

December 24—Dec 27, 2020 Christmas—Feast of the Holy Family

CELEBRATING THE BIRTH OF JESUS IN THE INN OF OUR OWN HEARTS

In one simple unassuming sentence, the Christmas mystery is revealed. From the evangelist Luke: “While they were there, the time came for her to have her child, and she gave birth to her firstborn son.”

The power of God comes to us in a tiny infant. God is with us in the Bethlehem infant born to Mary and Joseph. This night of mystery had its origins on the darkened hills of Judea. In the dark of night, an angel proclaimed to the shepherds, “Do not be afraid. For behold, I proclaim to you good news of a great joy to be shared by all. Today in David’s city, a Savior has been born to you who is Christ and Lord. And this will be a sign for you; you will find an infant wrapped in swaddling clothes and lying in a manger.”

“She wrapped him in swaddling clothes and laid him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.” No room in the inn is not simply a description of the housing situation in Bethlehem at the time. It is a probing statement that is meant for us to continually reflect upon as we retell the Christmas story.

And so, may I ask you what is the housing situation in the inn of your heart? Is there room in the inn of our hearts for the birth of the Savior? Is there room in the inn of your heart for the family member for whom you have difficulty getting along with? Is there room in the inn of your heart for people who think differently than you -- politically, religiously, or in any way whatsoever? Is there room in the inn of our hearts for Jesus who lives in the hearts of the poor, the immigrants, and children of all cultures and of all ways of life?

From the darkened hills of Judea, in the dark of night long ago to these liturgies celebrated here at Holy Spirit and St. Joseph’s, Jesus is present in our midst when we speak the language of love to each other, when we share the gift of self, and when we gather around the Table of the Lord in awe and mystery to give thanks to the Lord our God.

In the inn of our own hearts, there is an infant wrapped in swaddling clothes and lying in a manger. We are missioned to be the keepers of the mystery of Christmas – God is with us. We give birth to Christ when we allow the light that is within us to extend to our family, and our parish family, and to all of creation.

You may be sure that to whatever area of our life we allow the Christ child to enter, the darkness recedes. The mystery of Christmas is allowing the person of Jesus to enter the inn of our hearts. It is an invitation to look at our present moment through a different lens, the mystery of the nativity of Jesus, the wonder of the Incarnation. This new lens enables us to see a new and radiant vision, a light for people who walk in darkness.

May the Prince of Peace bring you and your family much joy and peace,
Fr. Jim

Gospel Reflection

Scripture Readings for January 3, 2021 The Epiphany of the Lord

Reading 1: Isaiah 60:1-6
Reading 2: Ephesians 3: 2-3a, 5-6
Gospel: Matthew 2:1-12

GOSPEL QUESTION OF THE WEEK:

Next Sunday we celebrate the Epiphany. We hear the story of the Magi being sent by Herod to search diligently for the child. And so they followed the star. Today, we sometimes need to be diligent in our search for Jesus, and we need to look for the star that will lead and help us to grow closer to God. In the coming year, how might you work at allowing your faith to be the guiding star of how you live your life?

Daily readings are always available at www.usccb.org/bible/readings

Our Online Community

A Reflection by Nancy Veronesi, St. Joseph's Director of Worship

I recently learned a phrase that I adore and use almost every day! I read a story about a little girl who wondered how her mom seemed to know how to do everything. Her mom explained, 'EVERYTHING IS FIGUREOUTABLE'! (Also the title of a pretty cool book).

It was mid-March. My mind was racing, protocol was changing; sometimes hourly. We can't gather. How can we connect with everyone? As a team, we made the decision to go all in with live-streaming our Mass. It was the beginning of a magical experiment. Without missing a beat, each day for the past 9 ½ months, when we go 'on the air', our online community arrives. Thousands of people worship with our parish community, both live and on demand. We broadcast throughout the USA and beyond sharing baptisms, anniversary blessings, prayer services and of course the Holy Mass. First Eucharist celebrations were live-streamed to grandparents, godparents, aunts and uncles. We have live-streamed weddings & funerals to Italy, Mexico, Ireland, Germany and the Philippines. From a distance, family members are able to be with their loved ones in good times and challenging times.

People share their stories. "Grandma sat safely in her comfortable chair and was able to be at our wedding!" "Thank you! my relatives in Italy felt as though they were here with us." "Family and friends watched the funeral live. My family has also viewed it since the service many times." Faithful pilgrims on the journey together share the presence of Christ as they hear a homily that touches the heart, present in the worship space or at home, isolated from their children and grandchildren. The Word of God is broken open by our clergy who pray that it reaches those who are most in need. I have personally received countless voice mails, notes, emails, online messages. Each one is from another sister or brother of Jesus grateful to be able to join in prayer during an unprecedented time of a worldwide pandemic.

In March, I watched our priests preside at mass in an empty church, their eyes trained on 'CAMERA ONE' because that is where the People of God were! I am reminded every time I press the 'ON AIR' button and aim the camera on the right spot, that I am facilitating the prayer of our online community. For me, it's sort of magical because I don't understand how it works, it just works! Our shared experience embodies what IS the paschal mystery. I don't know about you, but I am living in the moment these days and I'll take every magic moment that I can get.

I am also convinced that everything is figureoutable! #gratitude #onlinecommunity #weareontheair #wearethechurch

HOPE AT CHRISTMAS

THANK YOU FOR YOUR GENEROUS, HOPE-FILLED SPIRIT!

This month, the support of our Christmas gift giving and Penfield Hope has been awe-inspiring. Over the past few weeks, we have delivered gifts to more than 50 Penfield Hope families and over 100 children; we have made a generous donation of toys, books, puzzles, clothing, jackets and hats, gloves and scarves to St. Frances Xavier Cabrini and School 50; and, in January, Mary's Place Refugee Outreach will distribute more hats, gloves and scarves, jackets and blankets that we have donated to them. Thanks to all who have participated! Special thanks to the Holy Spirit Ladies' Auxiliary, the Knights of Columbus, St. Joseph School, Home Family Faith Formation, Penfield Central School District social work team, our dedicated Penfield Hope volunteers, and all parishioners who contributed in many creative, flexible ways! May all be richly blessed. Our final request: please pray throughout the weeks ahead for those who received our gifts that each family and individual may achieve more financial stability and have peace in their hearts. Thanks to one and all!

Readings for the Weekend of January 3, 2021

First Reading: Isaiah 60:1-6

Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem! Your light has come,
the glory of the Lord shines upon you.
See, darkness covers the earth,
and thick clouds cover the peoples;
but upon you the LORD shines,
and over you appears his glory.
Nations shall walk by your light,
and kings by your shining radiance.
Raise your eyes and look about;
they all gather and come to you:
your sons come from afar,
and your daughters in the arms of their nurses.
Then you shall be radiant at what you see,
your heart shall throb and overflow,
for the riches of the sea shall be emptied out before
you,
the wealth of nations shall be brought to you.
Caravans of camels shall fill you,
dromedaries from Midian and Ephah;
all from Sheba shall come
bearing gold and frankincense,
and proclaiming the praises of the LORD.

Second Reading: Ephesians 3:2-3a, 5-6

Brothers and sisters:

You have heard of the stewardship of God's grace
that was given to me for your benefit, namely, that the mystery was made known to me by revelation.

It was not made known to people in other generations
as it has now been revealed
to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit:
that the Gentiles are coheirs, members of the same body, and copartners in the promise in Christ Jesus
through the gospel.

Gospel: Matthew 2:1-12

When Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea,
in the days of King Herod,
behold, magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem, saying,
"Where is the newborn king of the Jews?"
We saw his star at its rising
and have come to do him homage."
When King Herod heard this,
he was greatly troubled,
and all Jerusalem with him.
Assembling all the chief priests and the scribes of the people,
He inquired of them where the Christ was to be born.
They said to him, "In Bethlehem of Judea,
for thus it has been written through the prophet:

*And you, Bethlehem, land of Judah,
are by no means least among the rulers of Judah;
since from you shall come a ruler,
who is to shepherd my people Israel."*

Then Herod called the magi secretly and ascertained from them the time of the star's appearance.

He sent them to Bethlehem and said,
"Go and search diligently for the child.
When you have found him, bring me word,
that I too may go and do him homage."
After their audience with the king they set out.
And behold, the star that they had seen at its rising preceded them,
until it came and stopped over the place where the child
was.

They were overjoyed at seeing the star,
and on entering the house
they saw the child with Mary his mother.
They prostrated themselves and did him homage.
Then they opened their treasures
and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.
And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they departed for their country by another way.

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

all bow:

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
