MULL-ING THINGS OVER

As we continue to move through these January days, we find ourselves threatened once again by COVID-19. All the major holidays in 2020 were affected by the coronavirus. The challenges of masking, safe-distancing, limited numbers at a gathering have made us re-think why we celebrate and how we celebrate. Before each holiday, we are warned. After the holiday, we find large numbers of people affected by the virus and, no surprise, we have another rise in numbers of “positives” to the Covid-19 testing. The theory is proved over and over again – when large numbers gather a seed-bed for the illness is born: a week after Thanksgiving, a week after Christmas, and a week after New Year’s, there is a rise in the numbers and people wonder why they are sick. As we plan for the Season of Lent, there are new warnings. We must pay attention!

We are not to distribute ashes in the usual way. Minister and candidate cannot be in such close quarters even wearing masks. We have been warned about using our hands without sanitizing them after touching each individual forehead. Should we omit the distribution of ashes completely? That way there is no possibility of passing the illness using our hands. Another solution is to simply sprinkle ashes on the crown of each person’s head. Everyone would individually step forward, bow their head and the minister would sprinkle the ashes on their head. No words would be spoken and there would be no outward sign that ashes were given. This is the directive given to us by Bishop Matano.

During Lent, we are used to having retreats or presentations, or speeches or verbal offerings done each week. This enables folks to continue in growing in their faith, giving them a forum for questions, and helps them learn more about their faith. Because of social distancing, wearing masks, and fear of contamination, we are sponsoring no group gatherings this year and we are not enabling groups of large numbers to gather in one place. Therefore, no Bible Study, no classes, no adult education. This will probably make the coming Lenten Season much more individually oriented and done virtually in each person’s home.

For a year now, we have been told not to have processions. We have had no Entrance Processions since March of 2020. We have had no procession of gifts. We have had no recessionals. There will, then, be no Palm Sunday Procession, no Procession of Eucharistic Adoration on Holy Thursday and no processions on Easter Sunday. If you remember last year; our Churches were closed during Holy Week and our only experience of the beautiful Holy Week rituals was on livestream. We will not be Washing the Feet on Holy Thursday because of the proximity of the washer and the washee. We are working on a creative way to proclaim the Passion on Passion Sunday without the communal reading of the Lord’s Passion and Death. We still do not have missalettes and we are still not communally singing out in Church.

Lent and Holy Week will be different this year – they were different last year as well. We are being challenged to discover the meaning of the rituals – the true message meant to be conveyed with each liturgy by doing it a different safe and holy way. It will look different this year but hopefully will invite you into the mystery of that sacred time and allow us a special encounter with God as He sacrifices His Son out of love for us.

We ask you to be open to the Lent-Easter-Pentecost experience this year. We will do our best to celebrate these seasonal moments in a real and holy way. We hope to use ritual, music and people in a limited way so that it is safe but also moving and mysterious. This pandemic will be over a year old when Pentecost arrives. Many will have received vaccines, but precautions will remain in place and we are obligated to follow these precautions to protect ourselves and others. The whole season of Lent focuses on grade-filled sacrifice. Ultimately the sacrifice God the Father made for us. There will be special sacrifices we will be asked to make this year; you may not like them but walk with them and you may find a new experience of God and discover the real meaning of Scripture and ritual.

I need to offer a word of thanks to all parishioners. In these many months in which the obligation to attend Sunday Mass has been suspended, you have not failed in your financial obligation to the parish. Thank you so very much. As you well know, the bills keep coming in. Salaries need to be paid, utilities need to be paid, our buildings are in use – your generous contributions keep us on even keel, and we are great. Enjoy the coming week.

A LETTER FROM ROBERT BRADLER

My dear friends,

The year 2020 was a very challenging and difficult year for all of us! Despite the pandemic and the civil unrest, I wish to thank you for your efforts and support to the Diocesan Missions and to the collection of World Mission Sunday.

Like the shepherds who left their flocks to visit the newborn Child, you have separated yourself from everyday cares and taken a special moment to love God as He is hidden in the sick and the poor. Like the Three Kings who offered rare gifts, you are sharing your prayers and substance – the gifts of your hand and your heart. It is true that faith, like love, is deepest and most real when it is given to others. It takes great faith indeed to share your love with others you do not know, but in the beautiful spirit of Christmas, you know that the stranger you give is Christ.

Jesus the Savior has promised His blessing to those who given even a cup of cold water in His name. Along with staff members, Belinda Pellegrino, and all our missionaries, we pray that you may enjoy His special blessings of Love, Joy, and Peace throughout the New Year of 2021.

Gratefully in Christ,
Rev. Robert C. Bradler, Diocesan Director,
Society of the Propagation of the Faith

Mission Statement

We profess our belief that Christ sent His Spirit to bestow gifts on His followers according to their part in carrying out His mission. We are committed to be visible signs to each other, and to our community, of Christ’s Presence among us: proclaiming and evangelizing the Gospel, witnessing to God’s love according to the Roman Catholic Church’s teaching; ministering to the needs of all; and, fostering the spiritual life and growth among parishioners.

Stewardship Reflection

“Jesus turned and saw them following him and said to them, ‘What are you looking for?’” (John 1:38) What are you looking for? Are you wasting your time looking for the material comforts of the world? Or, is your heart longing for something deeper that can only be found by spending time with God? Take time, each day, in silence and ask the Lord what it is that He wants you to do.

CATHOLIC MINISTRIES APPEAL

The Catholic Ministries Appeal goal this year is $6.725 million, funding more than one-half of the diocesan budget. There are seven categories of CMA allocation:

1. Providing diocesan-wide services to our parishes and institutions
2. Serving people in need through Catholic Charities
3. Educating our young in the Catholic Faith
4. Supporting seminarians, deacons, pastoral leaders and vocations
5. Funding the ministries of our Pope and Bishop
6. Funding operations and support services
7. Supporting the CMA Campaign

For more details about the 2020-2021 CMA Allocations, please go to www.dor.org/cma.

All monies raised in the CMA are only used for the programs, services, and ministries for which they are designated. No gifts to the CMA are used to satisfy legal fees or settlement costs associated with abuse. Please consider a gift to this year’s Catholic Ministries Appeal! Thank you!

THANK YOU!

In addition to those the Liturgy Committee thanked in last week’s bulletin, we also want to thank Georgia Sheridan and Sharon Olschewske, along with Chuck Bruzee and Peter Liberatore, for their hard work in making St. Francis DeSales Church beautiful for Advent and Christmas. Many hours of planning and decorating took place and then the time to take down and clean up. Your dedication is much appreciated by all who celebrated with us in 2020. May God Bless you.

PRAYER FOR PEACE AND JUSTICE ON OUR EARTH

"All-powerful God,

Present in each human life and the whole universe – in the smallest, the poorest, and seemingly most insignificant of our creatures.

Manifest your tender justice in each human life and all that exists.

Protect the weak members of society from oppression by the powerful. They who are constantly called criminals, outcasts, addicts, derelicts. They who are most in need of protection by our leaders who are charged with the responsibility to administer justice

Pour out upon us the power of your love, that we may protect and uphold the sanctity of each human life.

Fill us with peace, that we may all live as brothers and sisters, harming no one. Killing no one.

You are God forever and ever. Amen.

Senior Housing

SCOUTING FOR FOOD

I want to take this opportunity to thank Richard Nardone, the troop master of Troop #4, Geneva. His troop has helped with our Thanksgiving Baskets for the past several years. The young men in his troop have supplied us with extra food for our baskets.

They collect food through their project "Scouting for Food". We share the collection with Salvation Army and others in Geneva. The food which is not used in our baskets is donated to the Center of Concern pantry. It is a win-win situation, all in need are fed. Some of these scouts are working on their Eagle badge, so that tells you the type of young men they are. Thank you Kaia Monahan, Aaron Hennessy, Jonathan Monahan, from Troop 4 and John Milligan and thank you Mr. Nardone!

Domingo de la Palabra de Dios

En septiembre de 2019 el Papa Francisco instituyó este domingo especial en el aniversario (1,600) de la muerte de San Gerónimo quien había traducido las Escrituras a latín, el lenguaje del pueblo. Este domingo especial pone énfasis en la importancia de las Sagradas Escrituras para todas nuestras vidas como creyentes empezando con el uso de las Escrituras en las liturgias de los sacramentos. Observamos este domingo cada año en el tercer domingo del Tiempo Ordinario. Realmente un día especial como esto es para despertarnos a la necesidad de crecer en el conocimiento y el amor de las Escrituras y del Señor resucitado, quien sigue hablándonos por medio de su Palabra.

Cuando inauguró este domingo especial Francisco había dado algunas sugerencias para destacar mas la importancia de las Escrituras; por ejemplo, llevar en procesión el Evangelio o ponerlo encima del altar. También los que predicán deben ayudar al pueblo entender las Escrituras, y aun sugiriendo dejar espacio para el silencio para poder meditar para que la gente pueda recibir la Palabra hacia adentro.

Los que proclaman la Palabra deben prepararla interiormente para entender el significado de la lectura y exteriormente practicarla. Es posible dar una corta monición o introducción a la lectura ante que sea proclamada. El ambón de donde es proclamado la Palabra debe ser usado solo para la proclamación de la Palabra de Dios, la homilía y posiblemente las intercesiones. Hay que mantener respeto para el ambón como tenemos respeto para el altar.

A veces hay una oportunidad en la comunidad de estudiar y reflexionar sobre los textos de las lecturas del domingo que está por venir. También siempre usamos un salmo como una respuesta a la primera lectura. Sería bueno conseguir un mejor conocimiento y entendimiento de los salmos, y posiblemente orar los salmos por orar la Liturgia de las Horas que pone énfasis en la oración de los salmos. Hay una liturgia para orar en comunidad los salmos—un libro de las Sagradas Escrituras.

Si nunca se ha sentado para leer las Escrituras, sería bueno este año conocer a Jesucristo personalmente por medio del uso de la Biblia. Este año usamos el evangelio de Marcos ante todo en las celebraciones litúrgicas de domingo. Es el evangelio que fue escrito primero y es el mas corto de los evangelios. Empezamos este Tiempo Ordinario la semana pasada usando el evangelio de Juan con Juan el Bautista indicando a sus discípulos que deben seguir a Jesús, y una vez que ellos van caminando detrás de él, Jesús los invita a seguirlo. Hoy, usando el evangelio de Marcos, vemos a Jesús predicando y después caminando a la orilla del lago Galilea mientras que él invita a ciertas personas a seguirlo.

Así es en nuestra vida cristiana: Jesús nos invita personalmente y podemos aceptar o negar la invitación. Al aceptar la invitación, debemos darnos cuenta de que es una invitación a la conversión. Después de relacionarnos con Jesús y de conocerlo, no podemos mantenernos igual como antes. Ahora Jesús extiende la invitación a usted por leer un poco del evangelio de Marcos cada día y reflexionarlo y aplicarlo a su vida diaria. ¡Feliz seguimiento de Jesucristo! Si no tiene una Biblia, yo tengo algunas por $15.
