COMMUNION AT HOME

If you would like a parish visitor to bring you communion or visit you after your discharge from the hospital or extended care facility, please call the Parish Office.

Are you experiencing emotional distress during this (maybe) post-Covid time? During these uncertain times, whatever we can do that makes us feel better is a plus. One way to bring some peace into life is to talk to someone who will listen. Someone who will not judge us, but rather provide empathy, understanding and peace of mind. Need to talk, if even just for a short time with a phone call or in person? Our St. Pius Stephen Ministers are here to lend an ear. We are free and confidential. Give us a try. Contact Bill (585-208-1880) or Emily (585-224-6296).

St. Pius X Pastor's Pastoral Page (on Facebook)

Good Morning World. It is June 6th, Monday of the 10th week in ordinary time. Today is also the memorial of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of the Church. The readings for today's mass (including an audio version) may be found at uscgb.org.

The gospel is from John 19:25-34

I readily admit that I was strange as a little kid. And our family had its eccentricities as well.

From an early age I would walk in and ask a sibling, "Where's your mother?" It wasn't where's my mother or where's mom. It was where is YOUR mother.

Of course, she was my mother, too. But that strange way of asking did have the effect of making it explicit that she was OUR mother.

As Jesus was hanging on the cross, He said to John, "Behold, your mother." My mother is your mother.

John accepted what Jesus was saying. He received Mary as his mother and took her into his care.

Today's memorial marks Mary as Mother of the Church. The Church is the living body of Christ. Mary is the Mother of Christ. So, following logic, if Mary is the Mother of Christ, and the Church is the living body of Christ, then Mary is the Mother of the Church.

The Second Vatican Council reinforced that the people of God are the Church. Once again, following logic, if Mary is the Mother of the Church, and we are the Church, then Mary is our Mother as well.

World, we picked up an extra mother. She is in heaven with Jesus. She has a history of interceding with Him to work miracles.

If we were going to receive another mother, World, Mary is the best one to receive.

What's going on in PE?

By: Tim Davis

What do you say when you just can't put into words what you really mean?

On behalf of Saint Pius Tenth School, our faculty and staff, and our amazing students -

THANK YOU!!!!

After the weeks and months of preparation, meetings, phone calls, reminders, and so much more, the school golf tournament is "in the books." God is So Good!

From the weather down to the very last detail, things were just beautiful! We had an amazing turnout on an absolutely stunning golf course.

Events like this, as I know you already know, take so many people to put together. Our committee, our sponsors, our donors, faculty and staff, printers, of course our golfers, and the list goes on and on!

We do these things with great love for our most precious gift...our students.

Special Thank You to Fr. Paul for coming to offer prayer before our bountiful (and delicious) dinner.

I would just like to share some of the many, many special memories of the 2022 Saint Pius Tenth Golf Tournament...

And they're off...

A Graduation Prayer

Loving God, we thank you for all who graduate from grade school, high school and college this time of the year. You have blessed them during their years in school with wisdom, friendships, and skills. You continue to challenge them to make this world a better place because of their education.

Help them to look forward to their next steps: continuing in their education or entering the work world. Particularly help those who are seeking employment to find a job suitable to their education.

Give them faith and a sense of purpose in their next steps.

Show them how to serve others in effective ways.

And may they be always be aware in everything they do that they will find fulfillment in doing your will, that you will be with them always, and that you will be with them to completion the good work you have begun in them.

Amen.

"St. Anthony, St. Anthony, come around! Something's lost that must be found!" Did you learn this rhyme in childhood? St. Anthony of Padua is more than the patron saint for lost items. By his life, he shows a special interest in lost souls. St. Anthony was born to noble parents, but he preferred a simple life of faith to the riches of his childhood. He joined the Franciscan order in 1220. He quickly became known for his eloquence in preaching. He had a way of reaching all sorts, from nobles to clergy to those who had fallen away from the Catholic faith. In addition to preaching, St. Anthony organized supplies for the poor and negotiated release for prisoners of war between Italian city-states. However you or your loved ones feel lost this week, pray for St. Anthony's intercession!

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Life can leave us feeling very distracted and detached. Perhaps this is why many people seek things that make them "feel good," wrongly believing those things actually provide a sense of meaning and purpose. In truth, they are simply more distractions. When we discover real silence, we can realize that the stirrings and impulses in our hearts desiring connection, meaning, and purpose are really God desperately trying to pull us toward His Divine Heart. Once we submit to God's pull, we are led to the beauty of God's presence. This holy presence carries us to the heights of mountains, the vastness of ocean depths, the beginning of things and their end, and the majesty of universal wonder. We meet the Father. Then, gently carried to the tenderness of compassion, love, mercy, and forgiveness we touch the innocence and vulnerability of life. We see the poor and those who are broken. We meet the Son. Finally, we are directed toward the seasons that change, the ebb and flow of life, the inspirations that surprise, and the wonder, awe, and joy of life. We embrace the Holy Spirit. ©LPI

A MOMENT WITH TODAY'S SCRIPTURES

In creative celebration of the Most Holy Trinity, pray a rosary with creation. Find a quiet place outside or sit near a window. Contemplate the amazing Divine Gift that is before you. Admire it. Study it. Become one with it. Ask for the guidance of Brother St. Francis as you pray: "You, Holy Father, are King of heaven and earth. You are three in one, God above all gods. You are good, all good, and supreme good, Lord God, living and true. You are love. You are beauty. You are gentleness. You are joy. You are hope and happiness." Admire the wonder and majesty of God in all that is around you. Ask for wisdom and understanding.

Begin each decade with the Our Father and conclude with the Glory Be.

Decade one: Contemplate God the Father. As you pray each bead with a Hail Mary, get lost in the grandeur of all that you see. Imagine the thousands and thousands of years of history that is before you. Envision a time when nothing existed. What is nothing? Lift your eyes, heart, and soul to the power and magnificence of the universe, its expanse and its endlessness. You are one with it all. God's creative power.

Decade two: Contemplate God the Son. Behold the squirrels, birds, and critters all conducting life's business. They have heartbeats just like yours. Praying each bead, become one with the incarnate divine life that flows through you and flows with the smallest of creatures. It is holy innocence and blessed life. Tenderness. Compassion, Mercy. Reverence. All want to be held, have a home, and be loved. God in all things. Emmanuel.

Decade three: Contemplate God the Holy Spirit. The changing of times and seasons happens often without notice. It is all within God's care and guided. We all belong. Behold the living, dying, and rising to new life. You are one with all time from beginning into eternity.

Decade Four: Contemplate God as One.

Decade Five: Contemplate God as three. All different while remaining one. The divine dance is being danced before you. Rest in what you see. Become what you see. We are all connected: God of the Holy Trinity, creation, our brothers and sisters, the animals, and the plants.

The rosary you have prayed celebrates the circle of connectedness and the intimate relationship we share with all things: a glimpse of the Trinity.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Up to the Job

Have you ever had a job for which you didn't feel qualified? I think we all have, whether it was a paying gig or not. A lot of us parents often feel in awe of the magnitude of that role and lose sleep worrying that we made the wrong decision in one situation or a bad call in another. Some of us feel intimidated by what our communities need from us, on the parish level or in our personal relationships. Or maybe we are simply dreading a task that seems too big, too overwhelming — that necessary basement cleanout, or the weekly organization of family schedules.

When we don't feel qualified, we don't want to do the work. We get stuck in our own fear. That's the birthplace of procrastination, self-doubt and bitterness. When we look inward at our own abilities, we can only see all the traits that aren't there. The intelligence, the dexterity, the ambition — whatever it is we lack, we get stuck on it.

I've got good news and bad news. I'll start with the bad news: none of us are qualified for the call of discipleship. We simply aren't. We don't have the love or grace or strength to get the job done.

Now I'll give you the good news: God knows this, and He doesn't care. Stewardship does not insist that we possess every good quality — no, as a way of life, stewardship recognizes that we lack so many qualities. But it shows us where to find the love and grace and strength we need. Stewardship does not demand that we know every answer; it merely reminds us who to ask when we don't.
