From the Pastor's Desk

Dear friends in Christ,

This weekend we hear from the Gospel of John the encounter that Jesus has with the Samaritan woman who finds herself being convicted of her sins. Jesus said to her, "Go call your husband and come back." The woman answered and said to him, "I do not have a husband." Jesus answered her, "You are right in saying, 'I do not have a husband.' For you have had five husbands, and the one you have now is not your husband.

I am sure that most of us would be shocked to meet someone who knows our sins and then proceeds to point them out. The Samaritan woman however, rather than retreating in embarrassment or proclaiming denials and excuses simply replies "Sir, I can see that you are a prophet." When we encounter Jesus in the confessional, we too should strive to overcome our shame and surrender ourselves to the mercy of God.

What's more is the woman who has responded to Jesus with honesty and trust found forgiveness and even courage to tell others about her encounter with Jesus.

Many of the Samaritans of that town began to believe in him because of the word of the woman who testified, "He told me everything I have done." When the Samaritans came to him, they invited him to stay with them; and he stayed there two days. Many more began to believe in him because of his word, and they said to the woman, "We no longer believe because of your word; for we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this is truly the savior of the world."

If we surrender to Jesus and implore Him to help us truly know our sins and find in Him the courage to seek His forgiveness, then He truly comes to dwell in us, and we learn the authentic freedom that Jesus alone can Give. Grace be with you all,

A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE

Today's gospel says Jesus chased the merchants out of the temple, it does not say He was angry. Jesus teaches us to act from conviction and not from anger. He did not condemn the merchants, only their business practice. Attack the behavior and not the person

CPR/AED TRAINING

CNY CPR will be providing basic training for CPR and AED at Our Lady of Hope soon. We would like to have at least 2 people at each Mass who have been trained in CPR and AED in the event of a medical emergency. If you are interested in attending or for more information, please contact Donna Rawson at drawson@syrдио.org or (315) 492-1164 to register. There is no cost to you for the training.
