MULL-ING THINGS OVER

First Communion was two weeks ago, and it was a wonderful celebration! Sometimes, I think the priest has a different perspective on what is seen and heard because the priest is the person who is central and has an eye on everything and everyone. We can see the faces because we stand face to face. Sometimes little touching incidents happen that no one would know about unless the priest was to describe it. I always enjoy First Communion and here are a few of the special moments that remain with me from this year's celebration.

We have the tradition here at Our Lady of Peace that individuals receive Holy Communion with their family. So, the child does not simply stand in front of the priest; but the whole family forms a large circle around the First Communion candidate so the whole family is witness to this important event. When one family gathered in front of me, I noticed the candidate's grandma and grandpa stood behind the candidate, they grabbed one another's hands as they witnessed the First Communion take place. The child turned and hugged Grandma as Grandpa placed his hand on the child's head. It was a moment that seemed to pull everyone into a little circle of love as they moved as one back to their seat.

First Communion is also a time when families gather. It is not just Mom and Dad or brothers and sisters who gather but relatives from far and wide get together and the moment becomes a real sharing among family members. When I gave First Communion to one child, I then distributed Holy Communion to all others gathered in the circle. I, then, noticed how the candidate stretched out her hand to an uncle, wrapped her hand around his little finger and gently pulled him into the circle so he could also share Holy Communion. There was a wonderful smile on her face and a returned smile on the uncle's face. They walked back to their seat hand-in-hand.

Some family groups are quite small and others that are very large! As one family came forward for First Communion, there were about twelve people. I noticed Mom and Dad at opposite ends of the group. The child stood before me. She looked first at Mom and then at Dad, with nothing spoken, Mom and Dad moved so that they could stand immediately behind the candidate together. So, when I gave Holy Communion, the three of them received together. As they walked back to their pew, the three of them walked together.

Sometimes people think things must be perfect! One group appeared before me. The young man receiving Holy Communion had three sisters. When they arrived, the sisters made sure the young man was standing in the right place, one of them brushed his hair back, one fixed his tie and the other gave him a little kiss. It was touching to see how they all wanted everything to be perfect for their brother. I looked at them and said, "Are we all set?" One of the girls said, "Do it now before something goes wrong!" I laughed as did everyone else. The four of them walked back together.

Most of these things happened rather quickly and are gone. I am not sure if anyone will even remember any of these things now. For me, however, they became part of a special day that became more special because of the personalities and individuals involved. None of these activities were rehearsed. I don't believe we probably could plan these types of things. In many ways they are motivated out of love, out of concern for another, or simply because they happen. They do become, however, a story we will tell, a lesson we will learn, an experience that deepens the meaning of an already significant moment. It is the human side of daily activities which speak to the signs and dimension of faith. Sometimes, I think it is God's way of getting us to think and see the real specialness of a certain moment.

This Easter Season seems to be filled with the signs and sound of the season. We tend to gain more grace and relate more closely to God because of the human experiences that are expressed during this Easter time. God's message is clear – don't just go through the process; let God be your guide, God's grace is your inspiration, discussing our human interaction as a real gift from God helping us recognize the vitality of our faith.

I hope you have a good week and continue to be surprised by God who likes to surprise us, causing us to open our eyes and recognize the Spirit at work in our lives. Have a great week!

PRIESTS' CONVOCATION

This week the priests of the diocese will be gathered in Convocation with Bishop Matano in Horseheads. The past three Convocations have been cancelled because of COVID. We ask you to pray for our priests and Bishop as they work, pray, and play together. Open their minds and hearts to the guidance of the Holy Spirit working about them. ## MEMORIAL DAY MASS AT ST. MARY'S CEMETERY

As is our custom, a special Mass for all our Dead will be celebrated on Memorial Day, May 30, 2022, at 8:00 a.m. in the mausoleum at St. Mary's Cemetery on Pre-Emption Road. Our veterans' graves will be marked with American flags. It is a day of solemn observance remembering those who made the ultimate sacrifice and those who were willing to make that sacrifice. All are welcome.

Mission Statement

We profess our belief that Christ sent His Spirit to bestow gifts on His followers according to their part in carrying out His mission. We are committed to be visible signs to each other, and to our community, of Christ's Presence among us: proclaiming and evangelizing the Gospel, witnessing to God's love according to the Roman Catholic Church's teaching; ministering to the needs of all; and, fostering the spiritual life and growth among parishioners.

THANK YOU

On behalf of our parish and our parish school, we want to extend a big thank you to Jim Babb and his friends who spent several weeks (including working into the night) renewing and refreshing the walls and floors of St. Francis – St. Stephen School corridor. This included taking out the old floor, putting in the new floor, making repairs, leveling, painting, and completing a very beautiful job. This made the entrance to our school more attractive, brightened up the corridors, and safer for transit. Thanks, to you Jim and your loyal, hard-working crew, you did not charge us a penny and the place looks like new! We pray for all of you!

Stewardship Reflection

"I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another." (John 14:27) "As I have loved you," this is the hard part – Jesus' love is unconditional; our love usually comes with strings attached. It is easy to love someone when they love you back. But it takes mercy and compassion to love someone when you feel unappreciated, feel used or feel like your opinion doesn't matter. It takes courage and the grace of God to "love my neighbor" when they may be someone you don't like, someone you don't know or someone that doesn't look like you.

Diez Mandamientos de la Misericordia

Como niños aprendemos lo que Dios pide de nosotros por los diez mandamientos del Antiguo Testamento. Jesucristo puso lo esencial en las dos leyes de amor: “Amarás al Señor, tu Dios con todo tu corazón, con toda tu alma y con toda tu mente. Este es el gran mandamiento, el primero. Pero hay otro muy parecido: Amarás a tu prójimo como a ti mismo.” Si la persona verdaderamente ama al otro no va a cometer los pecados de estos mandamientos.

Si amamos al otro, vamos a mostrar la misericordia que viene de Dios. Hace seis años Ron Rolheiser escribió los siguientes diez mandamientos de la misericordia.

Recuerda que la misericordia descansa lo más profundamente en el corazón de Dios. La esencia de Dios es misericordia. En las Escrituras encontramos otras expresiones de esto: entrañable bondad y compasión, pero la mejor palabra es hesed que connota una relación que ama, abraza y perdona aun cuando no podemos llegar a medir o merecer lo que nos es dado.

Recuerda que la misericordia es la esencia de toda religión verdadera. En toda religión y espiritualidad, en todas creencias hay tres cosas centrales: apropiada práctica religiosa, apertura a los pobres y compasión. Son complementarias de un todo religioso y practicados son una apertura del amor de Dios y no del ego humano. El contenido de la religión es la invitación: Sean compasivos, misericordiosos, como Dios es compasivo.

Recuerda que todos nosotros nos hallamos siempre necesitados de misericordia. ¿Ama a Dios más a los pecadores que a los justos? No hay personas justas. Nosotros sentimos más el amor de Dios cuando admitimos que somos pecadores. No podemos comprender la misericordia de Dios, pero lo que significa misericordia es que es inmerecida.

Recuerda que, habiendo recibido misericordia, debemos manifestar misericordia a otros. Solo recibimos y poseemos de la misericordia de Dios y de otros cuando extendemos esa misma misericordia a otros. La misericordia tiene que fluir a través de nosotros. Se acuerda que somos las manos, brazos y sentidos de Dios en este mundo. Si no extendemos misericordia a otros, venimos a ser auto-indulgentes y demasiado severos para con otros.

Recuerda que solo la práctica de la misericordia nos hace libres. Recibir y dar la misericordia es la única cosa que nos libera de nuestra propensión a auto-busarnos, auto-justificarnos y juzgar a otros. Nada nos libera mas de la tiranía del ego que lo que nos libera de la misericordia.

No tengo espacio aquí para continuar con los otros cinco mandamientos de la misericordia, por eso otra semana voy a escribir sobre ellos. Mientras tanto, intenten vivir estos cinco, recordando lo que Jesús nos había dicho “Sean misericordiosos como es misericordioso el Padre de ustedes” Lc. 6, 36.

Hermana Kay
