"What do you wish me to do for you?" Whether we realize it, this is a question God is always asking. It's an important question because the answer we provide will reveal a great deal about where our hearts lie. Our requests of God can often appear very noble and altruistic. They consist of requests for healing for someone in need of prayers, successful resolution of a personal conflict, assistance in overcoming a disease and myriad other desires for both ourselves and others. We are especially concerned about those we love and can easily find ourselves bringing their struggles to God for a hearing in our prayer.

Is that really all that prayer is about? The woman in today's Gospel, having been put in her place by Jesus, was only looking out for the wellbeing of her sons. She was doing what mothers do, protecting and securing the livelihood of her children. But she was sadly mistaken, her request was not granted. We all make this same misguided mistake from time to time. The goal of prayer is not to convince God of the worthiness of our agenda or to gain a hearing. Sometimes we believe that the more we multiply our prayers or discover the right combination of supplications that we will receive more of God's attention. That's not how it works. Even though God desires to hear, know, and be an intimate part of what is on our minds, it goes much deeper.

What we need from God is a relationship. It's a relationship that guides and immerses us in the very stuff of life and in the direction of the Gospel. This relationship sees God's kingdom and agenda, not our own, as what is most important. It builds the strength of character necessary to bring God's Gospel into a world that may not receive it with open arms. It may cause us discomfort and suffering. We are asked to heroically journey with God through suffering, hardship, ridicule, and even death! Ultimately, our desire from God must become our desire for God. It is only when this happens that the powerful words "thy will be done" will be found with sincerity and humility on our lips. Whatever God wishes becomes what we wish as we see this glorious union of wills. Our humble lives will then become powerful witnesses, and what happens to us in God's eternal kingdom the result of his mercy. We become true servants and find ourselves discovering God's definition of success. That definition has nothing at all to do with status, income, or privilege.

Praying Together

Anointing

of the Sick

Anointing Mass will be Monday, October 18, 9:30 AM, at St. Mary Church, Geneseo (There will be no 8:00 AM Daily Mass that day). We invite anyone who needs healing and whose life is seriously threatened or altered due to any physical, mental, emotional, or age challenge. This includes serious physical infirmity, ongoing pain, upcoming surgery, accidents, addictions, depression, emotional problems or diseases. Also invited are those whose lives are challenged because they are the caregivers or family to those in need or healing.

For the rest of the congregation, it is our privilege to pray with and for all being anointed, asking God's healing for all of us and the whole world.

October Recitation of the Rosary: All churches of St. Luke's will have Recitation of the Rosary 30 minutes before Mass during the month of October. While the Rosary is being prayed, we ask that parishioners refrain from activity in respect of those reciting the Rosary.

Eucharistic Adoration: Spend time in front of the Blessed Sacrament. Adoration at St. Mary Church is once again EVERY Thursday, from 5-7 PM. Stay for the whole time or drop by for only a few minutes.

Holy Hour: The next Holy Hour is Thursday, October 21, 9:00-10:00 AM at St. Patrick Church. Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, Rosary, & Benediction. All are invited.

Prayer Group: The Monday night prayer group with Joseph and Donna Guido meets at St. Patrick's from 7:00—8:30 pm. A face mask is required. Pray the Rosary, the Divine Mercy Chaplet, read and discuss the Sunday Gospel for the coming week and pray for personal intentions.

Question of the Week - Reflect and Respond to Scripture

Gospel:

Jesus uses the request of James and John as a teachable moment for his disciples on the importance of humility and service to others.

What other qualities do you think are necessary for true discipleship?

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

It's the positions of power and great authority that people often admire. We equate success with six figure incomes, high positions, management, and influence. We even go above and beyond to find favor with our bosses so that we can get a little extra recognition and maybe the next promotion when it comes up. This is the way of the world. Those who have their values set on earthly things are going to work by earthly rules. We forget that it doesn't work that way in the Kingdom of God. Success is measured not from the place of status, influence, or prestige but from the place of humility, service, and sacrifice. The authority that one hopes to achieve is not an authority over others but an authority that comes from wisdom and developing one's relationship with God. Jesus flips the tables on our priorities. Even the first disciples had a tough time understanding this. They really thought that they would somehow receive a privilege or bonus from being faithful. We often operate under that same illusion.

Jesus, Savior, Lord, and Healer,
You offer the gift of yourself so we might know you and the healing that comes from being close to you.

In faith, we ask you to bring comfort and strength to those who are suffering and in need of healing, that they may be restored to the fullness of life.

For all who are suffering from illness or disease;

For all who have been wounded by hatred, prejudice, violence or abuse;

For all who have hardened their hearts, struggle with sin, and are in need of repentance;

For all who are weary, lonely, broken-hearted, and exhausted;

For all persons and situations in need of healing—especially members of my family and our parish.

Comfort and heal them, O God.

Help us live as people of the Eucharist, ever hopeful, witnessing to you and your healing mercy through our words and action.

Amen.

Stewardship

My church is composed of people like me.
 I help make it what it is.
 It will be friendly, if I am.
 Its pews will be filled, if I help fill them.
 It will do great work, if I work.
 It will make generous gifts to many causes,
 if I am a generous giver.
 It will bring other people into its worship and fellowship,
 if I invite and bring them.
 It will be a church of loyalty and love,
 of fearlessness and faith,
 and a church with a noble spirit,
 if I, who make it what it is,
 am filled with these same things.
 Therefore, with the help of God,
 I shall dedicate myself to the task of being all the things that I want my church to be.

St. John Paul II | Feast Day October 22

St. John Paul II was born Karol Wojtyla in the small Polish town of Wadowice. During World War II, when the Nazis invaded Poland, Karol secretly studied for the priesthood in an underground seminary. He was ordained to the priesthood in 1946, appointed Archbishop of Krakow in 1964, and three years later he was made a cardinal. In 1978, he was elected the 264th pope, where he took the name John Paul II.

St. John Paul II made evangelization a key part of his papacy and made pastoral visits to all parts of the world. In 1981, he was shot twice in an assassination attempt. Following Jesus' example of compassion, he later met with his would-be assassin in his prison cell, where he forgave him for what he had done.

St. John Paul II was well-known to be an active sportsman throughout his life, hiking and skiing well into his 60s. In 1992, his health began to decline, and it was later discovered that he suffered from Parkinson's disease, a degenerative disorder of the central nervous system.

Near the end of his papacy, it became difficult for him to speak, and his poor health and physical suffering made public appearances difficult. Still, he continued his pastoral work. He died April 2, 2005, and he was declared blessed on May 1, 2011. He became a saint on April 27, 2014.
