MULL-ING THINGS OVER

Last Thursday, May 13th, we celebrated the Feast of the Ascension of Jesus' body and soul into heaven. If you remember the readings, they told of the joy and excitement of heaven, Jesus, the Son of God was coming home! We heard the ancient vision of Revelation about Jesus walking between the realms of angels, the music more beautiful than anything on earth. We heard of the brightness of the light, the brilliance of God and the open chair just to the right of God. It was waiting to receive Jesus and as the forgiving father waited for and joyfully welcomed his son, so God put a rich cloak over Jesus, a ring on his finger, sandals on his feet and gave him the hug of a father as he was led to His place in heaven.

I can't help but think of St. Joseph. Surely, he was looking forward to seeing his Foster Son. Quietly, he probably blended into the heavenly citizens waiting and watching. Most likely, Jesus saw him before Joseph saw Jesus. But when their eyes met, they reached out to greet one another, Joseph quietly whispered in Jesus' ear, "Your Mother, Son, how is your Mother?" Tears probably welled up in both their eyes, they both missed her and longed for the moment when she would arrive in heaven, and the Holy Family would be one for eternity! It was a time of joy, reunion, and family! God's family celebrating as it never did before!

What about the apostles? Where were they? If you remember, Jesus sent them to the upper room. He told them to wait there until the Spirit of God came upon them. Wait there! One of the most challenging words in our human vocabulary to hear: "Wait!" No one wants to wait. We look for the shortest line in the grocery store. We ask how long our appointments will take? We wonder what is taking so long as we stand in the confessional line. Children find the wait for Christmas morning timeless. We spend a lot of our life waiting and never get used to it. But we wait because we have to wait. It is part of our human condition.

So, the disciples waited. What did they do while they waited? We really don't know. I would guess they told stories to one another. They remembered their experiences with Jesus and told how much they understood now that he was risen from the dead. They remembered His parables, the beatitudes, the stories of His early life with Mary and Joseph. How hurt he felt on Holy Thursday night, what pain he felt on Good Friday afternoon, what it was like to be raised from the dead. They smiled as they recalled Jesus describing their faces the first time, he saw them after His Resurrection. How transforming that meal in the upper room, that breakfast on the seashore and that final walk as he was lifted up to the sky. Yes, the stories that were told would become the timeless stories of the Bible.

I suppose that they also prayed. When asked to teach them to pray, Jesus responded with the words of The Lord's Prayer. Do you think that they may have repeated and repeated and repeated that prayer? They were practicing Jews. So, they would have also prayed the daily prayers of their faith and the psalms of David, and the hymns of their synagogues. In their prayer, they would also pray for forgiveness. Forgiveness for not completely trusting Jesus; for not believing that God had a plan for their salvation; for doubting that Jesus was the Messiah, for running away when Jesus needed them most; and, for not embracing Jesus instantly when they saw him that "first Day of the week." They knew they were forgiven. They knew they were at peace with Jesus and at peace with God. Their sorrow had turned to joy, as they recalled Jesus' Easter words, "Peace be with you." He continued, "If you forgive people's sins, they will be forgiven."

As one day turned into another and as the week went into ten days, the apostles began to ask how long will they have to wait? How long would they be in this upper room? Ultimately, they asked, "What are we waiting for? What does Jesus have in store for us?" These were questions no one could answer, and these were questions that burned in their hearts. They came to realize that as long as they remained in this world, there would always be a bit of waiting. There would always be a bit of unknown. There would always be the need for faith as human beings are not capable of conceiving all that is in the mind of God. Even though impatient, they learned that they must be patient and wait for the Will of God to evolve within them and for them.

Next week, we celebrate Pentecost Sunday – when the wait is finally over. The windows will be thrown open, the Spirit will come in wonderful mysterious ways, the mission of the Church will be born and the disciples will leave that upper room, into the sunshine of the world and the questioning people who will surround them. Our lives in this world are very much like the lives of those waiting disciples. We must have faith, but it sometimes wavers. We have to pray, but we sometimes tire of praying. We have confidence in God but do wonder why. Remember, as the apostles were rewarded, so too will we be rewarded. Like them, for now, we wait, we pray, we seek forgiveness and we dream. Isn't God good?

PARISH OFFICES TO OPEN

Beginning Monday, May 17, 2021, our parish offices will resume their normal hours of operation: 8:30 a.m. through 2:00 p.m. (Monday – Friday). Concern over the spread of COVID-19 forced us to close in April of 2020. We are happy to welcome you back to enable us to serve you. We remind you that face masks must be worn while in the Office complex and six feet distancing is required during your time in the building.

PENTECOST VIGIL

Next Saturday, May 22nd, at the 4:30 p.m. Mass, we will celebrate the Vigil of Pentecost. Very similar to the Easter Vigil, this service includes several Biblical Readings, additional prayers and psalms, meant to join you with the disciples as they waited in the upper room for the coming of the Holy Spirit. This Mass will be longer than our normal Saturday Evening Mass. Please feel welcome to join us and wear red!

WEAR RED

The color of the Holy Spirit is red. Next weekend, we celebrate the Feast of Pentecost, the Coming of the Holy Spirit, the feast day of the Birthday of the Church. The priests' vestments will be red. You are invited to also wear red in solidarity with the feast and as a sign that you are always open to the coming of the Holy Spirit into your lives.

Mission Statement

We profess our belief that Christ sent His Spirit to bestow gifts on His followers according to their part in carrying out His mission. We are committed to be visible signs to each other, and to our community, of Christ's Presence among us: proclaiming and evangelizing the Gospel, witnessing to God's love according to the Roman Catholic Church's teaching; ministering to the needs of all; and, fostering the spiritual life and growth among parishioners.

Stewardship Reflection

This is my commandment: love one another as I love you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends." JOHN 15: 12-13. Do you love Jesus? Do you consider Him your friend? Jesus says that if we love Him we would be willing to offer whatever we have to Him, not because we want praise and glory, but simply because we love Him. Does your giving seem mechanical out of obligation or do you share freely out of love?

Diocesan Missions Sunday

Today is Diocesan Missions Sunday, acknowledging the missionary efforts of the Sisters of Mercy in Chile and the Sisters of St. Joseph in Brazil.

We are called to take part in the missionary work of the Church. We may not all have to move to another town or city to do so, but impelled by the Holy Spirit, each one of us is to move beyond our daily concerns, important as they are, to help others live in the faith that sustains us.

Bishop Salvatore Matano calls us to a responsible sharing in the missionary works of the Diocese of Rochester. No Diocese is truly a diocese unless it extends beyond its own borders and allows itself to be touched by the presence of each churches.

May we share the gift of faith today by helping our missionary friends with our prayers and a generous gift.

In this year of St. Joseph, may God continue to bless these women and strengthen their commitment to follow Jesus.

From the USCCB Committee on Pro-Life Activities:

The Hyde Amendment has protected Americans from funding abortion for 45 years. It's credited with saving the lives of over 2.4 million children to date. Now, powerful members of Congress want to take away this law that both Democrats and Republicans have supported for nearly half a century. Without it, billions of taxpayer dollars could go to abortion. That means abortions would be cheaper, easier, and funded with our taxpayer dollars. As Pope Francis has said, "The future of humanity ... is fundamentally in the hands of peoples and in their ability to organize." It is critically important for Catholics to send a strong message before Congress moves forward to impose taxpayer-funded abortion. Because of the incredibly high stakes Congress needs to hear from a massive number of people. I invite the people of your parish to join our diocesan response to this nationwide effort by the USCCB, set for the first week of June. The primary goal is for millions of Catholics to sign the petition on NoTaxpayerAbortion.com.

Religious Education News

We are looking ahead to September and are looking for a few good people to help with our Religious Education Program as Catechists or aides. It's an hour or so a week and we provide the training. Sharing your faith with our young people is one of the most rewarding things you can do! Call Don or Mary at 315-781-2624 to explore some possibilities.

The Diocese is sending us The Family Zone, which is a newsletter that was created to give you things to do with your family each week. Within the pages of the newsletter you will find a weekly Gospel connection, a lesson adapted to all ages, prayer, important online links for further catechesis and support, and some "just for fun" activities for your family to enjoy. We are putting this on Our Lady of Peace Facebook page as well as www.ourladyofpeacegeneva.org.

We encourage families to take advantage of the Daily and Sunday live stream Masses that are being said. It is very important that we stay connected during this hard time. You can find the live stream Masses on Our Lady of Peace Parish Facebook page.

Padre Santo, Cuida a los que Me Has Dado

Durante la Última Cena Jesús oraba una oración larga en la cual él muestra su preocupación por sus discípulos, por los que habían estado con él durante su ministerio público. Él estaba recordando el cuidado que había dado a los discípulos y lo que les había enseñado, y desea que ellos mantengan su unión y que no cometan mal y que crezcan en la verdad que él compartió con ellos. Sabiendo que pronto iba a dejarlos, él estaba enviándolos al mundo a compartir lo que había compartido y enseñado a ellos.

Esta oración suena como los deseos de todos maestros y padres de familia. Esperan que sus estudiantes e hijos vivan según lo que habían compartido con ellos y que las vidas de los estudiantes e hijos tengan valor por seguir sus instrucciones y lecciones de vida. Así todos sus esfuerzos en educar o criar tendrán valor y pueden estar orgullosos de sus estudiantes e hijos.

Padres de familia pueden mirar con orgullo a sus hijos sabiendo que han hecho lo mejor que posible en su crianza y que los hijos pueden entrar al mundo de adultos, tomando las responsabilidades de adultos. Como Jesús estaba dejando a los apóstoles, los padres de familia dejan a sus hijos cuando salen de la casa para entrar al colegio, o cuando se casan.

Sí, padres, pongan confianza en sus hijos, y déjenlos vivir sus vidas como adultos enfrentando la vida y todas las necesidades. No van a hacer todo de la misma manera que ustedes en sus vidas porque no son ustedes. Seguramente van a hacer decisiones que les van a causar dificultades, pero tienen que aprender de esas. Ustedes tienen que dejarlos encontrar soluciones. Las soluciones de ustedes no necesariamente van a ser las mejores para ellos.

Pero algo que siempre pueden hacer es orar por ellos en su oración personal y en su oración como pareja y durante la Misa. También pueden invitarlos ir con ustedes a la Misa si ven que no están asistiendo. Todavía ellos son una parte integral de su familia.

Que Dios acompañe a todos los maestros y padres de familia, dándolos la sabiduría necesaria para cumplir con amor sus responsabilidades.
