

January 3, 2021 Epiphany of the Lord

HOW IS GOD REVEALED TO YOU?

This Sunday we celebrate that the Magi followed a star in the sky so that God could be revealed to them in the infant Jesus. In Matthew's infancy narrative, we hear that the Magi from the East were overjoyed. More than two millennia later, we too, seek God. We have infinite hope that God will be revealed to us and that we will draw closer to the light and the joy that is Christ Jesus. The Gospel stories of Christmas point the way for us.

This week we also celebrated the Solemnity of Mary, the Mother of God. We hear in the Gospel for January 1st that the shepherds, having heard the good news, like the Magi, went "in haste to Bethlehem." There they found the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph. Of all the many things that could be said about Mary in this continuation of the Christmas story, we are told by the evangelist Luke that "Mary kept all these things, reflecting on them in her heart." How was Jesus revealed to Mary as the Son of God? It was through her quiet prayer and reflection, holding all that she experienced in her heart as she embraced motherhood.

On the 150th anniversary of the proclamation of St. Joseph as the Patron of the Catholic Church, Pope Francis has declared this the Year of St. Joseph. How is God revealed to the earthly father of the infant Jesus? This question is answered in the opening sentence of Pope Francis' Apostolic Letter Patris Corde: "With a father's heart: that is how Joseph loved Jesus, whom all four Gospels refer to as 'the son of Joseph.'"

Pope Francis writes that his desire to share personal reflections about St. Joseph increased in the early months of the coronavirus pandemic. Amid the crisis, Pope Francis has focused on how "our lives are woven together and sustained by ordinary people, people often overlooked. People who do not appear in newspaper and magazine headlines, or on the latest television show, yet in these very days are surely shaping the decisive events of our history. Doctors, nurses, storekeepers and supermarket workers, cleaning personnel, caregivers, transport workers, men and women working to provide essential services and public safety, volunteers, priests, men and women religious, and so very many others. They understood that no one is saved alone... How many people daily exercise patience and offer hope, taking care to spread not panic, but shared responsibility. How many fathers, mothers, grandparents and teachers are showing our children, in small everyday ways, how to accept and deal with a crisis by adjusting their routines, looking ahead and encouraging the practice of prayer. How many are praying, making sacrifices and interceding for the good of all. Each of us can discover in Joseph – the man who goes unnoticed, a daily, discreet and hidden presence – an intercessor, a support and a guide in times of trouble. Saint Joseph reminds us that those who appear hidden or in the shadows can play an incomparable role in the history of salvation. A word of recognition and of gratitude is due to them all."

Like Joseph and Mary, may we discover that God is revealed to us when we quietly enter into service of one another. Like all who continue to work through these increasingly challenging days of COVID-19, may we find God in the particular ways we are dependent upon one another to safeguard and protect each person's health and well-being. May we find God by embracing our "shared responsibility" and may all be healthy and well in 2021!

GOSPEL QUESTION OF THE WEEK:

When Jesus was baptized in the Jordan by St. John the Baptist, the heavens opened, the Holy Spirit descended, and God the Father said, “You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased.” As we begin this New Year, we invite you to take some time this week in quiet prayer to imagine God saying those words to you: “You are my beloved son/daughter; with you I am well pleased.”

Readings for the Weekend of January 10, 2021

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive your prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading: Isaiah 55:1-11

Thus says the LORD: All you who are thirsty, come to the water! You who have no money, come, receive grain and eat; come, without paying and without cost, drink wine and milk! Why spend your money for what is not bread, your wages for what fails to satisfy? Heed me, and you shall eat well, you shall delight in rich fare. Come to me heedfully, listen, that you may have life. I will renew with you the everlasting covenant, the benefits assured to David. As I made him a witness to the peoples, a leader and commander of nations, so shall you summon a nation you knew not, and nations that knew you not shall run to you, because of the LORD, your God, the Holy One of Israel, who has glorified you. Seek the LORD while he may be found, call him while he is near. Let the scoundrel forsake his way, and the wicked man his thoughts; let him turn to the LORD for mercy; to our God, who is generous in forgiving. For my thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways my ways, says the LORD. As high as the heavens are above the earth so high are my ways above your ways and my thoughts above your thoughts. For just as from the heavens the rain and snow come down and do not return there till they have watered the earth, making it fertile and fruitful, giving seed to the one who sows and bread to the one who eats, so shall my word be that goes forth from my mouth; my word shall not return to me void, but shall do my will, achieving the end for which I sent it.

Second Reading: 1 John 5:1-9

Beloved: Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ is begotten by God, and everyone who loves the Father loves also the one begotten by him. In this way we know that we love the children of God when we love God and obey his commandments. For the love of God is this, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome, for whoever is begotten by God conquers the world. And the victory that conquers the world is our faith. Who indeed is the victor over the world but the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God? This is the one who came through water and blood, Jesus Christ, not by water alone, but by water and blood. The Spirit is the one who testifies, and the Spirit is truth. So there are three that testify, the Spirit, the water, and the blood, and the three are of one accord. If we accept human testimony, the testimony of God is surely greater. Now the testimony of God is this, that he has testified on behalf of his Son.

Gospel: Mark 1:7-11

This is what John the Baptist proclaimed: "One mightier than I is coming after me. I am not worthy to stoop and loosen the thongs of his sandals. I have baptized you with water; he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit." It happened in those days that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee and was baptized in the Jordan by John. On coming up out of the water he saw the heavens being torn open and the Spirit, like a dove, descending upon him. And a voice came from the heavens, "You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased."

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, all bow:

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

HOPE AT CHRISTMAS

THANK YOU FOR YOUR GENEROUS, HOPE-FILLED SPIRIT!

In December, the support of our Christmas gift giving and Penfield Hope has been awe-inspiring. Over the past few weeks, we have delivered gifts to more than 50 Penfield Hope families and over 100 children; we have made a generous donation of toys, books, puzzles, clothing, jackets and hats, gloves and scarves to St. Frances Xavier Cabrini and School 50; and, in January, Mary's Place Refugee Outreach will distribute more hats, gloves and scarves, jackets and blankets that we have donated to them. Thanks to all who have participated! Special thanks to the Holy Spirit Ladies' Auxiliary, the Knights of Columbus, St. Joseph School, Home Family Faith Formation, Penfield Central School District social work team, our dedicated Penfield Hope volunteers, and all parishioners who contributed in many creative, flexible ways! May all be richly blessed. Our final request: please pray throughout the weeks ahead for those who received our gifts that each family and individual may achieve more financial stability and have peace in their hearts. Thanks to one and all!

FAITH FORMATION

CHRISTMAS MASS LIVESTREAM KITS

Many thanks to Ellen Smaglo for crafting the wonderful Christmas Mass Kits! Families in our parish communities of Holy Spirit and St. Joseph's who participate in Home Family Faith Formation expressed their appreciation. Kits included a craft, fun gift, and tips for celebrating Mass at home via Livestream. Thank you, Ellen!

“Thank you so much! The ornament from the School of the Holy Childhood is fantastic! Take care and thanks for all you do!”

“We really enjoyed the Christmas activity! It was fun to do as a family. Thank you so much for the gift and craft kit. It was very thoughtful of you. Wishing you a wonderful Christmas!”

YOUTH MINISTRY

GOD SPEED, LISA BIANCULLI!

On a cold winter's night, families in Youth Ministry lined up their decorated cars at Cobbles School under the direction of Denise Cuestas and Jeanne Mooney while Fr. Sadhanala cooked up a ruse to get Lisa to the St. Joe's Gathering Space, never suspecting there was about to be a farewell parade of cars coming her way. Youth made signs, brought flowers and other gifts, blasted Christian music, and popped up out of their parents' moon roofs! It was not the farewell extravaganza we would have liked to had for Lisa to thank her for her five years of service to our youth and our parishes but COVID makes us be creative and the youth and their parents really rose to the challenge! Thanks to Fr. Sadhanala, Denise Cuestas and Jeanne Mooney — our new Youth Ministry team for the Church of the Holy Spirit and St. Joseph's. By now Lisa and her husband, Ted, are getting settled together in Florida. We wish them much happiness, knowing their ministry will continue in flourish in new and fruitful ways. God bless them!

Parish Life

Thank You So Much To All Who Supported the St. Damien Ornament Sale

With the generous support of our parishioners we were able to donate over $630 to St. Damien's Children's Hospital in Haiti! Thank you!

ELECTRONIC FUNDS TRANSFER: THE ENVELOPE ALTERNATIVE

What is Electronic Funds Transfer?

Electronic Funds is an arrangement you make to have funds moved electronically from your bank account to Holy Spirit Church or St. Joseph's Church. In other words, it's a non-cash, non-envelope way to make your Sunday contributions to the parish without any paper changing hands.

How does it work?

You fill out the form below to tell us how much you wish to contribute to the parish each month. If you wish, you can also specify an additional contribution to the Church Maintenance Fund and/or in the case of St. Joseph, the cemetery fund all on this same form. Then on the 2nd or 4th Friday of the month (depending on the date you choose) your bank will automatically transfer that amount from your bank account to the parish's bank account. You will see the transaction on your monthly bank statement.

Why should I consider this?

You benefit from the convenience of not having to write checks or trying to find envelopes at the last minute. Instead, you will have made a conscientious decision to plan your regular giving to support the parish. Also, you will help the parish save on the cost of mailing envelopes and bank charges for processing checks. Both you and the church also enjoy greater security, as fewer people are involved in handling cash or checks.

Do I have to change my bank?

No! The electronic funds transfer is done with whatever bank you presently use and our bank.

If I want to stop using this procedure, how do I do that?

This is as simple as a phone call to Patrick Vogt, our Accounting Manager. You can discontinue at any time with a week's notice. If you wish to suspend your payments, this can be done by a phone call as well, 585-586-8089.

How do I sign up?

Below is the form that we ask you to fill out and return to us. You will need to attach a VOIDED CHECK from your present Bank Account so we can process your contribution correctly. That is all! If you have further questions, please contact our Accounting Manager Patrick Vogt at 586-8089. We will treat all matters confidentially.

AUTHORIZATION FOR ELECTRONIC FUNDS TRANSFER

I AUTHORIZE the Church and the financial institution named below to initiate entries to my checking/savings account. This authority will remain in effect until I notify the Church in writing at least 10 days before the regularly scheduled payment date to change or cancel it. I can also stop payment of any entry by notifying my financial institution three (3) days before my account is charged. I have attached a VOIDED CHECK to this form.
