

September 26, 2021 - Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

GOD'S SPIRIT EXCEEDS OUR EXPECTATIONS

The scriptures are filled with paradoxes, reversals and surprises. Just when we think we understand God, something totally unexpected occurs and we are forced to recheck our understanding. We like things more predictable, but predictability can be another name for control. Simply stated, we don't like surprises if they interrupt our routines or challenge our expectations.

In today's Gospel, Jesus gets right to the point with his apostles. They don't want outsiders grabbing the glory that belongs to them as Jesus' hand-picked assistants. We can almost imagine them saying to Jesus: "Tell those outliers not to work miracles in your name-- they aren't part of the franchise!"

But Jesus chides them for their smallness with the reminder that the Spirit is always bigger than our group or our plans. God is free to pour out grace and power on anyone who will use it for the common good. Jesus' words echo in our openness or our resistance to ecumenical and interreligious dialogue. There simply are no insiders and outsiders for God because God is free to work through anyone, and often does.

Today's Gospel gathers together other equally radical teachings of Jesus about scandal. Woe to anyone who misleads a little one, whether a child or any innocent person. We can fill in the blanks of this warning with today's victims of seduction, abuse, trafficking, and exploitation. Seldom do we see such fierceness in Jesus as in his words to those whose sins do lasting harm to the most vulnerable. It would be better, Jesus says, to cut off your hand or foot or pluck out your eye than to use it to abuse another human being.

These metaphors are extreme, but they convey the terrible consequences of certain kinds of sin. Better to have a millstone hung around your neck and be cast into the sea than to hurt a child, a woman, a poor person. How explicit would Jesus make his condemnation of modern-day slavery in sweatshops or in the sexual abuse scandal of our clergy?

To turn away or close our eyes to these evils in our own towns and cities is to ignore Jesus' warning about what our hands and feet and eyes are really for. How can we stand by silently and passively when victims all around us cried out for our help?

It's true that the Gospel is for heroes, but it is even more for us when we perform ordinary acts of awareness and compassion. Someone who gives a glass of water to a thirsty brother or sister will not lose their reward, Jesus says. This is a good place to start, for if we can see someone's thirst, we will also see other needs as well. Small beginnings can be the feedstock that leads to transformation.

On judgment day we will learn what we already know, that every human being is part of one family. No one is more "in" than anyone else. Everyone belongs inside the circle and at the table. If each one of us brings just one other person to that table and to God, everyone will be there!

A small cost to pay for getting to heaven, don't you think?
Thanks be to God!

MASS & CONFESSION SCHEDULE

The CDC has issued the following guidance: "To reduce their risk of becoming infected with the Delta variant and potentially spreading it to others, CDC recommends that fully vaccinated people wear a mask in public indoor settings if they are in an area of substantial or high transmission." Due to the substantial Covid-19 infection rate in Monroe County:

- All Ministers of Communion at Holy Spirit and St. Joseph's are required to wear a mask when serving;
- Everyone is encouraged to wear a mask while indoors at Church, including the vaccinated;
- And per NYS, "Unvaccinated individuals continue to be responsible for wearing masks, in accordance with federal CDC guidance." Therefore, masks and six feet distance are still required for unvaccinated individuals at Mass.

GOSPEL AND QUESTION OF THE WEEK FOR THE 27th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, October 3 HOLY GOSPEL ACCORDING TO MARK Mark 10:2-16

The Pharisees approached Jesus and asked, "Is it lawful for a husband to divorce his wife?" They were testing him. He said to them in reply, "What did Moses command you?" They replied, "Moses permitted a husband to write a bill of divorce and dismiss her."

But Jesus told them, "Because of the hardness of your hearts he wrote you this commandment. But from the beginning of creation, God made them male and female. For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh. So they are no longer two but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, no human being must separate."

In the house the disciples again questioned Jesus about this. He said to them, "Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery against her; and if she divorces her husband and marries another, she commits adultery."

And people were bringing children to him that he might touch them, but the disciples rebuked them. When Jesus saw this he became indignant and said to them, "Let the children come to me; do not prevent them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. Amen, I say to you, whoever does not accept the kingdom of God like a child will not enter it." Then he embraced them and blessed them, placing his hands on them.

GOSPEL QUESTION OF THE WEEK

God is found in relationships, in the kind and selfless love that we express to those closest to us. Like Jesus washing his disciples' feet at the Last Supper, we marry the divine and the human when we lower our own needs below the needs of those we love. As in the many months of the pandemic and even today, so many still suffer loneliness and isolation.

How can I make a connection with someone who is isolated or lonely? What can I do to put the needs of those I love, of those who depend on me, above my own needs this week?

Stewardship: Time, Talent and Treasure

MISSION SUNDAY A GREAT SUCCESS!

The generosity of the people of St. Joseph's Church and the Church of the Holy Spirit is truly amazing.

Your contributions in support of Father Damian Milliken's schools in Tanzania totaled $47,342.61.

Your response truly reflects the commitment of our sister parishes to the spirituality of stewardship and Christian love for others in need.

Many have seen this picture before, but it truly represents the joy that fills the special place that is St. Mary's Secondary School for Girls at Mazinde Juu. And right now, it also represents the joy with which I thank you for remembering girls like these with your support for St. Mary's. You, through your generosity, are providing an opportunity for underprivileged girls like these to make their dreams come true. In these faces, I see hope for a bright future that would be unimaginable without a St. Mary's education. These girls were in Form 2 at the time the picture was taken. They are now in Form 5, with less than 2 years to go before graduation and application for university study. Their chances of going on to university to continue their study are high because, as Father Damian reported in his recent Mission Letter, St. Mary's ranks 29th among all 3956 Secondary Schools nationwide. So, these are the faces of future doctors, lawyers, engineers and teachers. And who knows, perhaps even a future President of Tanzania.

Please continue to pray for Father Damian Milliken, the Sisters of Usambara and the students and staff of St. Mary's, Kongei and St. Benedict's schools.

Barb Long, on behalf of the Tanzania Action Team

Focus: Catholic Social Teaching through the lenses of Pope Francis and Scripture

Registration Now Open on our website:
<https://holyspirit-saintjoseph.org/love-your-neighbor>

The road to discipleship in our Catholic tradition is challenging! One way to stay focused is with the support of fellow believers in a small Christian community. In a similar format to ChristLife, we invite you to explore what it means to “Love and Honor Your Neighbor.” Our focus will be the themes of Catholic social teaching as told through Scripture and the pastoral heart of Pope Francis.

We will meet via Zoom on 13 Monday evenings, October - May, wrapping up with a final retreat on Pentecost weekend, Saturday, June 4. We hope to plan a few other in-person Saturday retreat experiences or service opportunities along the way; these will be planned as Covid restrictions allow. Full schedule on our website. The weekly format:

- large group gathering with intro by Mike Nesbitt
- worship and praise by Nancy Veronesi and Susan Gividen
- brief video teachings by Fr. Jim, Deacon Duncan and Cathy Kamp
- facilitated small group discussions and prayer
- participant guides provided
- tech assistance available thanks to Chuck Canham and Jeanne Mooney

Who is this program for? It's for anyone from our parishes and the community who seeks to more generously follow Christ. It's for anyone who seeks to explore their faith in the company of others. It's for anyone who wishes to more faithfully love God and love neighbor. It's a great follow-up to ChristLife; it's a great introduction for people who might consider ChristLife in the future. However, participation or interest in ChristLife is NOT required -- all are welcome! Free of charge. Online registration required by September 30.

DO YOU NEED SOMEONE TO TALK WITH?

Stephen Ministers extend care, providing one-to-one ministry to people who are experiencing divorce, grief, unemployment, hospitalization, a terminal illness, relocation, loneliness, a spiritual crisis, and other life difficulties. The role of a Stephen Minister is to provide emotional support, to pray with and for their care receiver, and to walk with the person for the duration of the crisis. Stephen Ministers are there to listen and care. A Stephen Minister typically meets with his or her care receiver on a predetermined schedule for about an hour. Stephen Ministers keep everything their care receivers say, even their identity, confidential. If you know of someone who is need of support or if you would like to learn more about this ministry, please contact Fran Glanton --

DO YOU NEED PRAYERS?

A Prayer Ministry Phone Line is available at St. Joseph's. For many years a group of parishioners have been praying daily individually and weekly as a group for special intentions. They would like to include you by name with your need in their daily and weekly prayer. Call our Prayer and Stephen Ministry Confidential Phone Line 585-586-0674 X130. Leave your name as the person wanting prayers (it can be only your first name) and the specific reason for the prayer request. You may wish to leave a name and number if you wish someone to call back to pray with you individually.
