Catholic Charities Family & Community Services (CCFCS) includes Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities Services. They deliver residential, vocational, and community services that foster the inclusion and independence of people living with developmental disabilities. Their clients are people living in their certified residential sites (one of them is in Greece) and in their own homes. Most of their budget is funded by New York State. However, there are many individual and family needs that are unmet. Our parish sharing this weekend will be used for this. Other contributions have come from projects of SCB's Social Ministry Committee.

Readings for September 13, 2026 • 24th Sunday in Ordinary Time*

1st Reading (Sirach 27:30-28:7)

Wrath and anger are hateful things, yet the sinner hugs them tight. The vengeful will suffer the LORD's vengeance, for he remembers their sins in detail. Forgive your neighbor's injustice; then when you pray, your own sins will be forgiven. Could anyone nourish anger against another and expect healing from the LORD? Could anyone refuse mercy to another like himself, can he seek pardon for his own sins? If one who is but flesh cherishes wrath, who will forgive his sins? Remember your last days, set enmity aside; remember death and decay, and cease from sin! Think of the commandments, hate not your neighbor; remember the Most High's covenant, and overlook faults.

2nd Reading (Romans 14:7-9)

Brothers and sisters: None of us lives for oneself, and no one dies for oneself. For if we live, we live for the Lord, and if we die, we die for the Lord; so then, whether we live or die, we are the Lord's. For this is why Christ died and came to life, that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living.

Gospel (Matthew 18:21-35)

Peter approached Jesus and asked him, "Lord, if my brother sins against me, how often must I forgive? As many as seven times?" Jesus answered, "I say to you, not seven times but seventy-seven times. That is why the kingdom of heaven may be likened to a king who decided to settle accounts with his servants. When he began the accounting, a debtor was brought before him who owed him a huge amount. Since he had no way of paying it back, his master ordered him to be sold, along with his wife, his children, and all his property, in payment of the debt. At that, the servant fell down, did him homage, and said, 'Be patient with me, and I will pay you back in full.' Moved with compassion the master of that servant let him go and forgave him the loan. When that servant had left, he found one of his fellow servants who owed him a much smaller amount. He seized him and started to choke him, demanding, 'Pay back what you owe.' Falling to his knees, his fellow servant begged him, 'Be patient with me, and I will pay you back.' But he refused. Instead, he had the fellow servant put in prison until he paid back the debt. Now when his fellow servants saw what had happened, they were deeply disturbed, and went to their master and reported the whole affair. His master summoned him and said to him, 'You wicked servant! I forgave you your entire debt because you begged me to. Should you not have had pity on your fellow servant, as I had pity on you?' Then in anger his master handed him over to the torturers until he should pay back the whole debt. So will my heavenly Father do to you, unless each of you forgives your brother from your heart."

A Message from Bishop Bonnici....

Thanks to the generosity of the Diocese of Peoria and Bishop Louis Tylka, the Diocese of Rochester will be receiving a "substantial" first-class relic of Bishop Sheen. The week after Bishop Sheen's Beatification in St. Louis on September 24, Bishop Tylka will be visiting the Diocese of Rochester to bring us the relic. We will receive this relic in a special Mass on Tuesday, September 29 at 7 pm at Sacred Heart Cathedral. I cordially invite you all to join me for this special event when Bishop Sheen returns to his Cathedral, our Cathedral!

Also, I would like to use this special occasion to make an appeal: pray for vocations to the Priesthood. I ask that all of the faithful of the Diocese of Rochester to join me in asking Blessed Fulton Sheen every day to send us good and holy priests. So, I humbly beg you, pray for vocations. I ask every person in the Diocese of Rochester to pray one Hail Mary everyday for vocations, and to add Bishop Sheen's prayer: "Lord, infuse young hearts with vocations." What a great thing if we all unit in this common prayer, and what a great thing to ask Blessed Fulton Sheen, the Sixth Bishop of Rochester, to pray for.

The Road Less Traveled

—Deacon Don Eggleston

E-mail: Donald.Eggleston@dor.org

"Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever." (Psalm 23)

This is the seventh and final installment in a series of reflections on the 23rd Psalm.

"As we come to the end of Psalm 23, David leaves us with one final promise—a promise filled with hope. "Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever."

Notice that David does not say, "Perhaps goodness and mercy will follow me." He says, "Surely." This is not wishful thinking. It is the quiet confidence of a man who has spent a lifetime walking with God.

David knew joy and sorrow. He experienced victory and failure, faithfulness and forgiveness. Through every season of his life, he discovered that God never stopped pursuing him with goodness and mercy.

What a beautiful image that is. We often think of ourselves as searching for God. Yet David reminds us that God is also searching for us. His goodness walks beside us. His mercy follows close behind, never giving up on us, always ready to forgive, to strengthen, and to begin again.

Looking back over our own lives, we may see moments when we wondered where God was. Yet with the wisdom that comes from time, we often discover that He was there all along—guiding us, protecting us, comforting us, and carrying us when we lacked the strength to walk on our own.

Then David lifts his eyes beyond this life: "I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever."

For we Christians, these words are filled with even greater meaning. Jesus has opened the way to the Father's house. Through His death and resurrection, He has prepared an eternal home for those who trust in Him. Our journey does not end in the valley. It ends in the presence of God.

This promise gives meaning to every step of the journey. The green pastures, the still waters, the valleys, and the overflowing cup are all part of a pilgrimage that leads us home.

As we conclude our reflections on Psalm 23, perhaps we should ask ourselves one final question:

Do I truly believe that the Good Shepherd is leading me home?

If the answer is yes, then we need not fear the road ahead. Whatever joys or sorrows tomorrow may bring, we know who walks beside us. His goodness will accompany us. His mercy will never fail us. And one day, by His grace, we shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

What greater hope could we possibly have?

Thanks be to God.

Our Sanctuary Choir will begin its upcoming season in early September. I would like to extend an invitation to come and sing with us. Our choir rehearses Wednesday evenings from 7:30-9PM. We typically sing for 3 services each month. The choir also sings at special services (including Christmas, Holy Thursday, and Easter). We sing a wide variety of music designed to enhance the message of each Mass. Basic music reading ability is helpful, but all are welcome! No audition is necessary.

Our first rehearsal is Wednesday, September 9, at 7:30PM in the Church Sanctuary. Our first mass will be on Sunday, September 13 at 10:30AM.

Please consider joining our choir family! If you would like more information, please contact me, Eric Trumpowsky at: etrumpowsky@aol.com. Thank you!

Charley's Angels

Our wonderful youth choir is for singers in grades 1—12. They are the music ministers for the children's liturgies held throughout the year. We rehearse on Sunday mornings from 9:30-10:10 am (after the 8:30 Mass, before the 10:30 Mass) in the Music Room in Church. Rehearsals will resume in September/October. We have a great time!

Schola Cantorum (School of Cantors)

The Cantors meet on Wednesday evenings at 6:30 pm (before choir rehearsal). They serve as cantors for weekend Masses. You must contact Marcia to join!

Resurrection Choir

They serve as the music ministers for all funerals that take place at St. Charles Borromeo. Notification of a funeral is sent out and come sing if you are available. We meet 30 minutes before the funeral to rehearse.

Kids Corner

Sharing the Gospel

Jesus says to forgive each other seventy times seven or 490 times. That's forgiving once each day for more than a year. Put 490 jelly beans in a gallon "Forgiveness Jug." Each time you forgive someone, eat a jelly bean. When you realize that God has forgiven you, it is easier to forgive others from your heart. God fills you with his love, which is even better than jelly beans. Then you can forgive without holding a grudge.

Now color
the picture!

Prayer

Lord, help me forgive other people completely and quickly.

Mission for the Week

I will forgive those who hurt me because God has forgiven me.
