24th Sunday in Ordinary Time

We need to get our bearings straight and properly lay life's cornerstone. Otherwise, the rest of our journey will be skewed, and our judgment clouded. We can recall Jesus' famous rebuke of Peter, "You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do." Even he, as one of Jesus' closest friends struggles with understanding things and grasping the big picture. Pierre Teilhard de Chardin (1881-1955) a renowned and learned French Jesuit priest often has these words attributed to him: "We are not human beings having a spiritual experience. We are spiritual beings having a human experience." Whether they were actually from his lips, they certainly mimic his thought. These wise words orient us and capture the essence of who we really are.

Many people consider spirituality an option. It is no wonder that they come to this conclusion when they predominantly define themselves using human terms and concepts. Immersed in this world view, they struggle finding any semblance of God because God does not work according to human expectations! This is especially true when suffering and death enter life's picture. If we are only human beings having a spiritual experience, then we wrongly expect our spirituality to serve us as we desire. The human expectation is that my spiritual life is something that is useful in avoiding pain, hardship, and death, not something that gives the courage to live through it!

So, when we protest and get upset with God because our journey is becoming difficult, painful, treacherous, disappointing, and even pointing us toward death, Jesus rebukes us as he did Peter and gently reminds us how to see. It is God who inspires and opens hearts to see truth and beauty. In God, the true meaning of things is understood, and we receive a depth of insight and understanding that is not found following purely human paths. It is not our task to understand God, as God is beyond human understanding. Ours is the joyful privilege of simply resting in God's presence simply because God is God and we are who we are. As spiritual beings having an exciting and adventurous human experience, it is in our DNA to do so. Through prayer we can let go and let be. This is how we lose our lives but then save them.

Praying Together

Eucharistic Adoration: Spend time in front of the Blessed Sacrament. Adoration at St. Mary Church is once again EVERY Thursday, from 5-7 PM. Stay for the whole time or drop by for only a few minutes.

Holy Hour: The next Holy Hour is Thursday, September 16, 9:00-10:00 AM at St. Patrick Church. Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, Rosary, & Benediction. All are invited.

Prayer Group: The Monday night prayer group with Joseph and Donna Guido meets at St. Patrick's from 7:00—8:30 pm. A face mask is required. Pray the Rosary, the Divine Mercy Chaplet, read and discuss the Sunday Gospel for the coming week and pray for personal intentions.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Rest in the presence of God simply because God is God and you are you. This is all that is necessary. Out of this relationship will come inspiration, understanding, courage, constancy, truth, and virtues of all kind. We will find ourselves knowing the true meaning of things and developing a depth of insight that is not found following purely human venues. It is God who inspires and opens human hearts to see truth and beauty. In God, we understand all of our relationships with a richer appreciation and come to know who Jesus, who speaks of God's kingdom, really is. The trust that is fostered from resting with the Divine One allows us to see that God's ways are not our ways. There is something bigger going on in this picture of life. It is something mystical and magical that seeks to surprise us at every turn. It is not for us to cling to this world and its limitations. Our adventure is to dream bigger and brighter, realizing that it is even in suffering that the radiant light of the dawn will come. God's ways allow for our paths to be rocky, challenging, difficult, and even crippling at times. Purely human eyes cannot understand the 'why' of such experiences. The eyes and mind of God, however, reveal and detail a journey that ends in glorious resurrection joy. When we lose our axis and become too human in our thinking, Jesus rebukes us and gently reminds us how to see.

Question of the Week - Reflect and Respond to Scripture

Gospel:

We hear today Jesus' definition of discipleship: "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me."

How well do you measure up to this definition of discipleship?

Question: My friend has never heard of Christ and I want to share the Gospel with her but I'm afraid to. How do I share my faith?

Answer:

There are a lot of ways to bring up the topic of religion, without being judgmental or pushy. Begin by asking what her thoughts are about religion, or what her experience was growing up. Finding common ground is often easier than you think, because the questions and problems we have about God, the presence of evil, our purpose in life, and our relationship with God are universal concerns.

Why are you afraid? If you do not want to insult or offend someone, don't be pushy or judgmental. If you are uncertain about how to explain your own faith, do a little reading or practice with a friend. If you measure success only by this person converting, focus your attention more on beginning the conversation, not on bringing it to a perfect close! Faith is a journey of many acts of belief, many discussions about God, and many choices about how we practice what we preach. In some we will have great success; in others we will need forgiveness and perseverance. The most important thing to keep in mind is that the Holy Spirit is always at work and our most humble efforts can bear great fruit. Have faith in God because he has faith in you!

St. Luke's Wishing Trees

As we head into September and the leaves on the trees outside turn beautiful colors, there will be colorful trees inside each of our churches as well. It is again the "Wishing Tree" season. The wishing trees are adorned with "leaves" which list items that are needed or desired for each church.

Some of the items are consumables or necessities like candles and cleaning supplies while others are bigger, like altar cloths or candle stands. But everything listed is something used to make our churches comfortable, inviting, beautiful places of worship.

The way they work: there's a label on each "leaf" envelope which lists the item and the cost associated. Some items can be purchased at any store and returned to the church. Other items must be ordered through the parish office. For those items, you can put the dollar amount in the envelope and return it in the collection basket or to the office. There is a variety of items listed and the donation or purchase of any of them will be helpful to our parish.

It has been two years since these trees were displayed in 2019 when we were blessed in that our trees "lost" nearly all their leaves and we were gifted with almost every wish expressed!
