

St. Mary's of the Lake January 23, 2022

3rd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me... He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free.

- Lk 4:18

Word of Life - January 23rd

"Many people know someone personally who is suffering because of an abortion. If a friend confided in you tomorrow that she had an abortion, would you be able to respond in a way that brings her closer to healing? ... Even a woman who doesn't go to church or think of herself as religious can be afraid that God will never forgive her for having an abortion. She should know that God loves and forgives those who are sorrowful. He wants to comfort them and give them his peace.

WITH HEARTFELT
SYMPATHY

We hold in prayer all those who have gone before us, especially:

parishioner, Robert Bulman

We express our deepest sympathy to all of the family and friends left behind.

"Some people God has designated in the church to be, first, apostles; second, prophets; third, teachers; then, mighty deeds; then gifts of healing, assistance, administration, and varieties of tongues." (cf. 1 Corinthians 12:28). With so many forms of service to God, where will you find your calling?

Question of the Week

Time Accepting Responsibility

Key Passage:

Jesus unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written: "The spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor." (Luke 4:17b-18a)

Adults:

What do you believe that the anointing you received at baptism requires you to do?

Children:

What can you do this week for someone who has less than you?

Skaneateles Ecumenical Clergy Association prayers this week are with Borodino United Methodist Church,
Rev. Steve Jackson
