Dear Families and "Back-to-School" Students,

With each new school year comes the excitement and anticipation of a new beginning, a new journey, a new chapter. It's hard to believe that it's time to start a new school year! For some, summer might have been too short, especially the school-aged children who are already mournful about the end of summer, heading back to the hallways for a new school year. What about the parents? Celebratory mood or sad to see the vacation end? As we begin the new school year, it is also a time to pause for a moment and ask for God's blessings upon our students, teachers, and families. As your priests we are grateful to all our students especially for gracing our Sunday's worship with not only their presence but also their participation in the different ministries. You always make us proud when you join in the Celebration of the Eucharist. To all who are beginning school for the first time; to all who are promoted to the next grade or next level in college; to all our seniors in high school and colleges, and all those who are joining college this fall (freshmen), we wish you God blessing as you begin the school year and we promise to keep you in our prayers and thoughts in this journey. The new college students leave with feelings of wonder, anticipation and maybe a little fear. The returning students leave with mixed feelings that run from dread to excitement about the coming year. May God go with them and the Holy Spirit guide and bless all who are beginning a new year of studies.

A blessing to you all:

Almighty God, Look upon these students. Let them enjoy their learning and take delight in new discoveries. Help them to persevere in their studies and give them the desire to learn all things well.

Look upon these teachers. Let them strive to share their knowledge with gentle patience and endeavor always to bring the truth to eager minds.

Grant that students and teachers alike may follow Jesus Christ, the way, the truth, and the life, for ever and ever

Certainly, we cannot forget that, for the parents who are sending their children to college, there is a sadness in their hearts for their son or daughter who was there each day at home and will now be moving on to a new chapter in life. Every change brings mixed feelings to our lives, and yet we know that there can be no growth and maturity without changes. As our children begin the new school year, one way the churches of our cluster assists and support parents and their school/college bound children is to pray for them and offer a special blessing to all our college bound young adults. For the parents, we want them to know of our prayers and support as well. According to Psalm 127:4, "Children are like arrows in the hands of a warrior." That means children are like arrows in that they should be pointed in the right direction. They should be polished and be told how precious they are. Children are not inconveniences or burdens. They are gifts from God. Young people, especially those going off to college, remember, you are the best. You are awesome. Not because I said it, but because that's how God has made you. As cluster churches we have nurtured and strengthened your faith that God has entrusted to you. Be strong in faith! Avoid temptations! Make good decisions! Pray faithfully! Stay close to the Church and to the sacraments! Find a Church on your college campus or near your next new destination in your life!

Advice to you from Retired Pope Benedict XVI:

“Do not be afraid of going in a direction that is pointed out by true love.

Do not be afraid of a modest and sound lifestyle

Do not be afraid of sincere and pure relationships

Do not be afraid of honest commitment in studies and work

Do not be afraid to show your concern for others

Do not be afraid of seeming different and being criticized for living your faith

Even though you may not know it, your peers and even adults, who don't seem to be aware of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, are crying out to meet someone who dares to live according to the fullness of humanity revealed by Jesus Christ.”

Always know that the Church of Holy Family is your home and we will always love you as you, and you are part of our family. You will always be welcomed here. You can always keep in touch with what is happening in our community via either our website or face book or both. Check on your Church bulletin! Godspeed as you enter into college for the first time or returning for another year of study toward your dream and goals in life. Our thoughts and prayers are with you! We look forward to the holidays and times in between when you can join us for Mass here at your Home Church! As you leave Holy Family parish to go back to school, always remember that whatever the opportunities your life presents and whatever the challenges you face, you will always have a home here at our parish to which you can return to refresh your spirit and find renewed inspiration. Remember also, that we will always keep you in our prayers, and that the blessed Mother will always watch over you and protect you. Again, always know that Holy Family Church is your home and we will always love you as you.

God bless.
