NEW!

Reaching Out Ministry

Our mission as a parish is that every day we should reach out to bring all things together in Jesus Christ. With that in mind, we ask: Do you know a St Pius X parishioner who is unable to participate in Church because of their health or other concerns? We are hoping to start a ministry that will enable us to Reach Out and help them feel the love that the St Pius X Community has for them even while they are away from us. While we are not able to visit them in person, we still want to create connections by sending them cards and notes to help them feel loved. Nursing Home & Rehab Facilities are barred by HIPPA laws from letting us know if a parishioner resides with them. If you know someone who fits this description, who would appreciate hearing from us please let us know. We would need information on where to contact them. Also, if you would like to help with this new Reach Out Ministry please call or email Sr Jean Catherine at 247-9514 or email at jcwelch@ssjrochester.org.

You Can Play an Important Role in Our Stephen Ministry

Because you may know of a friend, neighbor, co-worker, or relative who is going through a difficult time and who could benefit from the focused care, encouragement, and support of a Stephen Minister.

If you know of someone who is hurting, talk with one of our Stephen Leaders: Emily (224-6296) or Dick (469-0615). They can talk with you about how we can connect the person you know with one of our Stephen Ministers. It's a great way for you to show how much you care!

St. Pius X Pastor's Pastoral Page (on Facebook) Good Morning World. It is January 18th, Tuesday of the second week in ordinary time. The readings for today's mass (including an audio version) may be found at usccb.org. The gospel is from Mark 2:23-28

I'll be honest with you. This can be a tough gospel for some folks.

There are some folks who do not like rules and regulations. And there are some folks who find their safety and security in rules and regulations.

God deserves our praise, worship and thanksgiving. We need to praise, worship and give thanks to God.

Being fallible human beings, we often do not do what we should do and we often do what we should not do.

"Remember the sabbath day—keep it holy.

Six days you may labor and do all your work, but the seventh day is a sabbath of the LORD your God. You shall not do any work, either you, your son or your daughter, your male or female slave, your work animal, or the resident alien within your gates. For in six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth, the sea and all that is in them; but on the seventh day he rested. That is why the LORD has blessed the sabbath day and made it holy." (Exodus 20:8-11)

"Keep it holy: i.e., to set it apart from the other days of the week, in part, as the following verse explains, by not doing work that is ordinarily done in the course of a week." (bible.usccb.org: footnote 20:8)

People tended flocks and raised crops. It is easy to get consumed by the needs of the animals and the tending of the fields. It can also be just as easy (if not easier) to realize the more I work, the wealthier I can become. The resulting greed can lead to the abuse of your children, slaves, work animals and alien workers.

There is a human need for rest. There is a spiritual need to remember and recognize from whom all gifts and blessings flow.

So on the seventh day, we rest. This rest keeps us from overworking family and workers. It provides necessary rest and relaxation. It provides the needed opportunity to praise, worship and thank God from whom we receive all that we have.

When we follow this teaching, the Sabbath serves us well.

Being fallible human beings, some folks tried to come up with ways around this teaching.

In response, some leaders tried to control the folks by developing further explanations of the teaching.

People picked grain for a living. Therefore, picking grain is a work activity. You are not supposed to do your work activity on the Sabbath. Therefore, picking grain is not allowed on the Sabbath.

Even if you are walking through a field, and you are a little bit hungry and pop off a few grains to quiet your stomach.

It would be like, for current times, if I owned or worked on an apple farm and was taking a leisurely walk on a Sunday afternoon through the orchard. I got a bit hungry, so I reached up and picked an apple to snack on. That would be seen as violating the Sabbath laws.

At that point, the Sabbath stops serving people and people start serving the Sabbath.

On a sabbath he went to dine at the home of one of the leading Pharisees, and the people there were observing him carefully.

In front of him there was a man suffering from dropsy.

Jesus spoke to the scholars of the law and Pharisees in reply, asking, "Is it lawful to cure on the sabbath or not?"

But they kept silent; so he took the man and, after he had healed him, dismissed him.

Then he said to them, "Who among you, if your son or ox falls into a cistern, would not immediately pull him out on the sabbath day?"

But they were unable to answer his question. (Luke 14:1-6)

So we are back at what Jesus says in today's gospel: "The sabbath was made for man, not man for the sabbath."

World, I know that some folks find safety and security in following rules and regulations. It's how they can feel like they're doing the right thing and, therefore, are in good standing with God.

We are called to a relationship with God, especially in the person of Jesus. Rules and regulations can help us develop a relationship with God. But we need to be careful that we don't make the rules and regulations a substitute for our relationship with God.

The Sabbath was made for us. And we are made for a relationship with God.

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

People can easily lose a sense of the sacred and transcendent. When we lose a sense of God's special presence, we need to be brought back. Ezra brought people back to the word of God and they realized what they were missing. Jesus proclaims God's word in the synagogue with true conviction and tells those gathered that he is the fulfillment of all that Isaiah taught. Even though people get lost, distracted, discouraged, and often journey down the wrong path, God's timeless law remains. When we allow ourselves to truly hear God's word and act on it, that living word slowly, over time, changes us. It has the power to soften and mold us, creating within us a joyful spirit. We realize the truth in what God speaks and become open to God's love. Gradually and gently God leads us back where we belong. We discover again the sacred character of life and the wonder of God's power. It is no wonder that Luke addresses his remarks to Theophilus. It is a name that means "beloved of God," a name that can be used by anyone who desires friendship with God.

©LPi

A MOMENT WITH TODAY'S SCRIPTURES

Human history reveals many periods where people lost a sense of God's transcendence. It may even be argued that human beings have been wandering and lost more than they have been at home and focused. Human nature being what it is, we struggle with who God really is — the God of our salvation history or the "gods" of human constructs. Relying on our own designs and pursuits, we forget that we really are meant to listen to One upon whom the Spirit of the Lord rests, Jesus Christ, and not to ourselves. That same history that reveals our fickleness and infidelity also reveals God's constancy and faithfulness. God always finds us.

As people wander and fumble to find their way, God is there bringing them back to holiness and giving them the assurance of His presence. We have to allow God's Word, God's life, to touch us and change us. It can make us more flexible and attentive to the sacred in all facets of life so that every day is one that is holy. Every day is a time when fulfillment is possible for one's soul. Jesus stood before those gathered in the synagogue as the fulfillment of words of promise that were echoed long ago. God doesn't forget. He always comes for us.

Now it is time to remember to go to God. Sometimes our lives are so confused and tangled that it is difficult to see the Word and hand of God. But when we realize, deep within, the depth of friendship God offers to us it really has the power to turn sadness to joy. The promise is fulfilled. Going frequently to God's Word, allowing ourselves to be enriched and rejuvenated, and pondering the certainty of God's fidelity and promise permanently transforms us. We will be more aware of the sacred and the holy and less invested in things that pull us away.

On Christmas evening, 2021 the Jefferson Avenue Seventh Day Adventist Church experienced a catastrophic fire in the same way St. Pius X experienced a fire on New Year's Day 2015.

While we don't know specifically if someone from that Church community contributed to the St. Pius X Rebuild fund, we do know we received unsolicited donations from other churches and individuals that significantly contributed to the beautiful worship space we have today.

Through January 31, the St. Pius X Knights of Columbus Council 17086 will be collecting donations to be forwarded to the SDA Church Rebuild fund.

Please keep Pastor Hanson Drysdale and the entire congregation in your prayers. We know all-too-well the devastation they are facing and the faith in God that is needed to journey what lies ahead for them.

If you would like to make a donation, there are 2 options:

- Credit Card: go to kofc17086.square.site and select your donation amount.
- Check: Make check to 'St. Pius X Council 17086' and put "SDA Church Donation" in the memo area and mail to:

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP Plant Your Works in the Word

One of the things about Scripture is that even the smallest word and shortest phrase can be critical to the overall message. When you take a quiet moment to rest with the Word, you find how quickly the most mundane sentence can reach out and grab you, pulling you into a deeper contemplation of some truth you hadn't even considered until then.

But we often fail to act as the Israelites in the Book of Nehemiah, standing before the Water Gate "listening attentively." Whether it's at Mass during the Liturgy of the Word or at home poring over the Bible, time after time we find ourselves less mindful than we could be. Our ears accept the sounds of the words and our eyes glance over the shape of the letters.

But are we mindful — truly?

The best answer is hopefully at least sometimes. There are always tasks to be completed, problems weighing on our minds that we can't quite give over to God. We lose ourselves in these things instead of in Scripture. We "clock in" with Bible reading instead of "diving in."

We can never forget that the words of the Lord are spirit and life. They are the soil that quickens the seed of all stewardship. There is no mindfulness, no prayer, no graciousness, no gratitude or accountability or sense of commitment unless there is the Word.

So let us pray today for mindfulness, that our every action will be grounded in the law of God — giving it true spirit and life.
