" Gardening is Love Made Visible"

The grounds and landscaping at St. Mary's are a testament to this notion. In order for us to continue the beauty of our grounds, we are asking for your assistance. We will have a clean up and mulching day April 24th starting at 9am. Just bring your gardening gloves, a spade, an edger and a shovel. However, all of these are not a requirement. No sign up necessary. Just show up and let the gardening begin. As the saying goes, many hands make light work!

Virtual Date Night

The Syracuse Diocese Family/Respect Life Office is hosting a free Virtual Date Night with the Padgett's on April 17 from 8-9pm. Join them for some laughs with other couples and the chance to prioritize and reconnect with your spouse! Pre-register at: syrdiodatenight.eventbrite.com.

NATIONAL CHILD ABUSE PREVENTION MONTH

Every April, the Diocese of Syracuse, parishes, and Catholic schools, recognize the National Child Abuse Prevention Month. The Diocese embraces this opportunity to deepen our awareness of the need to be vigilant about providing a safe environment in our parishes, schools, agencies, and our communities. For information on how the Diocese of Syracuse implements safeguards to protect our children, young people, and vulnerable adults from abuse, contact the Office of Safe Environment at 315.470.1421 or visit www.syrdio.org.

April 18, 2021

3rd Sunday of Easter

We often act out of ignorance. Armed with the best of intentions, we think we are seeing clearly and correctly, but we are not. We don't always understand the full meaning of things and only perceive part of the truth. Hence, our judgments and actions can be impaired by myopic, incomplete or erroneous perceptions. The meaning of life, understanding of human experience, and negotiating life's challenges can all become skewed without proper understanding and vision. The resurrection of Christ is the corrective to our incomplete and limited view of life. Looking at things with the eyes of faith brings a depth of clarity and understanding to how we see God, ourselves, others, and the world.

Even the disciples struggled with their limited understanding and ignorant perceptions. It was only when Jesus opened their minds to understand the Scriptures that their eyes were opened. It was their "aha" moment when everything clicked. We all want the substance of our lives to come together, make sense, and have meaning. This is easier to achieve when things are going positively, and life is good. It is when suffering, disappointment, death, hardship, and injustice enter the picture that things can become unsettled and disoriented. Our faith in the goodness and love of God is tested. We tend to shift our focus on these difficult and challenging moments and do not see them within the greater picture of how God intends life to unfold. We can gain, from the passion and resurrection of Christ, the clear vision we need in order to move away from ignorance to enlightenment.

We need our "aha" moment when everything comes together and clicks. It can come in a fleeting instant when we feel totally connected with God, where we find ourselves, others and all of creation. It is a moment when all is right and good, regardless of how difficult our journey. Our "aha" moment assures us that God is here, right with us, in us and around us bringing us a gift and blessing we can receive nowhere else: peace. In those brief sacramental encounters when we are lifted up out of ourselves and centered, we can hear God say, "peace be with you," and we feel secure. It's all okay. The resurrected Christ has the power to bring this gift to us. Some people, as they are facing their deaths, remark about this peace. When looking into the window of eternity, they experience a depth of joy and are amazed at God's goodness and closeness. We are called to be witnesses to this Good News. ©LPi

Most Rev. Douglas J. Lucia is proud to announce that an independent audit determined the diocese was, again, in full compliance with all audited articles within the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops' Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People for the audit period July 2017 - June 2020. This achievement demonstrates the ongoing commitment and dedication of our clergy, religious, diocesan/parish/school employees, and volunteers in protecting our children, young people, and vulnerable adults. A sincere thank you to all who work in partnership with the Diocese in its commitment to preventing sexual abuse among our most vulnerable.

St. Mary's Academy News

ACADEMIC INTERVENTION SERVICES

Did you know that St. Mary's Academy offers Academic Intervention Services (AIS) to help students that might be in jeopardy of meeting the NYS Learning Standards? Students are able to come to the AIS classroom with a certified teacher, Mrs. Michelle Carr, for extra support in reading and math. During AIS, students work in guided reading and math groups. They are able to use math manipulatives during lessons. They might also receive additional instruction using supplemental programs like Rad to Reading, Reading A-Z, i-Ready Reading and Math, and Tara West math. AIS services can also be delivered in the grade level classrooms at St. Mary's Academy. This might involve working 1:1 with a student, in small groups and co-teaching a lesson with the classroom teacher. This year, we are also incorporating more technology into AIS. The students are very comfortable using Chromebooks and Google Classroom. We are looking forward to a fabulous spring and end of the school year.

YOUTH GROUP

EARTH DAY FUNDRAISER

The youth group will be offering you an opportunity to make a donation for a flower to be planted in memory of someone who has died. The flowers will be planted on the grounds of St. Mary's and St. Augustine's in May. Youth will be available after the Masses the weekend of April 24 and 25 to collect information and donations. You can also mail in a donation with the name(s) of who you would like a flower (or flowers) planted in memory of. This can be mailed to the Parish Office any time during the month of April. Contact Kathrynne Sparaco at ksparaco@syrdio.org with any questions.

Third Sunday of Easter -- April 18, 2021 "Now by this we may be sure that we know Him, if we obey His commandments." Jesus makes Himself known to you through the vocation He chose for you. Spiritual Communion

Make an act of faith. The key here is to express to the Lord: our faith in his merciful love and his real presence in the Eucharist. ...

Make an act of love. O Lord God, I love you above all things...

Express our desire to receive him.

Invite Jesus to come into our hearts spiritually.

PRAYER FOR SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus,

I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally,

come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.
For our sake he was crucified
under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord,
the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
