From the Corner Office

Dear Friends,

I am away of vacation and so I thought for a couple weekends I would address, once again, some basics of the moral and Catholic Social Teachings. I am doing so in response to suggestions of some parishioners.

As you know these teachings are presently hanging in banner form in our worship space. I write these articles with the help of our Church's document entitled the Pastoral Constitution on the Church in the Modern World and an article from the National Catholic Report by Jessie Bazan.

Please continue to pray and act for peace in our world!

In peace and courage,

Fr. Mike

SOME BASICS OF CATHOLIC MORAL and SOCIAL TEACHING

Part 1

Catholic social teaching is rooted in the biblical belief that all people are created in the image of God—and should be able to live as such. There are rights and responsibilities that need to be upheld in order for everyone's dignity to be respected. The teachings call forth the Lord's demand for justice for the poor and vulnerable from the Old Testament. It also puts Christ's criteria for the final judgment front and center: Feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, clothe the naked, welcome the stranger, and visit the sick and imprisoned.

The term Catholic social teaching refers to the body of doctrine created by the church to help apply the teachings of Jesus Christ to the modern world. It serves as the moral compass for justice issues related to economic, social, and political life.

Catholic social teaching emerged in a formal way with the rise of modernity, when Christian values no longer dominated societal thought. Church leaders began to lay out church social teaching in published encyclicals and pastoral documents, beginning with Rerum Novarum (On Capital and Labor), written by Pope Leo XIII in 1891. The most recent Catholic social teaching document is Pope Francis' encyclical Laudato Si' (On Care for Our Common Home).

The social teachings of the church grow and develop over time, as do the ways people live them out.

Life and dignity of the human person - God created humanity in God's own image and likeness (Gen. 1:27). As God's beloved creation, we—all people—have dignity that's inherent to our human person. Nothing and no one can take our dignity away. The principle of human dignity is the foundation for all Catholic social teaching. It affirms the sacredness of every person, recognizing that within our different abilities and backgrounds we share a common humanity and a common brokenness.

Human dignity must be respected always. Catholic social teaching is clear: "Every type of discrimination, whether social or cultural, whether based on sex, race, color, social condition, language or religion, is to be overcome and eradicated as contrary to God's intent" (Pastoral Constitution on the Church in the Modern World).

Call to family, community, and participation - We all have abilities to make a difference. Catholic social teaching demands we use our gifts to better the common good—the good that comes when all in society can live fulfilled lives.

The authors of the Pastoral Constitution note, "Citizens, for their part, should remember that they have the right and the duty to contribute according to their ability to the true progress of their community." By our participating in the community through work, parish involvement, political action, and family life, we take responsibility for our development as individuals and society.

Rights and responsibilities - Society acknowledges human dignity by ensuring people have the rights to live dignified lives (Justice in the World). This includes rights to food, clothing, shelter, rest, medical care, and economic security in times of hardship (Peace on Earth).

Catholics view such rights in the context of community. Individuals contribute to the common good when they can live out their callings to the fullest. It is hard to make the world a better place on an empty stomach or without a place to sleep. We are responsible for helping one another flourish.

Option for the poor and vulnerable - Jesus proclaimed, "Blessed are the poor, for yours is the kingdom of God." Following his message, Catholic social teaching asserts whenever we are given a choice, we should choose the option that best serves those people in greatest need.

In his apostolic letter The Eightieth Anniversary of Rerum Novarum, Pope Paul VI looks beyond charity and urges society to address the larger systemic issues that perpetuate poverty so that people in poverty will not be in their situations forever. Further, the synod of bishops notes in Justitia in Mundo that it is the church's responsibility to promote justice and fight against injustices. They say the church must be a church of the poor. Pope Francis continues to preach this message today.

It is important that all of us move these teaching from concept to reality. Perhaps start with one or two concrete ways you can honor human dignity and better the common good. Together we will bring forth the kingdom of God one step at a time.

Father in Heaven,

who brings together new relationships,
new opportunities and new challenges
as a way to deepen our bond with you, bless the people of the Church of the Transfiguration and Saint Catherine of Siena, to enter joyfully into such experiences as our communities seek a new chapter in our shared life of mission and ministry.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ,
Who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, One God, now and forever.

AMEN.

U.N. Nuclear Weapons Treaty Becomes Law

On Friday January 22, 2021, the United Nations' Treaty on the Prohibition of Nuclear Weapons came into force. This accord was approved by 122 members of the U.N. General Assembly in 2017, and has recently been ratified by the legislature of the 50th member country, so it will now become international law.

The treaty declares that the countries ratifying it must “never under any circumstance develop, test, produce, manufacture or otherwise acquire, possess or stockpile nuclear weapons or other nuclear explosive devices.”

However, the main nuclear powers of the United States, the United Kingdom, Russia, China, and France have not signed the accord.

For decades, our Church maintained a posture of “moral acceptance” of nuclear deterrence, accompanied by an aspiration for a world without nuclear weapons. However, in 2017, Pope Francis dramatically shifted the moral paradigm and language around nuclear weapons, stating “the threat of their use [nuclear weapons], as well as their very possession, is to be firmly condemned.”

At Hiroshima in 2019, the Pope reiterated: “the use of atomic energy for purposes of war is today, more than ever, a crime not only against the dignity of human beings but against any possible future for our common home.”

At Nagasaki on the same day, he said: “Convinced as I am that a world without nuclear weapons is possible and necessary, I ask political leaders not to forget that these weapons cannot protect us from current threats to national and international security. We need to ponder the catastrophic impact of their deployment, especially from a humanitarian and environmental standpoint, and reject heightening a climate of fear, mistrust, and hostility fomented by nuclear doctrines.”

Nuclear weapons are an existential threat to all life on this planet. We are called by faith to actively campaign for genuine nuclear disarmament, while promoting processes for non-violent resolution of international conflicts.

Nourish New York

The Diocese of Rochester is petitioning our State leaders to continue funding the NOURISH NEW YORK program with $50 million for State fiscal year 2021 - 2022. Begun in the pandemic (but expiring December 31, 2020), this much-needed program provides a lifeline for food-insecure families and for struggling farmers, fisheries, and food processors across the State.

Meatless
Monday

Dear Parishioner of Transfiguration,

We were so worried this year because of the Covid epidemic we would have nothing to give our poor families this Christmas. It seemed inconceivable that so many people would have nothing with which to celebrate Christ's birthday.

We were wrong! How wonderful you were! So many gifts—so much food and many gift cards! So many happy families. 97 total (144 adults and 295 children) Since Christmas we have helped approximately 25 more families. What a blessing you all are! How proud of you God must be that you honored His birth with love not only of him but also His needy children!

May he bless you in return with the warmth of His love and keep you safe and well,

The Grace of Les Miserables

How would you like to have a supporting role in Les Miserables?

Join us in this six week Lenten Program and discover "The Grace of Les Miserables." We will be using the book and video by Matt Rawle, a lead pastor from Asbury United Methodist Church in Bossier City, Louisiana. He is an international speaker that loves to tell an old story in a new way. Victor Hugo's Les Miserables is a masterpiece. Although you might not find it in the Christian section of your local bookstore or digital reader, Hugo's story is steeped in Christian imagery and ethics. Hugo challenges us to wrestle with the nature of grace, the fault of unwavering justice, the tragedy of poverty, the victory of love, the struggle for justice, and ultimately hope. The story is built around the life of the redeemed criminal, Jean Valjean, and his quest to discover the peace of God's grace. His story is not unlike our own. We, too, struggle with making holy choices, wrestle with poverty and injustice, and how to share love with a world in desperate need of hope.

ORGAN DONATION DISCUSSION

There is a tremendous need for organ donation in this country. Currently, over 113,000 men, women and children are waiting for an organ nationally, while in New York State alone over 9,000 people are awaiting a new organ.

One person gets added to the transplant wait list every 10 minutes and on average 22 people die each day because the organ they need is not available. There is a lot of misinformation about donation.

Because of this and the above mentioned shortages, staff from the Finger Lakes Donor Recovery Network (FLDRN), the local donate life organization, has been invited to speak to Transfiguration parishioners.

Mary Jane Milano, community development manager, FLDRN, will provide a presentation on a zoom call on Thursday February 4th from 6:30 – 7:30 pm. If interested in registering for the presentation email Mary Jane at MaryJane\_Milano@urmc.rochester.edu.

Faith Formation Update

Need Prayer? Don't Know Where to Start?
Check out our Prayer Playlist Hub
on our Website

<https://www.transfigurationpittsford.org/formation-playlists>

A Prayer Playlist is a menu of micro-experiences to help support you in your daily personal prayer. Each monthly Playlist connects to a theme and includes links to Scripture passages, songs to pray with, blog articles, journal prompts, hands-on activities, podcasts, etc. The idea is to put prayer tools right in your hands (literally – on your phone!), so that you can find it easier to spend a few minutes with God each day. Try spending just 5 minutes a day with the monthly playlist to start growing your habit of daily prayer.

The February Prayer Playlists are here!

God made you out of love, and God made you for love. Sometimes, it's very hard for us to believe that God loves us unconditionally, totally, completely, no matter what. The offerings below will help you receive God's unimaginable love for you. Our love for each other reflects God's love for us. As God loves us, we are called to share that love with others.

Remember to wear your mask, keep your distance, and stay home if you feel sick or might have been exposed.
- We will continue to have our bonus senior high youth group meetings on the following nights from 7-8:30 in Church: 1/26, 2/2, 2/23.
- Confirmation candidates, please remember your next assignment is due Feb. 1, as are any outstanding assignments you have yet to turn in. Year Two candidates, most of you still need to turn in your Confirmation Name/Sponsor form.

I hope you all enjoy the snow now that winter seems to have finally arrived, and remember to take some time every day for quiet prayer with God.

Peace,
Anne
