SOCIAL MINISTRY REQUEST

The Focus Pregnancy Help Center is in need of strollers and pack-n-plays, clean and in good condition. Please call Mary at 585-200-9477 for details of where and when to deliver.

Thank you for your help.

Consider: Everyone goes through a variety of difficult times that may cause anxiety. Some may think their situation is not serious enough to have a Stephen Minister and they can handle it on their own. Having someone to care, to listen, to share God's love with you can help you get through the confusion or stress you may be experiencing. A Stephen Ministry caring relationship may last a couple of weeks or a couple of years depending on your needs. Consider allowing a Stephen Minister to walk with you on this journey. Contact Bill (585-208-1880) or Emily (585-224-6296).

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED SWEM, the SouthWest Ecumenical Ministry, is an emergency food cupboard providing food assistance to 11 zip codes from Lyell Ave to the river going west out to Churchville. ## Religious Freedom Week 2022: Life and Dignity for All Religious freedom allows the Church, and all religious communities, to live out their faith in public and to serve the good of all. Beginning June 22, the feast of Sts. Thomas More and John Fisher, the USCCB invites Catholics to pray, reflect, and act to promote religious freedom.

June 22 WALKING WITH MOMS IN NEED

Pray that local churches and communities will have the vision and the freedom to walk with moms in need.

June 23 CHURCH VANDALISM

Pray that Christian witness in the face of attacks on our churches will convert hearts to faith in Jesus Christ.

June 24 ADOPTION AND FOSTER CARE

Pray that people of faith will continue to have the freedom to serve in the life-affirming ministry of adoption and foster care.

June 25 TAXPAYER FUNDING FOR ABORTION

Pray that civic leaders would promote life and dignity for all.

June 26 RELIGIOUS FREEDOM IN CHINA

Pray for the freedom of the Church in China, and that the rights of all religious minorities would be respected.

Fifth Grade Retreat

By: Mrs. Russell

The end of the school year brings many things: special events, anticipation, and different feelings. The fifth graders participated in their retreat on June 6th and spent the day reflecting on their growth—emotional as well as spiritual.

Mrs. Legere did a wonderful job engaging students to think about their time spent here at St. Pius Tenth School and their future when they leave.

They talked about their faith and how that will help them as they begin a new journey. Some activities involved characteristics of a good friend, their gifts from God, and affirmation from their friends.

Games were played and fun was had by all! Students found out how hard it was to have a wheelbarrow race and realized that communication is key— a skill needed when forming new friendships.

The fifth graders created positive affirmations for their classmates to create a special poster for everyone.

Children read some touching words from their parents that brought many to tears (of happiness).

Finally, Sr. Jean led us through a quiet meditation and prayer to help us remember our relationship with God as well as everything learned at St. Pius Tenth School.

It was a very special day indeed, and I am so proud of the maturity and reflection from the students. It is a great feeling to see how prepared they are for their next steps!

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Good dietitians will remind us that we are not only the product of what we eat but the disciplines we undertake. Many people spend a great deal of time and effort eating a healthy diet, getting a sufficient amount of rest, and engaging in regular exercise. Experts tell us that attending to these increases our chances for a longer life. While this is certainly a worthy pursuit, is our earthly life really the one that requires the most attention and effort? Faith kicks in to remind us that we are meant to live forever with God. Hence, isn't it our eternal destiny that requires most of our effort and attention? The food and nourishment we need to achieve this goal and fine tune our souls for this promised inheritance are the Body and Blood of Christ. Only this heavenly sustenance will unite us with God and our brothers and sisters, strengthen us to do what the Gospel asks us to do and prepare us for life eternal. Through the discipline of prayer, our desire to receive our Lord is deepened. It is this yearning, above anything else, that we want clearly seen and front and center when we close our eyes in death. God loves us so much that he gave us his only begotten Son. Let us rush to receive him!

A MOMENT WITH TODAY'S SCRIPTURES

Jesus went to those most in need. He forgave the sinner, ate with the outcast, defended, and fed those who were poor and hungry. He worked for true justice, risked being unpopular, willingly accepted suffering and death, and always stayed connected with his Abba, Father. Jesus also consistently reminded folks that God's compassion, love, and mercy trump everything, even the law. This is the Christ that the Eucharist calls us to be. As we look around our churches, our towns and cities, and our world, there are many people who need to see the face and body of Christ. Some of those most in need may be right within our families. But it is always in the poorest of the poor and those most vulnerable that we find the greatest need. There are many who cannot function on their own. When the gift of the Eucharistic Christ takes root in our hearts, we can more readily see the face of Christ in others.

Many people are vulnerable. Highest on that list are the homeless. They show us the face of Christ. Whatever the cause, to have no place to go and no place to call home takes a toll on the human spirit. For Jesus when there were hungry people, they were fed. God asks us to do the same ... feed people. There are many who are hungry physically, emotionally, and spiritually. Gifted by the Eucharistic presence of Christ, we can bring them Christ. Who are the hungry around us and how can we feed them?

When someone is hurting, you comfort them. When someone is hungry, you feed them. When someone needs clothes, you provide them. When someone is cold, you warm them. When someone is in prison, you visit them. With over a million people who are homeless and over a quarter of them children, it is important to ask the question, "why?" and strategize for ways to lessen or alleviate the problem. Nevertheless, we are not off the hook for responding to the immediate needs that present themselves at our doors. Whether a person's current station in life is self-imposed or the result of being victimized, they are sacred vessels. We cannot lock the door and send them away and still believe we bear the Eucharistic presence of Christ. It doesn't work like that. ©LPi

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Sacred Vessels

Have you ever paid attention to the purification of the sacred vessels after Holy Communion? If you haven't, I highly recommend doing so this Sunday. See the care with which the priest handles the chalice and the paten, pouring water into them to cleanse any loose particles of the Body and Blood of Christ. Observe the loving reverence he uses in wiping them dry with a special purificator. It's a ritual unto itself, and a powerful moment for reflection.

These vessels begin as earthly objects. They are made by human hands. There is nothing special about them — not until they go about the work for which they have been created. Until they contain the Body and Blood of Christ, they are only ordinary objects. But after they have carried within them the Eucharist, they are never the same. They will always be special and deserving of special care.

That's why partaking of the Eucharist is, for us, an evangelical undertaking. It is both a transformation and a declaration. When we accept this tremendous gift, we are proclaiming what we believe, and we are accepting the grace to follow through on that commitment.

When we are receiving the Eucharist, it is not possible for us to be passive. We become the vessel. We carry Christ into the world with us.

But do we act like it? Do we treat ourselves — our bodies, our souls — with the same respect as the priest cleansing the chalice? Do we treat one another with the reverence we would reserve for a sacred object? When we look at another person with anger or irritation or envy, do we acknowledge the change that we have willingly undergone by receiving Christ's Body and Blood into ourselves?

Blessing of Fathers

*God and Father of all creation,
we come before you today with humble hearts.
You are our model of a loving father.
When we fail and fall short of your expectations,
you are always there at the end of the day with open arms,
ready to heal the cuts and scrapes of the day and to encourage us to try again and not to give up.*

We hold up these men in our midst who act in the world as fathers to their children or models of fathers for others.

Bless them in their moments of doubt and frustration with their children.

Give them warm and open hearts to forgive failures.

Provide them with the words needed for encouragement and perseverance.

We ask all this in the name of Jesus.

Amen.
