Congratulations to Regina Cucchiara who will receive the Hands of Christ Award at a celebration with Bishop Matano in early February. The Hands of Christ is a recognition given to high school seniors in the Diocese of Rochester who have demonstrated a life of service, faith and Catholic example in their parish.

This made me start thinking about hands. Lend a hand...he needs a handout...a helping hand...hands off...she wore hand-me-downs...raise your hand to volunteer...he was open-handed...evenhanded...underhanded...handy...many hands make light work...and many more!

Our hands, those perfect signs of human activity, express so many actions and attitudes. Hands have the potential for good and evil; they can do wonderful or even terrible things. There is so much difference in a fist closed in anger from an open hand, a sign of trust and giving.

Hands joined palm to palm, with fingers pointing skyward like a church spire, are a worldwide sign of prayer. Extended forward, palms up and open, hands signify prayerful receptiveness to blessings from God, and readiness to share gifts with others.

Hands can express human warmth, friendliness, comfort, love and forgiveness. Think of hands waved in greeting, high fives, gentle pats on the shoulders, a squeeze of support, tucking us in at night. A bride gives her hand in marriage. Enemies shake hands and make up. Our hands so often demonstrate our human feelings.

And during these cold days of January, we need to protect our hands with gloves and lotion. And if you have any extra gloves, you can "lend a hand" to those who are cold, homeless, or hungry (not only with warm gloves, but possibly soup to the food pantries).

So, think about the wonderful gift of our hands, and the many ways we communicate with our hands what is in our hearts and minds. Remember that Jesus was raised to sit at the right hand of God, calling us to be Hands of Christ in the world.

Thank you, God for our hands. Bless our hands that they may be guided by love and wisdom.

Question of the Week - Reflect and Respond to Scripture

Gospel:

Today's reading contains both the opening prologue to the Gospel of Luke and the initial reaction to Jesus' return to his hometown of Nazareth. Luke is the only Evangelist to provide us with a prologue outlining his motivation to write his Gospel.

What details do you find most interesting from Luke's prologue?

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

People can easily lose a sense of the sacred and transcendent. When we lose a sense of God's special presence, we need to be brought back. Ezra brought people back to the word of God and they realized what they were missing. Jesus proclaims God's word in the synagogue with true conviction and tells those gathered that he is the fulfillment of all that Isaiah taught. Even though people get lost, distracted, discouraged, and often journey down the wrong path, God's timeless law remains. When we allow ourselves to truly hear God's word and act on it, that living word slowly, over time, changes us. It has the power to soften and mold us, creating within us a joyful spirit. We realize the truth in what God speaks and become open to God's love. Gradually and gently God leads us back where we belong. We discover again the sacred character of life and the wonder of God's power. It is no wonder that Luke addresses his remarks to Theophilus. It is a name that means "beloved of God," a name that can be used by anyone who desires friendship with God.

St. Thomas Aquinas | January 28

One of the most famous members of the Dominican Order, St. Thomas Aquinas (1225 – 1274) is well-known by many for his theological work, "The Summa Theologiae." Born in Italy, his mother wanted him to become a Benedictine and had high hopes that he would eventually become abbot of Monte Cassino, where he spent much of his youth. To change his vocation, she had him kidnapped by his brothers on his way to Paris at the age of 19.

He spent two years in their captivity. Despite this, nothing could shake him from his vocation to become a Dominican priest and he was eventually released. Once free, he went to Paris and then to Cologne, where he finished his studies with Albert the Great.

His greatest contribution to the Catholic Church is his writings. The unity, harmony, and continuity of faith and reason, of revealed and natural human knowledge, encompasses his writings. The Summa Theologiae, his last and, unfortunately, uncompleted work, deals with the whole of Catholic theology.

The patron saint of teachers, theologians and students, St. Thomas Aquinas died in 1274. His life and the impact he had on the whole Church, however, remains alive today. Lpi

Stewardship

My church is composed of people like me.
 I help make it what it is.
 It will be friendly, if I am.
 Its pews will be filled, if I help fill them.
 It will do great work, if I work.
 It will make generous gifts to many causes,
 if I am a generous giver.
 It will bring other people into its worship and fellowship,
 if I invite and bring them.
 It will be a church of loyalty and love,
 of fearlessness and faith,
 and a church with a noble spirit,
 if I, who make it what it is,
 am filled with these same things.
 Therefore, with the help of God,
 I shall dedicate myself to the task of being all the things that I want my church to be.
