A Message from Our Pastor

This week, we celebrate the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord (Feb. 2nd), when Mary and Joseph brought Jesus to the Temple. There, they meet Simeon and Anna, who recognize the unique destiny of the child. This is a good time for us to recognize and encourage the gifts of all the young people in our Churches. We can also pray for many of them to be open to the possibility that God may be calling them to a vocation as an ordained priest, consecrated religious or lay minister.

Next weekend at all our Masses, we will have the Blessing of Throats in commemoration of St. Blaise, Bishop and Martyr. St. Blaise is associated with the healing of throats. He was one of the early martyrs known as the Fourteen Holy Helpers invoked against various diseases. Although we know very little of St. Blaise's life, he is reputed to have been a doctor who healed a boy choking on a fish bone. We pray to him on behalf of all who experience problems with their throat:

Through the intercession of St. Blaise, Bishop and Martyr, may God deliver you from every disease of the throat and from every other illness. In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

I want to thank all who attended and participated in last Monday night's Respect Life Prayer Gathering at the Wassertown Municipal Building on Washington Street. The Christian witness that promotes a "culture of life" and expresses gospel values is one of the most important activities of our Church. We consistently stand on the side of life as a blessing and a gift to be appreciated and protected at all stages.

I invite for your reflection the following composition taken from a Salesian Missions Publication:

Life's Gift

Life is a wonderful gift, my friend, whatever the age we're living in.

Listen not to those who say
"Oh for the dreams of yesterday."

Never since the world began,
did time stand still for any man.

The greatest minds have failed to reach the wisdom that the seasons teach.

There is a harmony in things,
that only growing older brings.

Happiness is learning how to value what is here and now.

No winter bird, no golden leaf,
had not the summer been so brief.

Fr. Mickey

4TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Readings: Jer 1:4-5, 17-19/1 Cor 12:31—13:13/Lk 4:21-30

The audience in today's Gospel, the people of Nazareth, thought they knew who Jesus was. He was the carpenter's son. They had watched him grow up. He had often read from the scrolls in the synagogue. And now, he claimed to be the Messiah, God's anointed one, the fulfillment of the scripture passage from Isaiah which we read last week. The people could not see beyond the familiar ordinary man they had known all their lives. As Jesus tells them: No prophet is accepted in his native place. Do we accept him? Or do we take Jesus for granted? There is a danger that Mass becomes "routine", that we go through the motions, mouth the words of the prayers, attend mass on autopilot. Do we realize that Jesus, the Messiah, our Lord and Savior comes among us, is truly present in our scripture, in the Eucharist, in the person of the priest, and reflected on the faces of those in our community of faith?

God's will is unexpected

From Luke 4:21-30:

In this Gospel, Jesus returns to Nazareth after launching His public ministry. He announced He is the Messiah of Isaiah's prophecy. But then comes a twist: Jesus recounts a time when great prophets were sent to call Israel to repentance and were ignored and persecuted.

The response of faith God was looking for in His Chosen People was found elsewhere, in the Gentiles. Jesus' listeners doubted that He was really the Messiah and were deeply insulted at being reminded that "foreigners" had received God's favor instead of them. In anger, they threw Jesus out of the synagogue and tried to cast Him off a cliff. He passed unharmed through their midst.

God's will can surprise us. For example, He willed that the Messiah-King be a local carpenter. God's favor extended beyond the Chosen People to include Gentiles, who were considered outsiders. Sometimes, we assume we know how God works, and lose faith when He does something that seems illogical. We can pray for the faith to see Jesus as He really is and trust Him, even if He does the unexpected.

Why do Catholics do that?

Why do Catholics pray to Mary?

Catholics don't pray to Mary, but instead ask her to pray for us. For example, the Hail Mary prayer asks the Mother of God to stay close to us in prayer.

While we don't worship Mary, we honor her as Jesus' mother. On the Cross, Jesus gave her to us as our own mother (John 19:27). We can approach her with our needs and concerns and ask her to present them to Her Son. Mary always leads us to Him.

One-Minute Meditations

It's never too late to lay our gifts at the feet of the King

The three Wise Men gave Jesus gifts worthy of a king. We can also present Him with our own royal gifts. While ours may not be actual gold, frankincense, and myrrh, we can still give to Him the best we have. Give God the first and the best of what you have and He will give you more than you can imagine in return.

DID YOU KNOW...

A Time To Say Goodbye

*To everything there is a season,
And a time to every purpose under the heavens. [Eccl 3]*

And yes, a time to say goodbye...my time to say "goodbye" to this column. I began the "Did You Know..." column sometime in 2005 when I was deciding what I might like to offer as a new Commissioned Lay Minister. Fr. LaBaff was our pastor then and I asked if I could have a small part in the bulletin...maybe a paragraph or so...to enlighten our parishioners on some topic of interest they may have. In retrospect, I guess it actually was more for me to learn more about the faith.

I converted while in college for many reasons; two of my aunts had instilled in me the belief in the Catholic faith. My parents were not Catholic. I started lessons with Fr. Stark at St. Patrick's Church in Albany. He was a wonderful teacher and priest, but there just was not enough time to learn much in depth. I would come for an hour session either before or after classes; it was nothing like the wonderful RCIA program of today.

I missed so much of the faith...the lives of the saints, the meanings of the gospels and readings, the traditions. This column gave me the opportunity to set aside time to research various topics of interest to me and many parishioners who asked me to write something special for them.

The column grew, as did my knowledge, and I will be forever grateful for this opportunity. And I am very grateful as well to those of you who took the time to tell me they read and enjoyed what was written. I cannot thank you enough for your kind words. They meant a lot to me.

Believe me, it was not an easy decision to leave something I truly love doing. But after much prayer, talking to family members and to clergy, I know it is the right decision for me. After 16 years, it is time for me to move on. I know I will miss writing, but will adapt.

THANK YOU all for supporting me these years.

As I reflect on the "Thoughts" I wrote about this month, the one that stays with me to practice most is to "Let Go, Let God." It is said that when you leave everything to God, you will see God's hands in everything. That will be my challenge for 2022.

God Bless.

Judy Pearson
