WELCOME!

If you are a visitor to our churches, we want you to know how welcome you are.

Wherever you have come from, we hope you find our worship inspiring and reverent, and our people here friendly and cordial. If you are seeking a spiritual home, we would be honored by your presence in our parish family.

22ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He summoned the crowd again and said to them, "Hear me, all of you, and understand. Nothing that enters one from outside can defile that person; but the things that come out from within are what defile." - Mk 7:14-15

Sanctuary Candles through September 4:In Memory of Vincent & Clara Farruggia by Mark & Maggie.In Memory of Frank, Charles, Sam & Joseph Victoria by Helen Gentile.In Memory of Vincent & Clara Farruggia by Mark & Maggie.Remember in your prayers those who have died, especially Kay Conlon.

Albert Einstein said that the “true measure of intelligence is not knowledge but imagination.” Being a disciple of Jesus Christ requires a great deal of imagination. It is not enough to simply attend to facts, rules and rituals and consider the job done. Quite contrarily, the Gospels demands creativity, of trying to discern how to put flesh on the Beatitudes and properly serve God’s children. Jesus never doled out a top down agenda. Not once did he ever demand conformity over conversion or sacrifice over mercy. The Gospel is always about putting people in touch with their compassionate, forgiving, and unconditionally loving God and meeting them where they are.

For Jesus, it often meant breaking a few rules. Well respected and time-honored traditions had to be set aside in order to attend to what really mattered. God’s compassion, mercy and true conversion were always the trump cards. The story of the Good Samaritan, healing on the Sabbath, and bypassing of purification rituals all display this theme. Human beings can get too hung up on protocol and tradition. This is so much so that often preserving all of these things is of greater concern than the beggar knocking on our door or the sinner looking for mercy. It is no wonder, then, that we can easily become hypocritical. Many can see us on our knees in prayer while our true heart and actions, rooted in judgment and self-preservation, are hidden from others. It is a trap into which we can easily fall. Who cares how we live our lives as long as our hands are properly washed!

Here enters the need for imagination and the distinction of truly being a wise and intelligent person. It takes a good measure of creativity and a lot of guts to really be a doer of God’s word and not merely a hearer. Being a person who doesn’t just tell people about God but shows people God requires courage and ingenuity. That’s why people like St. Francis of Assisi and St. Teresa of Calcutta are timeless. Their genuineness speaks volumes generation to generation. It’s risky business taking the step to allow God into our hearts. Permitting God to release us from the grip of our evil thoughts, infidelity, greed, malice, sexual improprieties, licentiousness, envy, arrogance, folly, and the like takes courage. That’s why we prefer to spend our energy rearranging the future rather than take measures to secure a foundation that is most certainly crumbling. ©LPi

Praying Together

Eucharistic Adoration: Spend time in front of the Blessed Sacrament. Adoration at St. Mary Church is once again EVERY Thursday, from 5-7 PM. Stay for the whole time or drop by for only a few minutes.

Holy Hour: The next Holy Hour is Thursday, September 16, 9:00-10:00 AM at St. Patrick Church. Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, Rosary, & Benediction. All are invited.

Prayer Group: The Monday night prayer group with Joseph and Donna Guido meets at St. Patrick's from 7:00—8:30 pm. A face mask is required. Pray the Rosary, the Divine Mercy Chaplet, read and discuss the Sunday Gospel for the coming week and pray for personal intentions.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

What makes a person wise and intelligent? Certainly it is not the ability to memorize facts or minute details about a situation. What makes a person wise and intelligent is when their words and actions harmoniously unite and produce virtue. A person can know many facts and even do the right actions but still have a grave flaw in their character. We sometimes want to delude ourselves into thinking that as long as we are “doing” everything correctly, we are automatically in right relationship with all. Such is sadly not the case in the kingdom of God. We are called not to be just hearers of the Word, but doers as well. That means getting to the heart of what laws and rituals are meant to signify and nurture. If we do not bring the actions home, where they belong, and allow them to speak of the goodness, mercy, compassion, and love of God, then they are simply empty worthless gestures. Welcome the Word that has been planted within you so that you can be a truly wise and intelligent disciple of Jesus Christ.

Question of the Week - Reflect and Respond to Scripture

Gospel:

In returning to the Gospel of Mark, we hear today how the religious leaders from Jerusalem questioned Jesus about keeping “the tradition of the elders.” Jesus responded with the importance of being clean of heart. Why is this such a challenging spiritual exercise?

Stewardship

St. Luke's Wishing Trees

As we head into September and the leaves on the trees outside turn beautiful colors, there will be colorful trees inside each of our churches as well. It is again the "Wishing Tree" season. The wishing trees are adorned with "leaves" which list items that are needed or desired for each church. Some of the items are consumables or necessities like candles and cleaning supplies while others are bigger, like altar cloths or candle stands. But everything listed is something used to make our churches comfortable, inviting, beautiful places of worship.

The way they work: there's a label on each "leaf" envelope which lists the item and the cost associated. Some items can be purchased at any store and returned to the church. Other items must be ordered through the parish office. For those items, you can put the dollar amount in the envelope and return it in the collection basket or to the office. There is a variety of items listed and the donation or purchase of any of them will be helpful to our parish.

It has been two years since these trees were displayed in 2019 when we were blessed in that our trees "lost" nearly all their leaves and we were gifted with almost every wish expressed!

Parish Support

Thank you to everyone who is supporting St. Luke the Evangelist Parish with their gifts of financial support, involvement in ministry, organizations and in prayer for our priests and parish staff.
