was introduced to Fr. Richard Rohr’s simple prayer of being, based on Psalm 46:10.
It was recommended that I find a quiet place, gently close my eyes, and take a few breaths, then start with the first line, either aloud or quietly to myself. After a couple of deep breaths, pray the second line. After a few more deep breaths, pray the third line, and so on.
The prayer can be repeated if you’d like, and it goes like this:

Be still and know that I am God,
Be still and know that I am,
Be still and know,
Be still,
Be,
Amen

May we all find a few quiet moments this Christmas season to be still and experience God’s presence.

Kindness

By: Mrs. Battisti

As I am writing this school bulletin, it amazes me how blessed I am to be working with the St. Pius Tenth School Community.

I am in my second year as the Student Advocate . I meet with students in large and small groups and one on one, at times. This year our school theme is Kindness.

Kindness is being selfless, compassionate and merciful to one another. This is part of a quote from the Bible on Kindness, “Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other.” We say this each and every day, but do we act kind to one another each day? In sharing the theme of kindness with the students at St. Pius Tenth School, we have discussed that we are the special sunshine of God’s Love, and we want to share His love by being kind to others in a variety of ways.

I meet with the boys and girls in their classrooms, as well as meeting with them during their lunch times where we discuss how important it is to be kind to one another. We share stories, role play, read books and share examples of how we are the special sunshine of God’s love.

For Advent, I met in small groups with the students as we discussed the Advent Season and how Kind Acts will be beautiful gifts to give to baby Jesus on His birthday. Students made their promises of kindness gifts for baby Jesus on strips of paper that were made into a classroom chain in remembrance of waiting for baby Jesus’ birth.

The students inspire me so much every day as they model acts of kindness. I know the little baby Jesus will love His gifts this year from the children of St. Pius Tenth School.

May all of your homes be filled with joy, peace, hope, love and blessings this Christmas Season and in the New Year!

God Bless,

Mrs. B

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

It was the best of times and it was the worst of times. Our families can bring out the best and the worst in us. This is true of our families of origin, the current family of which we are a part, the family of our church, our society, and the like. In all of our family experiences, what stands out as our most challenging memory? Everything human can be found on the pages of family life. But there is also a Divine story to be discovered as well. When life gets difficult and perplexing, today's Feast of the Holy Family stands to remind us that it is not just by human effort that we tread treacherous waters. We have to remember and learn from the Divine effort too. We need this perspective if our love lessons are going to be learned completely and well. We are all works in progress and we all come from homes that are broken by imperfection. In whatever life brings us and in whatever family we find ourselves, may the promptings we feel toward faith and hope lead us to greater love. ©LPi

A MOMENT WITH TODAY'S SCRIPTURES

Families can be very difficult things to negotiate. This is true not only of our families of origin, the current family of which we are a part, the family of our Church, our society, and our global family as well. Everything human can be found in family stories. Those stories speak of wonderful life-giving successes as well as painful spirit-robbing abuses. Our greatest joys and our greatest wounds are usually connected with the experience of family. Our needs, experiences, and unresolved baggage often color what we bring to our familiar relationships. They contribute to our level of defensiveness, how guarded and protected we become, and what prejudices we believe.

In order to break the cycle of dysfunction we have to remember that it is not only by human effort that we negotiate the difficult and challenging events of our lives. There is a Divine Effort at work as well. For sure, the human effort can create quite a mess and easily destroy lives. This is true of any family with which we are associated. Today's Feast of the Holy Family serves to help us understand that there is a Divine Story being told as well. It is a story of perseverance in the face of hardship, determination in the face of despair, healing when we see nothing but wounds, and light where there is darkness.

Do we believe that God is always working, guiding, restoring, and leading? Unless we do, we will never be free from the imperfections and wounds that bind us and never be able to understand what it really means to forgive. Pope Francis tells us that the "light which comes from the Holy Family encourages us to offer human warmth to other families." While this is most certainly true, we can only really begin to do this when we realize that we are still works in progress, not anchored to the wounds and sins of our past, and still a leading star in God's continually unfolding story of love. The Holy Family persevered and radiated warmth because they knew they were not alone. We can too. ©LPi

"GOD IS LOVE.
WHOEVER LIVES IN LOVE LIVES IN GOD AND GOD IN HIM."

ST. JOHN, APOSTLE

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

All in the Family

At first glance, we can often find the image of the Blessed Mother, St. Joseph and the Christ Child intimidating — who are we to aspire to that level of discipleship? How could we ever hope to conform ourselves to that mold? Sometimes, it can even be painful — perhaps we hail from a broken family or struggle with a broken relationship within our family, or perhaps we long to be a mother or a father ourselves and that state in life has eluded us.

But the image of the Holy Family is, in reality, a beautiful invitation to us all, no matter our vocation or our state in life, and the example of Mary, Joseph and Jesus is rich with the symbolism of stewardship.

You need not be a biological mother who has carried a child in her womb to be a mother in spirit. Who in your world needs you to love them with the heart of a mother?

The same goes for fatherhood. The Church and the world are crying out for the courageous witness of Christian men like St. Joseph. Who can you love with the steadfast, selfless protection of a father?

Who in your life needs you to love them with the faithful, unconditional love of a son? Who needs your gentle and constant love as a daughter?

We are the Body of Christ, friends. Those of us rejoicing in heaven, those of us suffering in purgatory, and those of us struggling here on earth. We are the great family. Let us love each other well.
