The art of piano-making with the Fazioli's

It's written in his contract: the great jazz pianist Herbie Hancock will only play a Fazioli piano at his concerts. For Hancock, the winner of 14 Grammys, no piano has the richness of sound that a piano made by Paolo and Luca Fazioli.

What makes a Fazioli piano so special?

The wood of red spruce trees from the Italian Dolomites.

The Faziolis trek 7,000 feet into the mountains to obtain the wood to make their pianos. The 200-year-old red spruce trees possess such exceptional acoustic qualities because the trees grow slowly in the harsh mountain winters, producing an even-grain plank that gives their instruments their wonderful sound. From the same Alpine forest centuries ago, master luthier Antonio Stradivari got the red spruce for his magnificent violins.

"The wood is very light," Paolo Fazioli explains, "and at the same time is also very strong."

Paolo founded the company 42 years ago. The son of furniture makers, Paolo rebuilt an old piano that sounded "terrible" and became fascinated with the inner workings of the instrument. Paolo Fazioli and his son Luca continue to run the company of fifty employees.

Fazioli is largely unknown outside elite music circles — and that's by design. The Faziolis turn out about 140 handcrafted pianos a year, each piano taking three years to build. Each instrument sells for upwards of $200,000. Herbie Hancock discovered the Faziolis while on tour in Italy in 2003 and now will play no other piano.

Playing a Fazioli piano for the first time, Hancock remembers, "the sound was so sweet . . . It just begs you to play it."

The harsh winter storms of the Dolomite Mountains in Northern Italy "season" the wood that brings such magnificent music to life. We learn and grow and become stronger from the winters that storm through our lives that can leave us broken and lost — but in "waking" the Christ within us, in listening for the voice of Christ amid the roar, our "wood" becomes stronger and more vibrant; the "music" of our days becomes more resonant with meaning and grace. Within each of us is the grace of the "awakened" Jesus in today's Gospel: the wisdom, the patience, the courage to discern the presence of God amid the storms of tension, fear, anxiety, and injustice that batter our lives. The grace of the Risen Christ enables us to discern the presence of God amid the roar of anger and mistrust and to recognize the light of God in the darkness of selfishness and prejudice.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a program instituted by the Church after the Second Vatican Council.

In the early Church it was adults who were attracted to Christians because of the way “they loved one another” & how they were willing to give witness (the meaning of the word “martyr”) to their faith. The saying goes, “The blood of the martyrs was the seed of the Church.” The program is for people who have not been baptized; for people who were baptized in the name of the Trinity (Father, Son & Holy Spirit) who want to learn more about the Catholic faith & for those who were baptized Catholic but received no further religious education. If you would like to know more about the RCIA please contact Fr. Leo at the parish office 315-536-7459. Thanks to all parishioners who have assisted in the program over the years. Special thanks to Fr. George who has headed the program over the last few years.

Catholic social teaching is based on and inseparable from our understanding of human life and human dignity. Every human being is created in the image of God and redeemed by Jesus Christ and therefore is invaluable and worthy of respect as a member of the human family. Every person, from the moment of conception to natural death, has inherent dignity and a right to life consistent with that dignity. Human dignity comes from God, not from any human quality or accomplishment. Fratelli Tutti is the latest document in the Church's body of social teaching help us live out the call to fraternity, social friendship, and solidarity. MASS SCHEDULE CHANGES

Thank you all who took time to suggest a Mass schedule for Our Lady of the Lakes beginning in July.

The challenge is to leave enough time between Masses to travel especially considering the weather, buggies & slow drivers which usually takes at least one half an hour under ideal conditions.

Many suggest 3 Masses on Sunday covering the 3 worship sites yet no one suggested the last Mass (usually at 12 or 12:15) to be at their worship site.

I want to supply the opportunity for the parishioners at St. Januarius & St. Patrick's to attend Mass on either Saturday evening or Sunday.

After discussing my recommendations with the staff, the following schedule has been set, to be evaluated in 6 months (January 2022).

Saturday Masses: Sunday Masses:

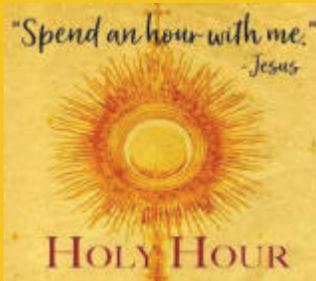

3:30 p.m. St. Patrick's 8:30 a.m. St. Januarius
5:30 p.m. St. Michael's 10:30 a.m. St. Michaels

This is a time of transition which is never easy and I ask for your patience & assistance during this time.

Daily Mass	St. Michael	St. Januarius
Monday	8 am Mass	Communion Service
Tuesday	Communion Service	8 a.m. Mass
Wednesday	Noon Mass	Communion Service
Thursday	Communion Service	8 a.m. Mass
Friday	Communion Service	Communion Service

Save the date-June 27th

Catholic Daughters would like to invite everyone to a farewell gathering for Father Jorge before he leaves us June 29th. The event will take place on Sunday June 27th after mass at St Michael's. Refreshments provided.

Join us for Holy Hour Thursday at 11am St. Michael's Chapel

COMMUNION SERVICE LEADERS NEEDED

With the changes in the daily Mass schedule & our continual recovering from COVID, there will be a need for parishioners to lead Communion Services on the days that Mass is not celebrated.

Deacon Tim will do the services at St. Januarius on Mondays & Fridays. Deacon Roger will do the services on Tuesdays & Fridays at St. Michaels. So there is a need for someone to do the Wednesday service at St. Januarius & the Thursday Service at St. Michaels.

There should be perhaps 3 parishioners capable of doing the service at each worship site who would hopefully rotate on each of the open dates.

Leaders have to be Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion & should have gone through reader training. I have asked Deacons Tim & Roger to be responsible to train & update readers 7 Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist.

If you have preformed this ministry before I would ask you to sign up by putting your name into the open schedule spot located at St. Michaels on the sacristy bulletin board or at St. Januarius on the bulletin board outside the chapel.

If you are interested & not presently trained or would like more information on what is required please call the Parish Office & leave you name & contact information & you will be contacted when the deacons have finished their planning.

Offering Counter Teams Needed

The offering counters are volunteers who assist in providing accurate, consistent, confidential and timely processing of all donations and monetary gifts to the Church.

Offering Counter Teams work in groups of three(3) unrelated people. (i.e. Husband and Wife would be placed on separate teams)

Usually the counting work is done immediately after the worship service though it may be set for a later time. Teams serve in a rotating schedule.

These teams count and record the amounts of money and checks and then prepare the deposit slips for delivery to the bank.

If this is something that you would be interested in doing, please contact the Parish Office. 315-536-7459

The Parish wants to continue to stream the Sunday Mass at St. Michael's church, even when the pandemic is over. Therefore, we need several volunteers to help us to stream the Masses.

If you want to help us in this project, please call the parish office 315-536-7459

Without volunteers we will not be able to continue streaming so please consider volunteering to help stream the Mass. Training will be provided; we hope to have at least 6-8 volunteers.

Call for more information. 315-536-7459

Consider becoming a Cantor. You could mentor with one of our regular cantors either at the Saturday or Sunday Mass (sit in the choir section and sign along with the cantor) and when you feel ready you could Cantor by yourself. Our organist Connie Gibson, would be happy to work with you and prepare you for this important role. You would not only be offering your talents to the worship of God but you might discover that you truly enjoy this new endeavor and it will continue throughout your lifetime. Please let us know of your interest by either calling the Parish Office 315-536-7459 or our organist Connie Gibson 315-536-9379. Thank you! The Musicians and Staff at St. Michael's
