Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

✍️ FROM FATHER FRANK'S DESK ✍️

What a wonderful day it is today. This is the day 7 members of our faith receive Jesus for the first time. How many in the parish can remember their first time receiving our Lord in the Eucharist? This is one of three of the initiation sacraments: Baptism, Eucharist, and Confirmation. And what a day to remember, it's always a blessing to remember and share the days of your initiation sacraments. I did a little investigating for my own initiation sacraments a few years ago and discovered that my first communion and confirmation were on the same day May 3rd but different years. How cool is that? When the Feast day of St. Philip and St. James come I recall those special days. Those receiving first communion today have a special Saint, St. Francis whose feast day is always October 4th. As they receive today I invite everyone to try and recall your first reception of communion. For those receiving today for the first time I ask that the Lord bless you on such a special day and pray that you never forget the first time you received our Lord.

Congratulations to Emma Arndt, Alexis Hope Burr, George Jeffrey Burr, Brandon Crosby, Olivia Enderle, Megan Raymond, and Mckenna Spencer

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AWARENESS

MONTH: Resources to promote family peace

October is Domestic Violence Awareness Month. Even before the added stress and isolation of COVID-19, one in four women and one in nine men experienced severe intimate partner physical violence, as reported by the National Coalition Against Domestic Violence. Domestic abuse and violence refer to the physical, sexual, or psychological harm by a current or former partner or spouse including teen relationships. Faith communities are called to offer hope, help, and healing to all harmed by domestic abuse and violence. We must learn to recognize domestic abuse, respond with compassion, and refer people to the proper services that are prepared to help them.

Catholics for Family Peace Education and Research on Domestic Abuse is offering ways to promote family peace, respond to domestic abuse, promote prayer for families and provide resources. To learn more, please

We are happy to welcome JoAnn St. Croix to our office team at Sacred Heart. She will begin training this week to replace Sandy Faylo as Business Manager. Sandy is retiring after seven years in that position. She will be leaving by the end of the year to spend more time with her family. We are blessed to have such a "totally qualified" person as JoAnn.

Please leave your kneeler down when leaving the church. This will tell us which pews to clean before the next mass. Volunteers needed after each mass to help spray the pews. Spray can be found in Dostie Hall.

Thank You So Much ♥
