From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners and Visitors,

I hope you are doing well. Today, a week after the Assumption of Mary, we celebrate her Queenship, the fifth glorious mystery of the rosary.

I was very uplifted to celebrate my first Masses as your new Pastor last weekend. I look forward to meeting each of you more personally as time goes on. At my previous parishes, I was the only priest, and the parishes shared one deacon. However, one of the benefits of being assigned to St. Michael-St. Peters and Our Lady of Hope is there are three deacons and two retired priests who are willing to assist on a regular basis in the celebration of weekend and weekday Masses. This is a benefit to me as I get my feet wet and get used to a new schedule, two new parishes, and a new home. But, it is also a benefit for you because you get to hear a variety of theological and spiritual perspectives from the priests and deacons who will be ministering among us.

In addition to Deacon Michael McGrath and Deacon John Trendowski, Deacon Matt Lumia, a classmate of Deacon John's, will also be offering homilies on a rotating basis, as well as Fr. Tom McGrath, former Pastor of St. Mary of the Lake in Skaneateles, and Fr. Frank Nash, S.J., a Jesuit who is in residence at LeMoyne College. For my part, I will be preaching every third Sunday, all five Masses, since I want to be part of the rotation more often so that you can get to know me better, and I will be the presider and preacher at the Tuesday morning Mass at OLOH, as well as at the Monday and Wednesday Masses at St. Michael/St. Peter. It is my hope that your spirituality will be enriched by the gifts and perspectives of these talented and dedicated priests and deacons, and I thank them tremendously for their help to me, and their service to our parishes.

Have a great week, and God bless,

Fr. Michael
