▶▶▶ Reminder

"Besides physical hunger, man experiences another hunger, a hunger that cannot be satiated with ordinary food. It's a hunger for life, a hunger for love, a hunger for eternity. And the sign of manna — like the entire experience of Exodus — also contains in itself this dimension: it was the symbol of a food that satisfies this deep human hunger."

Pope Francis

The Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist

A Real Symbol

We believe that the Holy Eucharist is both real AND a symbol. Of course we believe that Jesus Christ – God's own Son – is really and truly present in the consecrated bread and wine. But this is also a symbol, pointing beyond our earthly experience towards a union with Christ that is impossible to explain this side of heaven. All sacraments are outward signs of an invisible grace, the working of God in our lives. This real symbol is an effective sign. This holy meal is truly a Communion with God.

MINISTRY.

Consider: Everyone goes through a variety of difficult times that may cause anxiety. Some may think their situation is not serious enough to have a Stephen Minister and they can handle it on their own. Having someone to care, to listen, to share God's love with you can help you get through the confusion or stress you may be experiencing. A Stephen Ministry caring relationship may last a couple of weeks or a couple of years depending on your needs. Consider allowing a Stephen Minister to walk with you on this journey. St. Pius X Pastor's Pastoral Page (on Facebook)

Good Morning World. It is July 6th, Wednesday of the 14th week in ordinary time. July 6th is the memorial of Saint Maria Goretti. The readings for today's mass (including an audio version) may be found at uscgb.org.

The first reading is from Hosea 10:1-3, 7-8, 12

Israel is compared to a luxuriant vine, with unbelievable growth and abundant fruit. And that is wonderful.

However...

Israel lost touch. Israel lost focus. Israel broke her connection with God. Israel forget who she was and where she came from.

Israel started attributing her growth, her fruit, to false gods. The altars and sacred pillars are tributes to foreign gods, places of sacrifice to false gods.

But what did they do? What did non-existent gods do for Israel?

Nothing. Not a single, solitary thing.

What did God do for Israel?

God created the world into which each of Israel's citizens was born. God created each of her citizens' ancestors, which lead to them born. God fashioned them in their mothers' wombs. God provided air, sunshine and water. God created all the plants and animals. God is the source of all that is good.

God provided guidance for living the best life possible in this world. God provided compassion and mercy and forgiveness. God offered them a covenant to be a people peculiarly His own. God gave them His love.

And in response, the people of Israel build pillars and altars to false gods.

We cannot commit this sin of Israel. We cannot forget.

We cannot forget from whence we have come. We cannot forget who created us, sustains us and redeems us. We cannot forget that we are a covenant people with God, through the New Covenant of Jesus. We cannot forget that God loves us so much that He sent His only Son, Jesus, not to condemn us but to save us.

If we forget, we can think that who we are and all that we have is good luck or fate. We can think that who we are and all that we have is of the doing of others or, unbelievably, is of our own doing.

Stop and think about it. Can you, or anyone you know, create a world out of nothing? Can you make a tree or a bird? Can you make air or water from nothing?

God can. And God did.

And God made you, World, because God loves you.

A lot.

1st Grade News By: Trevor Freed

As the 2021-2022 school year came to a close, I couldn't help but be so proud of all the progress the 1st grade class made this year. These 1st grade students, and all other students here at St. Pius X, persevered through many challenges throughout this school year and have handled each and every one of them with strength. I could not be more proud to work in such a great school with such fantastic faculty, staff, and students.

It was definitely hard to say goodbye to this group as they were my first students as a professional teacher. I know, however, that they will all be in very capable hands as they move on into second grade, and I look forward to doing it all over again with a new group of students next year.

On a different note, over the last days of the school year, as summer vacation was quickly approaching, you can bet that the first graders hadn't forgotten to remind me of it each and every day when they walked into the classroom. Many of them came in ready to share plans they were making for their summer breaks, and I have to admit, some of it sounded really good to me!

No matter what fun activities they may partake in this summer, I just hope that they all enjoy it and get some quality time to relax with their families because they have certainly earned it. Congratulations on a job well done 2021-2022 first graders!

“10 Ways to Support Her When She’s Unexpectedly Expecting”

Feast of Saints Joachim and Anne:

July 26, 2022

The Feast of Saints Anne and Joachim, parents of the Blessed Virgin Mary, is celebrated on July 26. They are powerful intercessors for all married couples, expectant mothers, and married couples who are having difficulty conceiving, as well as those who are aging. Copies of the “Faith and Perseverance” Novena to Saints Anne and Joachim are available for download at <https://www.usccb.org/issues-and-action/marriage-and-family/natural-family-planning/upload/nfp-sts-anne-joachim-novena.pdf>

You can pray the novena from July 17-25 in preparation for their feast day.

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

We become a welcoming person when we can step aside from our own needs and desires to create space for someone else. Welcoming involves a quality of listening and presence that communicates to another person that what they are sharing and who they are have importance. When we shift attention and focus from ourselves and direct it toward someone else, positive things can happen. When someone knows that their story matters, it can be life changing and life-giving. Hospitality brings forth life and celebrates relationships. Whether we are actively tending to the business of serving the needs of others or opening ourselves to listening to their story, devotion and attentiveness are friends of love. Becoming anxious and preoccupied with one’s personal agenda leaves no room for the creative, nurturing and spontaneous power of God’s love.

©LPi

A MOMENT WITH TODAY’S SCRIPTURES

“Our families need to ask for the gift of the Spirit! Through prayer, even in the busiest times, we give time back to God, we find the peace that comes from appreciating the important things, and we encounter the joy of God’s unexpected gifts. Through daily prayer may our homes become, like the house of Martha and Mary, places where Jesus always finds a warm welcome (Pope Francis).” While it is necessary to attend to the details of hospitality, learning how to be present to people, experiences, and God is sometimes more important. Creating homes that are welcoming environments requires not only organization and structure but members who truly enjoy being there and celebrating life with one another.

Details can often get the best of us. While attending to details is important to success, our obsession with them can be problematic. Whether wanting to make a good impression, fear of failure, insecurity, or emotional immaturity, throwing ourselves into the “details” of hospitality can distract us from being present to those we want to serve. Conversely, focusing exclusively on being present without any attention to detail also sets our attempts at hospitality up for disaster! We need a balance of both. But creating a truly welcoming space in our homes and within ourselves requires still more.

We have to be empty of ourselves. Becoming a welcoming, hospitable person is not possible in someone focused on their own needs and desires. If the one we serve is the one who looks back at us in the mirror, then there is no space for anyone else. While Martha and Mary had different ideas of what it means to serve, they both had the inner space and freedom to do so. They were detached from themselves. Detachment becomes the challenge to hospitality and creating a God-centered, open-hearted space in our lives. When we impulsively act out of our personal agendas, violence, abuse, pride, greed, lust, power, control, passion, and self-aggrandizement encroach upon the space needed to be present to another human being. Not only can others not find a home in us, but even God cannot find a home in us!

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Be Ready for God to “Stop By”

In my experience, most people can be divided into two groups: those who are old enough to remember when you kept food on hand for company, and those who aren't.

For those of you in the latter group, let me explain. Before text messaging and social media made us all unconditionally, mercilessly reachable, people would do this thing called “stopping by.” They would be passing by a friend's house, maybe on the way home from work or shopping, and they would just ... stop. With no warning. No notice whatsoever. “I was just in the neighborhood,” they would say. I remember my mother and I would do this on many a Saturday. It wasn't an everyday occurrence, but it was common enough that you had to be ready.

“Crazy,” you might exclaim. “People just appeared on your doorstep? How did you cope with the uncertainty?” Well, most of us had moms who kept a little something on hand to eat or drink that was extra nice, just in case anyone stopped by. That way, we were always ready.

Today's readings are about a lot of things: prayer, hope, redemptive suffering. They're about what it means to be a Christian, and not just what it means to do Christian things.

Most of all, though, they're about readiness. If God showed up at your door, would you be ready for Him? Would you be ready for what He gives you, or what He takes away? Would you be ready for Him to interrupt the plans you have for yourself? To disrupt the idea you carry in your mind of what a servant or a steward is supposed to be?

Read your Bible. Say your rosary. Go to Mass. Get to Confession. Talk to God — every day, not just when you think you need Him. That way, you are always ready.
