St. André's Parish Welcomes Everyone!!

No matter what your present status is in the Catholic Church; no matter your family or marital status; no matter where you are in the practice of faith; no matter what your self-image may be; you are invited, welcomed and loved at St. André's.

From Fr. Steve

I have been meaning to tell you all that any donations, which are made to the "Poor Box", are used to support the "Good Samaritan Food Pantry", and I want to thank all who have made such donations. I also want to say that I appreciate the wonderful response to the Advent Giving Trees. All the tags were gone by the end of the 11:00am Mass. Deacon Brent and Darlene are working hard to prepare the Christmas boxes that will be distributed to those in need. I want to especially thank all who continue to support this outreach in our Malone community. I encourage you to reach out to those in our community who you might know who are alone or struggling. There are many ways that people can struggle, loneliness can be devastating during the holidays so anything you might do to alleviate someone's situation could be very helpful.

If I have forgotten anything, do not hesitate to remind me. I would really appreciate your assistance in the matter of assisting those who struggle.

Parish Advent Prayer Intention: Come Home to Jesus

Chances are you have family members and/or friends who have left the Catholic Church or are not Catholic. During this Season of Advent please join your fellow parishioners at St. André's Parish in praying that they return to the Church or that they consider learning more about our Catholic faith and obtain the desire to be baptized. May St. Monica and Blessed Bartolo Longo intercede for us.

Please cut out the form below and list the first names, initials or some type of identification (examples: Son, daughter, husband, wife, friend, neighbor, aunt, uncle, etc.) of the people that you would like to pray for along with the entire Parish Family for the intention that they Come Home to Jesus. Please place your completed list in one of the boxes located at the entrances of the Church.

At the end of Advent, the prayer requests will be shredded and used as hay/straw for Baby Jesus' manger in our Church for Christmas Day.

- Please keep our Parish Advent Intention: Come Home to Jesus in your daily prayers.
- Pray the Rosary for our Parish Advent Intention (Individual/Family)
- Daily Prayer (Individual/Family)
  Example: Dear Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I/we love you. May_____ Come Home to Jesus

SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT
 December 5, 2021 *****

FIRST READING
Bar 5:1-9
A reading from the Book of the Prophet Baruch
Jerusalem, take off your robe of mourning and misery; put on the splendor of glory from God forever: wrapped in the cloak of justice from God, bear on your head the mitre that displays the glory of the eternal name. For God will show all the earth your splendor: you will be named by God forever the peace of justice, the glory of God's worship. Up, Jerusalem! stand upon the heights; look to the east and see your children gathered from the east and the west at the word of the Holy One, rejoicing that they are remembered by God. Led away on foot by their enemies they left you: but God will bring them back to you borne aloft in glory as on royal thrones. For God has commanded that every lofty mountain be made low, and that the age-old depths and gorges be filled to level ground, that Israel may advance secure in the glory of God. The forests and every fragrant kind of tree have overshadowed Israel at God's command; for God is leading Israel in joy by the light of his glory, with his mercy and justice for company.
The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM
Ps 126:1-2, 2-3, 4-5, 6

R. The Lord has done great things for us;
we are filled with joy.

When the LORD brought back the captives of Zion, we were like men dreaming. Then our mouth was filled with laughter, and our tongue with rejoicing.
R. The Lord has done great things for us;
we are filled with joy.

Then they said among the nations, "The LORD has done great things for them." The LORD has done great things for us; we are glad indeed.
R. The Lord has done great things for us;
we are filled with joy.

Restore our fortunes, O LORD, like the torrents in the southern desert. Those who sow in tears shall reap rejoicing.
R. The Lord has done great things for us;
we are filled with joy.

Although they go forth weeping, carrying the seed to be sown, They shall come back rejoicing, carrying their sheaves.
R. The Lord has done great things for us;
we are filled with joy.

SECOND READING
Phil 1:4-6, 8-11
A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Philippians Brothers and sisters: I pray always with joy in my every prayer for all of you, because of your partnership for the gospel from the first day until now. I am confident of this, that the one who began a good work in you will continue to complete it until the day of Christ Jesus. God is my witness, how I long for all of you with the affection of Christ Jesus. And this is my prayer: that your love may increase ever more and more in knowledge and every kind of perception, to discern what is of value, so that you may be pure and blameless for the day of Christ, filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ for the glory and praise of God.
The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION
Alleluia
Lk 3:4, 6

R. Alleluia, alleluia.
Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths: all flesh shall see the salvation of God.
R. Alleluia, alleluia.

GOSPEL
Lk 3:1-6
The Lord be with you. And with your spirit.
A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke. Glory to you, O Lord.

In the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, when Pontius Pilate was governor of Judea, and Herod was tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of the region of Ituraea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias was tetrarch of Abilene, during the high priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas, the word of God came to John the son of Zechariah in the desert. John went throughout the whole region of the Jordan, proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins, as it is written in the book of the words of the prophet Isaiah:
A voice of one crying out in the desert:
"Prepare the way of the Lord,
make straight his paths.
Every valley shall be filled
and every mountain and hill shall be made low.
The winding roads shall be made straight,
and the rough ways made smooth,
and all flesh shall see the salvation of God."

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

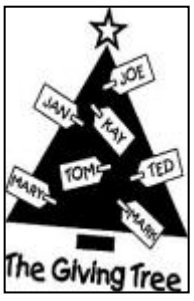
ADVENT GIVING TREES

The people in our community who will benefit from our annual Giving Tree Project this year will be 25 children that St. André's has adopted with the help of Holiday Helpers and Catholic Charities, as well as our own homebound parishioners. Beginning this Sunday, trees with tags will be available at Notre Dame and St. Helen's. We encourage you to take a tag (or two or three, as your means allow) and return your UNWRAPPED GIFT(S) with the TAG(S) attached in a gift bag to Notre Dame church no later than Monday, December 20th



St. André's Parish Pastoral Council

Jennifer Champagne, Mary Haas, Aimee LeRoy (Trustee), Bob Main, Molly McKee, Malcolm Miner, Jamie Pelkey, David Petrelli, and Jeff Scharf (Trustee).

Your Pastoral Council members want to hear from you! Please feel free to approach them with your questions, suggestions, and concerns.

Low gluten hosts are available at each of our churches. If you or a loved one require a low gluten host for medical reasons, please see the priest at least 5 minutes before Mass to make arrangements for Holy Communion.
