We welcome into our Catholic community the following child of God:

Juliette Victoria Traynor28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

If we are truly in love with God, then the basics are not going to be enough. That love is going to want to be expressed in going above and beyond, in leaving the comfortable and familiar, in stretching and growing, and in following a voice other than our own. St. Teresa of Calcutta rightly instructs us that for “love to be real, it must cost, it must hurt, it must empty us of self.” Being in love with God requires more than just checking the boxes of the commandments. It requires a sincere and unconditional self-investment. Desiring God with our whole heart, mind, and soul means that I must also desire a relationship with my neighbor with that same degree of fervor.

Biases and prejudices usually occur when people are kept at a distance and treated as objects. We cannot truly know our neighbors, especially if they are different than us, if we keep them in boxes and do not listen to their stories. When we open ourselves to listen to another person’s story, we begin to realize more how similar we are than dissimilar. Being overly attached to our possessions, ideologies, agendas, lifestyles, and personal needs are absolute barriers to achieving the type of personal investment love demands. This is why following Christ can be difficult. It is less a matter of intellect and more a matter of heart and soul. It requires that we transfer our treasure from an investment in tangible secular things and move it into the Kingdom of God. It is only the gift of wisdom and discernment that can help us decide what to do and how to do it.

Contemporaries of Jesus would know that a camel could not enter through the portal of a city weighed down with the baggage it was carrying. In order to enter, the baggage must be removed so that the animal could fit through the entry way. The same is true for us. We carry a lot of excessive baggage around with us that keeps us tethered to our past histories, wounds, myopic world views, prejudices, fears, and suspicions. To invest ourselves in the Kingdom of God, do God’s work and live out our love relationship with God, we need to shed the extra weight. While it may seem that a lot of that stuff is necessary, it really is not. We are much more than the things that we think define us and more secure than we think.

The more there is to hold on to and the more that we carry with us, the harder it will be to leave it all behind. Many choose not to and walk away sad because they are not ready to trust.

Praying Together

Anointing

of the Sick

Anointing Mass will be Monday, October 18, 9:30 AM, at St. Mary Church, Geneseo (There will be no 8:00 AM Daily Mass that day). We invite anyone who needs healing and whose life is seriously threatened or altered due to any physical, mental, emotional, or age challenge. This includes serious physical infirmity, ongoing pain, upcoming surgery, accidents, addictions, depression, emotional problems or diseases. Also invited are those whose lives are challenged because they are the caregivers or family to those in need or healing.

For the rest of the congregation, it is our privilege to pray with and for all being anointed, asking God's healing for all of us and the whole world.

October Recitation of the Rosary: All churches of St. Luke's will have Recitation of the Rosary 30 minutes before Mass during the month of October. While the Rosary is being prayed, we ask that parishioners refrain from activity in respect of those reciting the Rosary.

Eucharistic Adoration: Spend time in front of the Blessed Sacrament. Adoration at St. Mary Church is once again EVERY Thursday, from 5-7 PM. Stay for the whole time or drop by for only a few minutes.

Holy Hour: The next Holy Hour is Thursday, October 21, 9:00-10:00 AM at St. Patrick Church. Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, Rosary, & Benediction. All are invited.

Prayer Group: The Monday night prayer group with Joseph and Donna Guido meets at St. Patrick's from 7:00—8:30 pm. A face mask is required. Pray the Rosary, the Divine Mercy Chaplet, read and discuss the Sunday Gospel for the coming week and pray for personal intentions.

Question of the Week - Reflect and Respond to Scripture

Gospel:

Jesus teaches the rich man and the disciples that while wealth can often hinder one from entering the kingdom of God, self-sacrifice and discipleship can earn eternal life. How well do you balance these realities in your life?

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Presumption can be a great sin. We can easily convince ourselves that as long as we do the bare minimum or master the basics, it is sufficient. Love doesn't operate this way. If we are truly in love with God, then the basics are not going to be enough. That love is going to want to get expressed in going above and beyond, in leaving the comfortable and familiar, in stretching and growing and in following a voice other than our own. This is what those who are truly in pursuit of wisdom come to realize. Just like any human relationship worth achieving reveals, we never reach a plateau in following the Gospel or growing in wisdom and holiness. Wisdom is the rudder that guides us through all of life's attractions and options. It alone determines what is worth pursuing and what must be left behind. That is why those who are only concerned about checking the boxes and doing the least amount possible often walk away sad when offered God's gift of life eternal. They are not truly in love.

Jesus, Savior, Lord, and Healer,
You offer the gift of yourself so we might know you and the healing that comes from being close to you.

In faith, we ask you to bring comfort and strength to those who are suffering and in need of healing, that they may be restored to the fullness of life.

For all who are suffering from illness or disease;

For all who have been wounded by hatred, prejudice, violence or abuse;

For all who have hardened their hearts, struggle with sin, and are in need of repentance;

For all who are weary, lonely, broken-hearted, and exhausted;

For all persons and situations in need of healing—especially members of my family and our parish.

Comfort and heal them, O God.

Help us live as people of the Eucharist, ever hopeful, witnessing to you and your healing mercy through our words and action.

Amen.

Supporting our Parishes and Getting a Tax Break

If you are over 70½ and required to take the Required Minimum Distribution (RMD) from your IRA accounts, the new tax law may change the way to make your gifts to our parishes. The gift from an IRA directly to a charity is called a Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD). If you use a QCD as opposed to a standard donation, you gain in several ways. The QCD counts toward the Required Minimum Distribution. In addition, and more importantly, the amount of the QCD does not count as income, thus lowering the adjusted gross income on which your taxes are based. The result is that for those over 70½ who have IRAs, the QCD provides a potential path toward significant tax savings.

For more information, contact your financial advisor or the bank that holds your IRA's. We encourage you to investigate this potential source of tax savings.

St. Teresa of Ávila | Feast Day October 15

St. Teresa of Ávila (1515-1582) was a Spanish Carmelite nun who lived in the 16th century. She was a mystic and author of spiritual writings and poems. The originator of the Carmelite Reform, she founded numerous convents throughout Spain and restored a contemplative life to the order. She became well known for the mystical experiences, many of which she described in her autobiography.

The first of only four women to be named a Doctor of the Church, St. Teresa's ascetic doctrine and Carmelite reforms shaped Roman Catholic contemplative life, and her writings on the Christian soul's journey to God are considered works of art. Her writings, especially the "Way of Perfection" and "The Interior Castle," have helped generations of believers.

St. Teresa of Avila died on Oct. 15, 1582. She was canonized on March 22, 1622, along with three of her greatest contemporaries: St. Ignatius Loyola, St. Francis Xavier, and St. Philip Neri.
