MULL-ING THINGS OVER

This is our last bulletin for 2021, and it has been quite a year! As COVID continued, we all did the best we could to protect ourselves and others. We have daily prayed for those who have contracted the illness and for those who have valiantly cared for those who have contracted the illness. We have paid attention to safe practices and worked hard to protect ourselves and those with whom we share life. It has been a challenge to live a normal life by our standards and, at the same time, wear masks, practice social distancing, and try to avoid large crowds gathered inside. We have witnessed way too many deaths and celebrated many funerals for those who have died from this illness. We pray for those who are gone. We also thank those who have been an inspiration to us. May God bless them all!

We cannot, however, define a year by the severity of the pandemic. Many good things have happened this year which move us to be grateful people. I have watched people stand together, reaching out and loving one another. It has been a privilege to see folks offering assistance and support for those who have suffered but also to those who have survived. I stand in awe of those who have kept businesses going, reach out services active in caring for those in need, schools that have remained open and students and teachers kept safe and healthy, families monitored and nurtured. You have probably been active in this past year with your own activities and service towards others and helped others to be safe and protected. Thanks to you!

I must offer a word of genuine gratitude to the many people who have been a great support and help to me. It seems wherever I go, a host of “guardian angels” seem to be there to help me. People have accompanied me walking and particularly going up and down stairs. Very kindly, people have asked if I needed anything and provided for my needs. I have received hosts of cards with wishes for good health and volumes of prayers being offered for me. I am deeply grateful. When I have had the misfortune of falling, people have quickly responded and, in various ways, have gotten me to my feet. I am especially grateful to the parish staff who are there when I need them. I hope and pray that I have not caused discomfort or difficulties for those who have assisted me. Our local Funeral Directors have gone especially out of their way to make sure that I am safely able to move in the cemeteries to pray with those grieving and offer the final prayers of the Church for our deceased brothers and sisters in the faith. I love the ministry to which God has called me and I am able to continue it because of the generosity of so many people. Thank you and be assured of prayers of gratitude for you!

As a parish, we have continued the work of the Lord due to your financial support and your faithful stewardship. Whether in Church or praying with us livestream, you have made sure your donations were offered and we were able to finish the fiscal year with our bills paid. Our liturgical ministers, social ministers and all who help “make the Church work” were faithful to their calling and zealously made sure the spiritual needs were met. Parents presented their children for Baptisms and helped prepare sons and daughters for First Reconciliation and soon First Holy Communion. You faithfully supported our Confirmation candidates as they journeyed to the Bishop asking for the sacrament. Wedding couples dutifully prepared and celebrated their wedding in our churches with family and friends and in the sight of God. Our Churches seemed to be bustling as usual, witnessing to the world that we are here, and we are alive. Our Faith moved us to be faithful and prayerful. Thanks to all!

During this year, our local diocesan Churches have continued to struggle with the diocesan bankruptcy process. We have seen many articles on TV or on radio or in the newspapers criticizing us, and in some cases, condemning us. The sexual abuse situation has cast a shadow over us, but we have worked hard to do the Lord’s work despite the criticism (sometimes justified) - and our struggle to apologize, help, and resolve our financial obligations. During this year, we have experienced what it means to have the sins of a few visited on the many. It is with deep sorrow that we apologize and pray for the victims, but it is with fortitude and trust in God that we also hold our heads high and continue to work “in the name of the Lord” doing what Christians do – survive and bring God’s grace and love into the lives of others.

On this Holy Family Sunday we acknowledge Jesus, Mary and Joseph as our model and guide. We re-commit ourselves to our families, to be faithful to God and the work to which God has called us. I pray that we remain a vibrant parish with love for one another – neighbor, family, and stranger. May the coming New Year be a Year of Hope, a Year of Grace, and a Year in which the world rediscovers the beauty and power of God. On behalf of our Staff and Parish Council: Happy New Year!

NEW YEAR’S DAY MASS SCHEDULE

This year, New Year’s Day is not a Holy Day of obligation. It would be good, however, if you planned to attend Mass on New Year’s Eve or New Year’s Day to pray for the Lord’s guidance and help in 2022.

New Year’s Eve Anticipation Mass: 5:30 p.m. (St. Stephen’s Church)

New Year’s Day Masses: 9:00 a.m. (St. Francis), 10:30 a.m. (St. Stephen), 12:00 noon (Spanish-St. Francis) and 4:30 p.m. (St. Francis)

HAPPY NEW YEAR – 2022!!!

A BLUE LIGHT THANK YOU

Most of you have probably noticed the dramatic blue lights decorating the two evergreen trees in front of St. Stephen’s Church. Together with the two church front doors and Christmas creche, it makes a perfect picture. As you might expect, they did not simply appear there. Thank you to Brian Finnerty who arranged for those lights and bought them. Thanks, too, to Brian’s helpers: Anne and Joe Cirencione, Jim Babb, Mary Jo Smith, and Mike McCormack. They spent four hours unpacking, polishing the bulbs, screwing those light bulbs into place and another four hours hanging them on the trees in freezing cold! It was a labor of love and we all are enjoying it. Thanks to them and Merry Christmas to all!

Mission Statement

We profess our belief that Christ sent His Spirit to bestow gifts on His followers according to their part in carrying out His mission. We are committed to be visible signs to each other, and to our community, of Christ’s Presence among us: proclaiming and evangelizing the Gospel, witnessing to God’s love according to the Roman Catholic Church’s teaching; ministering to the needs of all; and, fostering the spiritual life and growth among parishioners.

Online Giving Now Available

Want to keep up with your weekly donations to the parish? Now you can do that online at:

<https://www.osvhub.com/ourladyofpeacegeneva/funds>

You have a choice of one-time or recurring donations, and the option of donating to second collections as well.

Please Note:

It has come to our attention that some parishioners have received texts asking for gift cards. No parish uses a texting feature to communicate with Parishioners or any email outside of the official DOR email assigned to its employees or the official Parish voice phone at which time a parish employee would identify themselves. Anyone receiving communications from unofficial sources should not respond or reply.

Stewardship Reflection

“Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God.” (Philippians 4:6)

St. Paul reminds us that God is an abundant God – He is the ultimate giver of gifts. He promises to give us all that we need. Remember, that we are created in God’s image and likeness. We, too, are made to be generous with all of our gifts as well. Placing our trust in God frees us from being a slave to possessions. It allows us to gratefully and generously share ourselves and our goods with others.

Worldwide Marriage Encounter

The next Worldwide Marriage Encounter weekend is planned for January 14-16 at the Notre Dame Retreat House in Canandaigua, NY. Register online at wwme.org.

The WWME weekend teaches communication techniques such as active listening, listening with the heart and empathy towards your spouse's feelings. It is based on the sacrament of Holy Matrimony and expresses the importance of love in the union and encourages this love be taken out into the world in various ministries to serve God by strengthening the couples and families in the church.

The Marriage Encounter gives busy couples much needed time together to focus on each other and deepen their communication. After the Experience, couples often return to their life and families refreshed with renewed commitment to each other.

St. Francis-St. Stephen’s School Pre-School

We are in the process of deciding if there is enough interest to start a 3 year old Pre-School Program. We need at least 6 students. Please call the school at 315-789-1828 if you are interested. Thank you.

Prayer Line - call 789-0930 between 9:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. and many will pray.

CHURCH CLEANING HELP NEEDED

We are looking for a few generous people who might be available to help us clean both churches on Monday mornings. Because of the high volume of people using our churches over the weekends (Masses, funerals, weddings, baptisms, etc.), it is necessary to clean the churches each week – vacuuming, putting pews in order, cleaning the bathrooms, sweeping the entrances, etc. We would like to have a crew of three or four – then, it would only be about an hour’s work. How about making this a New Year’s Resolution? If you have questions, or would like to volunteer, please call the parish office at (315) 789-0930.

ADORATION CHAPEL

"The Church and the world have a great need for Eucharistic worship. Jesus awaits us in this Sacrament of love. Let us not refuse the time to go to meet Him in adoration, in contemplation full of faith, and open to making amends for the serious offenses and crimes of the world. Let our adoration never cease!" (John Paul II, Dominicae cenae, 3)

If anyone would be interested in joining this tremendous ministry of prayer please contact Dorothy Kalina (789-8099) or Mary Ann Lawson (789-7629).

SHOE DRIVE

Drop off Monday-Friday at SFSS School. Start sending in your unwanted shoes, boots, slippers, or rain boots to SFSS throughout the year until Earth Day. This wonderful company, Shoes with Heart, will retrieve the shoes around Earth Day! We will be collecting these throughout the year! Bring bags full, they even take flip flops, sandals and infant/toddler shoes! Please don’t send rollerblades or ice skates.

Anyone who has two shirts should share with the one who has none, and anyone who has food should do the same. Luke 3:11

Religious Education News

It is not too late to register, please call Mary or Don at (315)781-2624.

Box Tops for SFSS School

The Box Tops for Education program now has a digital app that you can download.

The Box Tops mobile app uses state-of-the-art technology to scan your store receipt, find participating products and instantly add Box Tops to our school's earnings online. While St. Francis-St. Stephen's still gladly accepts the old clip style box tops we are hoping for more participation with the new app. Box Tops are still worth 10¢ each for our school with either method of participation. Go to www.boxtops4education.com for more information or to download the app.

La Sagrada Familia Nos Hace Pensar en Nuestras Familias

Este año no hay días entre la celebración de la Navidad de Jesús y la celebración de la Sagrada Familia y eso nos ayuda conectar el nacimiento y el nacer dentro de una familia. Jesús nació en una familia pequeña de María, José y él. Celebramos el amor en la Navidad que es acompañando por la paz y la alegría de recibir y vivir el regalo que es resultado de nuestra esperanza del Adviento. ¡Jesucristo vive! Como hubo el amor entre los miembros de la Sagrada Familia, espero que el amor viva en las familias de nuestra comunidad. Los padres deben de ser modelos morales y espirituales para sus hijos. Honra a tu padre y a tu madre es el cuarto mandamiento, pero si los hijos no vean lo bueno en sus padres, será difícil para honrarlos y seguir su ejemplo. Los miembros de la familia están llamados a seguir la voluntad de Dios: amarse unos a los otros.

El evangelio de hoy da un ejemplo de formación religiosa: los tres, José, María y Jesús fueron a Jerusalén por la fiesta de la Pascua. Jesús como un niño estaba aprendiendo las costumbres de su religión, judaísmo. Como familia fueron a Jerusalén, no solamente el papá con su hijo o la mamá con su hijo, pero los tres juntos. Jesús, teniendo doce años, tenía que cumplir con la ley judía. Jesús mostró su independencia por quedarse en el templo con los sacerdotes mientras que sus padres dejaron Jerusalén; quería aprender más. Eso pasa a los adolescentes hoy en día cuando ellos desean hacer cosas de adultos y quieren ser más independientes. Pero siendo obediente, cuando sus padres volvieron a Jerusalén en búsqueda de él, Jesús regresó a Nazaret con sus padres y aprendía más, creciendo en sabiduría dentro de su propio pueblo y de su propia familia.

Fue su familia que estaba transmitiendo la fe a Jesús. José y María tenían su fe con todas las costumbres y ellos compartían su fe y sus prácticas con Jesús. Deben ser las familias que transmiten la fe en nuestra comunidad con la ayuda del programa de catequesis. Los padres necesitan ayudar a sus hijos tener una experiencia de Dios y de la vivencia del amor de Dios. Esto se ve en el culto Eucarístico, en recibir el Cuerpo y Sangre de Cristo, en acciones de amor y en la vida de oración en la familia. Tan importante es el papel de la familia en la vida de fe de cada miembro. Los padres de nuestras familias necesitan descubrir la importancia del culto dominical para sí mismos y entonces ayudar a sus hijos saber que la participación en la Misa cada domingo es esencial en sus vidas. Necesitamos a Dios en el centro de nuestras vidas. Es esencial que los padres lleven a sus hijos a la iglesia para participar en la Eucaristía. Todos en la familia celebran los domingos, no solamente algunos miembros de la familia.

Desde un amor sincero vivido en familia y en la comunidad se muestra cómo amar y vivir como la Sagrada Familia.
