GOSPEL MEDITATIONFebruary 2, 2025*Presentation of the Lord*Luke 2:22-40

What is the secret to sharing in God's power to overcome our difficulties? Mary teaches us this in the prophecy of her pierced heart. This Sunday, the old man Simeon prophesies that when her son faces opposition, Mary's soul will be pierced by a sword. The seemingly pointless agony of a mother helplessly watching her son be mocked, tortured, killed and then cruelly desecrated in death by a spear — somehow this piercing of her heart releases a power by which "the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed" (Luke 2:35). What to make of this?

Whatever problems we currently face, the deepest threat is finally that evil thoughts are hidden in the human heart: hatred, envy, pride, lust, greed and so on. Behind every tyrant's injustice, for example, is a heart unpierced by love. Evil hides in our hearts. Mary's pierced heart, and its suffering love for her son, reveals and scatters these evil thoughts, and replaces them with love, forgiveness, generosity and peace.

This week, I invite us to ponder Mary's pierced heart. Her heart is quietly at work for us in the Church and world, exposing our evil thoughts and making a path for her son's divine love. This is how she gently cooperates in our salvation. Closed hearts are our biggest problem; love-pierced hearts are the ultimate power to overcome every difficulty.

— Father John Muir

Tylko do owej wdowy — Dariusz Madejczyk

Wiadomości z pierwszych stron gazet i czołówki informacji telewizyjnych nauczyły nas zwracać uwagę na VIP-ów, tzw. wielkich tego świata, wpływowych, którzy mają władzę lub pieniądze (albo mają władzę, bo mają pieniądze). Biblia też ma swoje VIP-y: ubogą wdowę z Sarepty Sydońskiej i trędowatego Naamana. Historia najbardziej znanych sanktuariów maryjnych to, w bardzo wielkim uproszczeniu, historia człowieka prostego, ubogiego, często dziecka, które, ku zdziwieniu wszystkich, staje się głosem Bożym i znakiem nadziei. Tak było w przypadku bł. Juana Diego z Guadelupe, św. Bernadety, bł. Franciszka i Hiacynty z Fatimy czy dzieci z La Salette.

Te przesłania, które miały poruszyć serce, rozpalic wiarę, przypomnieć wezwanie do nawrócenia, przychodziły w sposób zaskakujący i w miejscach zupełnie nic nieznaczących.

Tekst Ewangelii Łukasza nawiązuje dziś do wydarzeń starotestamentalnych, które pokazują, że Bóg wybiera ludzi w sposób sobie tylko wiadomy. Można by wręcz powiedzieć: wybiera jakby na przekór ludzkim oczekiwaniom. Czasami nawet - jak w przypadku dzieci z La Salette, które pochodziły z rodzin religijnie zaniedbanych - w duchu Pawiowych słów: „gdzie jednak wzmógł się grzech, tam jeszcze obficie rozlała się łaska” (Rz 5,20). Gdy wszyscy zwracają się ku określonym osobom, są zapatrzeni w spektakularne wydarzenia, Bóg przychodzi swoimi drogami i daje się poznać ludziom, na których nikt nie zwraca uwagi; przychodzi w sposób zupełnie nieoczekiwany, a nawet budzący wiele wątpliwości. Dla Niego bowiem każdy człowiek jest „bardzo ważną osobą” - VIP-em (very important person). Chociaż zalewa nas fala czasopism, które chcą przyciągnąć uwagę czytelników scenkami z życia aktorów, muzyków czy polityków, a telewizja promuje pożałowania godnych idoli, starajmy się ugruntować w sobie Dobrą Nowinę o Bogu, który kocha każdego człowieka i który pierwszych czyni ostatnimi, a ostatnich pierwszymi. Logika kolorowych czasopism, czarujących scenkami z prywatnego życia znanych ludzi, nie jest logiką Ewangelii, w której „Bóg wybrał właśnie to, co głupie w oczach świata, aby zawstydić mędrców, wybrał to, co niemocne, aby mocnych poniżyć” (1 Kor 1,27).

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTSBy Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Mini Reflection: The oldest trick of the devil is to distract us from thinking about our hearts. It's not hard for him to do — there are so many other things we could be doing. So, do we have the courage to look to our own hearts, to come face to face with our own choices, our own true selves?

The Thoughts of Many Hearts

When Simeon cradles the infant Messiah in his arms, he speaks of salvation and glory and revelation. He speaks of his own death. He speaks of the fulfillment of God's promise to all people.

But most memorable, in my opinion, are his words about the hearts of men. This Child, he says, will be the way "the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed."

Perhaps you're like me. Perhaps you don't enjoy scrutinizing yourself, your actions, your intentions. You don't like reflecting on why you feel or react the way you do, and you really don't enjoy measuring those feelings and reactions against what you know they could be.

It's exhausting to sit with God, your heart in your hands, both of us looking at it, talking about it. So far too often, I opt out.

The oldest trick of the devil, you see, is to distract us from thinking about our hearts. It's not hard for him to do. There are so many other things I could be doing, after all. Answering emails. Catching up on laundry. Scrolling Facebook. Worrying about inflation and the election. Stressing about my kid's dance recital and next week's busy schedule.

But where is God truly at work? Where is the place God will point to, when my life on Earth has come to its close?

It is the very depths of my heart. The place where I am my most authentic self, for better or worse. The place where all my pretensions crumble away, and I am alone with the truth of who I am and what I choose to do.

Am I brave enough to look into the depths of my own heart?

Have you been looking for a new way to serve the Lord in the Jubilee Year?

A friendly face can make all the difference. The liturgy Committee is hoping to bring back the Sunday Greeters Ministry at both the 8:45 am. and the 11:15 am. masses.

Greeting worshippers with a smile, handing out bulletins, and helping folks off the elevator are a few of the duties that reinforce our sense of community, particularly for parishioners who struggle to enter the Church.

Please contact Joyce Nagle at 585-467-3068 or at Joyce.Nagle@dor.org to volunteer.
Thank you.
