*Merry ChristmasLIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Merry Christmas! There is something sacred about sun when it dances upon a field of newly iced snow. Lights and colors bounce around in myriad ways flashing prisms of beauty as if in tune with the rhythm of a melodic dance. The Word became flesh and now dwells among us. Humanity can now dance. We sparkle with the beauty and radiance of God and can now walk through life with confidence knowing that we have been divinely kissed. It is a sacred moment, a holy marriage between God and His sons and daughters. All is bright and all is well. Today we celebrate who we are in Christ and rest safely in God's care. God's presence, revealed in the humble birth of His Son, dances in our hearts, calling us to beauty, truth, purpose, and love. Today we know, without doubt, that we are not the product of the rambling offerings of a universe that created itself. We are loved, treasured, and blessed. We have a Savior who can show us the way. Accept him.

The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph

Families can be very difficult things to negotiate. This is true not only of our families of origin, the current family of which we are a part, the family of our Church, our society, and our global family as well. Everything human can be found in family stories. Those stories speak of wonderful life-giving successes as well as painful spirit-robbing abuses. Our greatest joys and our greatest wounds are usually connected with the experience of family. Our needs, experiences, and unresolved baggage often color what we bring to our familiar relationships. They contribute to our level of defensiveness, how guarded and protected we become, and what prejudices we believe.

In order to break the cycle of dysfunction we have to remember that it is not only by human effort that we negotiate the difficult and challenging events of our lives. There is a Divine Effort at work as well. For sure, the human effort can create quite a mess and easily destroy lives. This is true of any family with which we are associated. Today's Feast of the Holy Family serves to help us understand that there is a Divine Story being told as well. It is a story of perseverance in the face of hardship, determination in the face of despair, healing when we see nothing but wounds, and light where there is darkness.

Do we believe that God is always working, guiding, restoring, and leading? Unless we do, we will never be free from the imperfections and wounds that bind us and never be able to understand what it really means to forgive. Pope Francis tells us that the "light which comes from the Holy Family encourages us to offer human warmth to other families." While this is most certainly true, we can only really begin to do this when we realize that we are still works in progress, not anchored to the wounds and sins of our past, and still a leading star in God's continually unfolding story of love. The Holy Family persevered and radiated warmth because they knew they were not alone. We can too. ©LPi

O Come Let Us Adore Him: Get away from the busyness of this season and sit quietly in order to hear God’s voice. Eucharistic Adoration at St. Mary’s Church is Thursday, December 30, from 5:00—7:00 PM.

Holy Hour: The next Holy Hour is Thursday, January 20, 9:00-10:00 AM at St. Patrick Church. Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, Rosary, & Benediction. All are invited.

Prayer Group: The Monday night prayer group with Joseph and Donna Guido meets at St. Patrick’s from 7:00—8:30 pm. A face mask is required. Pray the Rosary, the Divine Mercy Chaplet, read and discuss the Sunday Gospel for the coming week and pray for personal intentions.

Question of the Week - Reflect and Respond to Scripture

Gospel:

Luke is the only Evangelist to preserve a story about Jesus from his youth. In this account, Mary and Joseph are filled with “great anxiety” as they searched for Jesus who they thought was lost. How do you seek God’s help for the anxious moments in your family?

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

It was the best of times and it was the worst of times. Our families can bring out the best and the worst in us. This is true of our families of origin, the current family of which we are a part, the family of our church, our society, and the like. In all of our family experiences, what stands out as our most challenging memory? Everything human can be found on the pages of family life. But there is also a Divine story to be discovered as well. When life gets difficult and perplexing, today’s Feast of the Holy Family stands to remind us that it is not just by human effort that we tread treacherous waters. We have to remember and learn from the Divine effort too. We need this perspective if our love lessons are going to be learned completely and well. We are all works in progress and we all come from homes that are broken by imperfection. In whatever life brings us and in whatever family we find ourselves, may the promptings we feel toward faith and hope lead us to greater love.

Parish Life

The Parish Office will be closed Friday, December 31. Happy New Year.

2022 Calendars are available in the church entrances. We thank Rector Hicks Funeral Home and John Martin Funeral Home for their sponsorship.

Save the Dates: St. Luke's Men's Retreat at Notre Dame Retreat House will be February 25-27. Contact David Dwyer at 243-3062 for information. Because of Covid, attendance is limited to 50 people. St. Luke's Women's Retreat at Notre Dame Retreat House will be March 11-13.

All in the Family

At first glance, we can often find the image of the Blessed Mother, St. Joseph and the Christ Child intimidating — who are we to aspire to that level of discipleship? How could we ever hope to conform ourselves to that mold? Sometimes, it can even be painful — perhaps we hail from a broken family or struggle with a broken relationship within our family, or perhaps we long to be a mother or a father ourselves and that state in life has eluded us.

But the image of the Holy Family is, in reality, a beautiful invitation to us all, no matter our vocation or our state in life, and the example of Mary, Joseph and Jesus is rich with the symbolism of stewardship.

You need not be a biological mother who has carried a child in her womb to be a mother in spirit. Who in your world needs you to love them with the heart of a mother?

The same goes for fatherhood. The Church and the world are crying out for the courageous witness of Christian men like St. Joseph. Who can you love with the steadfast, selfless protection of a father?

Who in your life needs you to love them with the faithful, unconditional love of a son? Who needs your gentle and constant love as a daughter?

We are the Body of Christ, friends. Those of us rejoicing in heaven, those of us suffering in purgatory, and those of us struggling here on earth. We are the great family. Let us love each other well.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Stewardship

In Appreciation

Thank you to everyone involved who helped make the Christmas celebrations throughout St. Luke the Evangelist Parish so wonderful ... Fr. Dan, Fr. Sylvester ... those who decorated and prepared our churches ... the musicians and vocalists who sang so beautifully ... and all who served as ministers at the various Masses in so many different capacities.

Thank you to all who have volunteered to clean our churches each week. Your help is so greatly appreciated.

St. Luke's Cemeteries

What a blessing it is that St. Luke's Parish has two different, beautiful and unique cemeteries to choose from. Beginning January 1, 2022, there will be a new price list that will be used by both cemeteries. You might ask, why change? Why have one set of prices instead of two?

Answer –

- This new pricing schedule for use by both cemeteries in St. Luke's Parish makes it easier for local Funeral Directors and you as parishioners – it eliminates questions as to why the prices are not the same.
- A single structure for both parish cemeteries with one set of prices, rather than two, makes it easier on the parish Business Manager when entering financials and on the Cemetery Manager when quoting costs for each of the cemeteries.

How the new price list was derived:

- Time was taken to look at not only both of the cemetery's current pricing structures but also those of other cemeteries in our diocese and communities with input from the Cemetery Advisory Committees, the parish Finance Chair, the Diocesan Director of Cemeteries and Fr. Dan before the pricing was set.
- Both cemeteries will incur changes in pricing such as: reduced, removed or new costs; and an increase in some prices (it has been 2 years since a price increase for St. Patrick's Cemetery and 3 years for St. Mary's Cemetery). Our new pricing is not the lowest in the Diocese, but it is not the highest either.

If you have been thinking about purchasing a Right of Burial in either of our Parish Cemeteries and wish to do so prior to the new prices taking effect, please contact Rebecca Lawrence, Cemeteries Manager by December 27, 2021.
