MULL-ING THINGS OVER

Today, we celebrate the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord. It is the final day of the Christmas Season. So, we have completed the Advent-Christmas-Epiphany Season. Tomorrow (Monday), we begin Ordinary Time once again. I want to thank all who worked so hard to make these opening weeks of the Liturgical Year so beautiful and so meaningful. Despite the COVID restrictions, our Liturgy Committee worked overtime to keep the church up and the sanctuaries beautiful. Our Music Ministers did a phenomenal job in providing seasonal music, beautifully done without a full choir! Thank you for the rehearsals, time warming up and leading our congregations. Our clean-up volunteers were right on the job as we moved from season to season – this can be a thankless job, but it must be done and now we thank you. We are in a very talented parish and when we all work together, marvelous things can be done to praise and honor our God. We have done it once again this year.

Now, as we move into Ordinary Time, we begin to settle down in the winter weather and get back to our work. As we do so, I just want to give you a medical update on my journey. As many of you know, when I went to begin chemotherapy, my oncologist thought it best for me to have a PET scan – this is a procedure which involves the injection of a radioactive material to help view all internal organs. This test showed that my M.A.L.T. lymphoma had begun to spread, but in a minimal way. A spot was found under my arm and in my groin. After studying the spread a few biopsies were done to make sure they were dealing with the same type of cancer. They were. The decision was made to postpone the chemotherapy until April when the cancer could be further tested and measured as to growth.

My oncologist reminded me that what I had was a chronic case of cancer – it would never go away completely. They had discovered a form of chemotherapy that would bring it under control and can be given at any time. So, should there be a problem between November and April, chemotherapy could begin immediately. So, I have been simply waiting, being tested, and observed, until the next step in the procedure begins. I am not in pain, I do not have symptoms, I eat and sleep as I normally have done. At times, it makes me a little nervous; but, given the fact that I can function and continue in my role as a priest and your pastor, I feel very comfortable.

My other situation is the difficulty with my leg muscles. It is a condition where my leg muscles deteriorate, and I then have a tendency to fall. You have noticed that I use a cane all the time. This is more for security than anything else. I feel stabilized when I have the cane in hand. If I move slowly and judiciously, I have no great difficulty. You have probably made note that I have a hundred Guardian Angels around me should I fall or have some weakness. I appreciate everyone's support and concern. This too, is a chronic disease. It will not go away, but it may not totally disable me. There is very little known about it and my doctors keep tabs on it. They observe and make recommendations when necessary. I do have to be careful when it is snowing or icy. I do, however, carry out all my responsibilities to the best of my ability. Again, I thank those who help me. I guess I have to say that this is now my normal life!

So, I begin Ordinary Time, aware of my limitations but cheerfully and hopefully. It is not easy to grow old, but God is giving me the faith and hope to keep moving onward and I am grateful. It serves as a reminder to me that priests do not only serve with healthy bodies but even in times of challenge. In the end, it is God working through the priesthood that people are served. So, there is no function that I provide that is not provided by the grace of God and I find that God seems to provide a way whenever a challenge arises. As St. Paul said, God's grace is enough for us. After all, we do belong to God's Church.

Enough about me. Thank you for your prayers and support. Getting back to Jesus' baptism, it seems to be the moment that Jesus began His public ministry. He left Mary's home and called His first four apostles. He sat them down, gave them the Sermon on the Mount, the blueprint of his public ministry. He began to preach, first to small crowds and then to much larger groups. He performed miracles and soon showed His divine power to the world. Often, He made the statement; "It is your faith that has saved you" ... and "Give God the glory." He was a servant of God and witnessed to the role He had in bringing that divine power into the world. For Jesus, "Son" meant "Servant." In these days before Lent begins, we are called to continue our ordinary witness to God. We are asked to perform our own work in the name of God at the command of Jesus. Like Jesus, we make the ordinary extraordinary because of God's holy grace. We are all in this together. Let us not only rejoice in Jesus' Baptism today, but in our own, as it unites us in God's work, God's love, and God's assistance!

SUNDAY SYNODAL CONNECTIONS...

The Baptism of the Lord (Luke3:15-16, 21-22), John the Baptist answered by saying, “I am baptizing you with water, but one mightier than I is coming... He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire.” Synod Theme #7 – With Other Christian Denominations reminds us that we are united with other Christian denominations by ONE Baptism. Because of this, we share a special place on this synodal journey. What relations do we have with our brothers and sisters of other Christian denominations? Learn more and /or participate by visiting the webpage www.dor.org/synod.

Stewardship Reflection

“John answered them all, ‘I baptize you with water; but he who is mightier than I is coming...he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit...’” (Luke 3:16)

The Catholic Catechism states that “Jesus’ immersion in the water is a sign for all human beings of the need to die to themselves to do God’s will.” In other words, as baptized Catholics there is only one gift that we need to give to Jesus – the gift of ourselves. Surrender yourself to God, place your trust in Him and allow the Holy Spirit to work through you for the greater glory of God.

ADORATION CHAPEL

"The Church and the world have a great need for Eucharistic worship. Jesus awaits us in this Sacrament of love. Let us not refuse the time to go to meet Him in adoration, in contemplation full of faith, and open to making amends for the serious offenses and crimes of the world. Let our adoration never cease!" (John Paul II, Dominicae cenae, 3)

Jaylind and Misty of ABCD Migrant Day Care with parishioner John Milligan move the gifts from the Parish Giving Trees. Twenty-six children received gifts. A TREE FULL OF THANKS!

Many thanks for your generosity to our Parish Giving Trees. The Children of ABCD Agribusiness Day Care were recipients of 26 gifts and the Geneva General Nursing Homes North and South received 40 gifts to give to their Catholic residents. Seneca Lake Terrace's Catholic residents received gifts and welcomed visits from Joanne Greco-who coordinated the gift-giving- along with Michelle, Danielle and Paige O’Brien. Other churches provide gifts for their residents, that is why I mentioned Catholic residents. Living Centers North and South at the hospital nursing homes received 35 gifts. Gifts collected and sorted for the Hispanic children of the parish numbered about 70. Tara Furman and her helpers from the Hispanic Community were the workers on that project. They will be distributed on January 2, at the celebration of the Three Kings after the twelve o’clock Mass at St. Francis. Your generous hearts make all this possible. There were also donations of gift cards for food and the "adoption of a family for Christmas" by St. Francis-St Stephen’s School. A local family with 3 children. Gifts, Christmas dinner and other groceries were all provided. Another family was “adopted” through my office by a couple from the parish. The knitted goods, scarves, mittens, and hats which were lovingly knitted or purchased to decorate the trees. They will be given to those in need through my office, the Center of Concern, ABCD Day Care and our own Hispanic ministry. I also wish to thank Cathy Caster and her team of teachers at St. Francis-St. Stephen’s School and retired Social Service worker Karen McNicholas for their help during this Christmas season of giving! Well done, ladies. It will be used throughout the year as needs arise for the marginalized of the community. Thank you for this kind, generous support.

Thank you so much for thinking of others, this busy time of year makes it a sacrifice of time to do these "extra" good deeds! In total we gifted 150 friends.

I send you my personal thanks and the thanks from those who benefitted from your generosity.

Blessings on you in 2022!

Marie Milligan, Social Ministry Coordinator

Now the Work of Christmas Begins...

I don't know how many of you have read this Christmas missive, but I think it may bear repeating. These are some of my favorite words and I try to put them out at this time of year. They are attributed to the eloquent preacher, Howard Thurman.

The work of Christmas begins now!

It is an appropriate theme for the season of Epiphany. You have put your decorations away, your tree may be at the curb or recycled, This is when the work of Christmas really begins. It is then that making the gospel manifest for the work falls to us. That is what the word epiphany means. It is up to us through our words and actions to let the world know that love is born anew. Thank you Pastor Jim Gerling for some of these thoughts.

Marie Milligan

Social Ministry Coordinator

“When the song of the angels is stilled,

When the star in the sky is gone,

When the kings and princes are home,

When the shepherds are back with their flock,

The Work of Christmas Begins,

To find the lost,

To heal the broken,

To feed the hungry,

To release the prisoner,

To rebuild the nations,

To bring peace among the people,

To make music in the heart”

If you or a loved one is homebound, or in the Geneva or Rochester hospital please call office at 789-0930 or 789-1124 so they may be visited.

Muy Importante Es Nuestro Bautismo

Hoy celebramos el Bautismo de Jesús cuando Juan Bautista lo bautizó en el río Jordán. Ya recordamos que Jesús, por su bautismo, terminó la primera parte de su vida, y es bautizado antes de empezar la segunda parte de su vida. Después de ser bautizado él va al desierto donde oró y ayunó en preparación para su vida pública de misión. Iba a predicar, servir a otros que tenían necesidades, y vivir una vida con cualidades que hoy en día queremos tener y usar en nuestras propias vidas en amor de Dios y nuestros prójimos y el servicio a los demás—en seguimiento de Jesucristo.

¿Sabe la fecha de su nacimiento? ¿Sabe la fecha de su Bautismo? ¿Cuál de esos dos eventos celebra cada año? Aunque los dos eventos le han dado una bienvenida a una familia, muy pocas personas saben la fecha de su bautismo. Sí, la mayoría de las personas saben la fecha de su nacimiento y celebran cada año ese gran evento. Pero el bautismo ellos no recuerdan ni lo celebran. Ese día de nuestro bautismo es muy importante. Ese día empezamos a conocer a Dios y su familia.

Nacimos a una familia de padres y posiblemente otros hermanos, que está para nutrirnos, darnos amor, sostenernos físicamente y espiritualmente, educarnos y protegernos. Somos parte de una familia y mientras crecimos nosotros vamos sabiendo como la familia funciona. Por el bautismo recibimos una bienvenida a la familia de Dios.

Nuestros padres y padrinos tienen el deber de educarnos en la fe, de escucharnos y protegernos, pero un problema es que muchos padres y padrinos no cumplen con esas responsabilidades que aceptaron el día del bautismo. Padres y padrinos, despiértense. No solamente por palabras aceptan la responsabilidad, pero tienen que vivirla con acciones y oración durante toda la vida de la persona bautizada. El bautizado empieza su seguimiento de Cristo y necesita saber quién está siguiendo.

En este seguimiento de Jesucristo también la comunidad de fe es esencial. Por el Bautismo entramos la familia de Dios, la Iglesia o la comunidad enfocada en Cristo y empezamos a compartir los privilegios y la vida de esa comunidad. Durante los años de participación, llegamos a conocer a muchos miembros de los creyentes de la comunidad y espero que ellos también por su ejemplo nos ayuden. Cuando el ejemplo es negativo, obviamente el ejemplo no es una ayuda, y puede ser la causa de separación entre ciertos miembros y el mal ejemplo puede desanimar el bautizado hasta alejarlo de la iglesia.

Es cierto que bautizamos niños que no tienen preparación, pero los padres y padrinos aceptan la responsabilidad de educarlos en la fe. De a poco van preparándose según su edad, y son los padres que tienen la responsabilidad primaria de hacerlo con la ayuda de los padrinos y también catequistas en la parroquia. Pero los padrinos y catequistas no deben quitar de los padres su responsabilidad.

Demos gracias a Jesucristo por su ejemplo y enseñanza en cuanto el Bautismo y la necesidad de enseñarlo después de Bautismo. Jesús instruyó a sus discípulos: "...hagan que todos los pueblos sean mis discípulos. Bautícenlos en el nombre del Padre y del Hijo y del Espíritu Santo, y enséñenles a cumplir todo lo que yo les he encomendado a ustedes." (Mt. 28, 19-20) Hermana Kay
