18th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"You cannot see the forest for the trees" is a widely known saying that can bring wisdom to our understanding of our journey. Often, our sight becomes limited to what is immediately before us. We lose touch with lessons and experiences from the past and promises and hope for the future. As human beings, we have the privilege of being able to choose things. What I like and don't like, want, and don't want can be major preoccupations of our minds and hearts. Our preferences and desires begin to define us more than the simple fact of our being. Who we are matters more than what we are or what we have. If we don't move beyond the external and superficial stuff to what really is of essence, we risk becoming very unsettled, disorientated, angry, and unhappy. We fail to see the bigger picture of hope and promise that lies ahead and the Divine Presence that has sustained and carried us before.

We like it when the "now" time of our lives satisfy us. Even the people who witnessed Jesus feed the five thousand got confused and distracted. It felt good when thousands of people were able to eat. They wanted to know what they could do to get this to happen again! But Jesus quickly reminds them that this is not the point of this sign. As much as the now time of our lives is of concern, it is not what is ultimately important. We need to learn the difference between being and doing, drawing more strength from who we are and who God is rather than what is happening around us and the choices we can make. Jesus is the true bread that came down from heaven. Jesus is the very incarnate presence of God who sustains life and assures us that we will not perish. This is not easy to understand and feel. We have to practice being in the presence of ourselves, others, creation, and God. We are brought to a holy place when we encounter the sacredness of being. This is real prayer.

Then, we learn to trust. It is when we cease trusting that we start to become afraid, uncertain, apprehensive, and doubtful, and overly self-concerned. We even start to grumble. God has our back. That is the essential powerful message of the living bread come down from heaven. God, who is alpha is also omega, the beginning and the end, and has everything in between in his care as well. A woman once remarked that her most powerful God moment happened when she and her husband cuddled with their new baby for a time. Without exchanging words and using only the affection communicated through sight and touch, they rested in being with each other. This brought them to the sacred, where they realized that a greater Being was with them. It was real. They knew that they were part of something bigger, intimate, and profound. When we rest in the Living Source of life, we will find that our souls are no longer hungry or thirsty.

Praying Together

There will be NO 4:00 PM Mass at St. Lucy on Saturday, August 7. All are invited to attend the 4:00 PM Outdoor Mass at the home of Arnold & Sharyon Dueppengiesser.

Outdoor Mass & Potluck Supper at the home of Arnold and Sharyon Dueppengiesser, 7825 Butler Rd., Perry, is Saturday, August 7. Mass begins at 4:00 PM, with potluck supper following. Meat, beverages and tableware will be provided. Bring your favorite dish to pass! All are welcome.

Please RSVP to the parish office at 243-1100, with the number attending the Outdoor Mass & Picnic.

Eucharistic Adoration: Spend time in front of the Blessed Sacrament. Adoration at St. Mary Church is once again EVERY Thursday, from 5-7 PM. Stay for the whole time or drop by for only a few minutes.

Holy Hour: The next Holy Hour is Thursday, August 19, 9:00-10:00 AM at St. Patrick Church. Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, Rosary, & Benediction. All are invited.

Prayer Group: The Monday night prayer group with Joseph and Donna Guido meets at St. Patrick's from 7:00—8:30 pm. A face mask is required. Pray the Rosary, the Divine Mercy Chaplet, read and discuss the Sunday Gospel for the coming week and pray for personal intentions.

Question of the Week - Reflect and Respond to Scripture

Gospel:

We hear today the introduction of Jesus' extended "bread of life" discourse. In referring back to the ancient Israelites who ate "manna" (bread) in the desert, Jesus tells the crowds: "I am the bread of life."

How would you explain to someone how Jesus sustains you?

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

When we lose our ability to trust, we become afraid. When we are afraid, we may begin to grumble and question whether where we are is where we need to be. For us who have faith, we even question whether God is who God says He is. Trust is so important to our success on our journey. Often, the road of our lives can become a bit treacherous. We may find ourselves feeling more unsettled than comfortable and less fulfilled than we would like to be. As much as we try, the pieces of our puzzle don't quite fit together as they ought. We wonder if we will ever experience happiness again. Then, something reminds us that God is very much present in this mess we call life. God is still bringing hope out of despair and life out of death. After all, God is the true bread that comes down from heaven to give life. All that is necessary is for us to trust in this truth, even when we may be lacking in some of life's essentials. The God who gives life is the same God who sustains it. He is also the same God who assures us that we will not perish.

Parish Life

Save the Date: St. Luke's Woman's One Day Retreat at Camp Asbury has been scheduled for Wednesday, September 15. Be sure to mark your Calendars!

Question: What can I do to help our family practice our faith each day?

Answer:

Some families practice their religion together as just another event on their schedule: go to church, observe Lent, help at the parish picnic, go to a meeting, volunteer time, make your confession, use your envelope... But the focus needs to be on who we are—God's people, in relationship with him, loved, forgiven, and redeemed, and called to live and proclaim the Gospel. Our awareness of God's presence and our sense of mission are supported by the daily rituals, celebrations, and traditions that help us stay focused. Sharing our faith strengthens us and clarifies the beliefs and values of Christian living.

Daily family practices include time for prayer—before meals, before bed, before important meetings and activities. Attend Sunday Mass together and discuss the homily afterward. Create family celebrations for holy days and holidays. Make religion a regular part of your discussions. Include others, especially the elderly and the less fortunate, in your activities and charitable efforts. By applying the virtues of faith, hope, and love to each day, faith becomes part of who your family is. It influences how you act towards others, what you value, and how mindful of God you are. Faith is the leaven of life that helps all of us rise to our calling and dignity as God's people.

Stewardship

In Appreciation

Thank you to those tending the gardens around the churches of St. Luke's. Help is still needed. Please call the parish office or Anna Macauley to volunteer.

St. Luke's Buildings and Grounds Committee

Additional members for buildings and Grounds are needed for St. Mary and St. Patrick Churches. Building and Grounds members are not responsible for making repairs, but rather identifying items needing repair and coordinating with the Parish Office to engage a contractor. They would also facilitate any volunteer efforts such as leaf raking, minor painting, spring cleanup, etc. If you are interested, please call the parish Office 243-1100.

School Supply Drive

Catholic Charities Steuben/Livingston is now collecting for the Livingston County School Supply Drive. Our annual School Supply Drive runs through August 19, and donations of new backpacks and school supplies are accepted. All donations will be given to students in need in Livingston County. Monetary donations are also being collected for direct purchase of school supplies. View the area collection sites, amazon shopping link or make a monetary donation on Catholic Charities website at the School Supply Drive page at www.ccsteubenvivingston.org. Supplies for those who qualify will be given away at our Giveaway Event on August 20.
