2° DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Jesus said to her, "Woman, how does your concern affect me?
My hour has not yet come." - Jn 2:4

Jesús le contestó: "Mujer, ¿qué podemos hacer tú y yo?
Todavía no llega mi hora". - Jn 2, 4

Fr. Joe's Week

Our lectionary group on Tuesday was lively... That afternoon I went to the dentist... That evening our Liturgy Committee met. We were down a few because of illness but had enough to review the Christmas season. All of us were grateful for all the help we got to carry out the liturgies. We had great turnout from the music people, including choirs and cantors. It makes all the difference. Thank you... Wednesday I went to the Greece Mall for my booster shot. I made the appointment online on Tuesday and went on Wednesday. From the time I showed up it took 30 minutes to get the shot, wait for reaction, and be on my way. This was through the Monroe County Health Department and it couldn't have been easier... That afternoon I went to the eye doctor. All is well, which is good. I have cataract implants and some potential conditions that I need checked every year. All is well... Wednesday night Pamela texted that she and Kevin both tested positive for CoVID-19... Thursday we closed the office since I was off... Fr. McKenna and I went to Adelina's in Pittsford Plaza for Mexican food. As always it was great. I found that they had street tacos on the big menu, and they were excellent. Next time I will try their fajitas... Friday we squeaked by in the office... Saturday morning I went to the Magee's to prepare Titan for baptism. We had a wonderful brunch, spirited play with their Lab/retriever puppy, and watched a video. There aren't any good videos online for preparation for 8-year-olds, so I asked the diocese to send me a couple to try. We saw one which wasn't too bad, but not great either. Titan is excited for his baptism and has invited his third-grade faith formation class to come and see. It seems that several will be coming... I didn't feel so great, tired mostly, over the weekend and on to Monday and Tuesday. I was not getting good sleep due to mask-fit problems. It was better Tuesday night... Monday Scott and Ralph took care of the regular morning duties in lieu of Pamela being out... Our Lectionary group met Tuesday for another good session. I also met with our Pastoral Council leadership to plan next week's meeting... Doing the bulletin a day late because herself was able to come back in the office on Wednesday, and that's when we decided to do it... God bless you and have a good week.

We plan to meet again Sunday, January 16th at 4pm. We plan to go to the IndyKart Raceway. Contact Jessica Horn for details, jkhorn96@gmail.com.

The 16th of January will be a Home Session. We will be back in church on Sunday, January 23rd.

Reminder to work on your CDA Education Contest entries which are due by January 21st. See the Catholic Daughters article on page 3 of this bulletin for submission details.

SoulCore has moved to Monday nights! Our next gathering will be THIS Monday, January 17th at 6:30 pm in the Parish Center Main Hall.

SoulCore is a prayer experience that combines the prayers of the rosary with core strengthening, stretching, and functional movement which is offered by parishioner Mary Wright,

Please wear loose fitting clothing, and bring a water bottle, a yoga/exercise mat and weights if you have them. Chairs will also be available for those who need to use them. There is no cost but a suggested donation of $10, for those who are able. We hope you come and try it out! Bring a friend too!

The Young Adult Ministry group will meet again, THIS Monday, night, January 17th at 7 pm in the front room, 115 of the Parish Center. We're still viewing and discussing Bishop Barron's YouTube series on Vatican II.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP: Recognize God In Your Ordinary Moments

It Takes All Kinds

“If every flower wanted to be a rose,” wrote St. Therese of Lisieux, “spring would lose its loveliness.”

Who is God asking you to be today? There is an obvious answer that springs to mind right out of the gate. God wants me to be a good person (a good father, a good husband) today; today, God wants me to be a saint.

But this answer fails to get to the heart of the question. We are all striving today to serve the same Spirit, but we are given different gifts to do so. The one who has the gift of knowledge may fail if today he decides he wants to be a healer. The one who has the gift of “varieties of tongues” might falter in the expression of wisdom.

Think about the wedding at Cana and the players in the scene: the servers, the guests, the bride and groom. They all have a unique role to play, and though it is to the servers that Mary gives the instruction, “Do whatever he tells you,” her words apply to all.

Today, are we called to be the servers — do we wait on God’s instruction and carry it out, no matter how foolish or impossible it may seem to our human ears? Are we asked to be the disciples, to bear witness to a miracle and to give our testimony? Are we called to imitate the Blessed Mother herself and give encouragement to follow God’s word?

Let us examine our gifts and listen in the silence of our hearts to the direction of the Spirit. Then and only then, let us do whatever He tells us.

A New Year -- A New Opportunity

Many older folks in our community have given up their keys and no longer drive. Yet, they still need to get to medical appointments, go shopping, do their banking, have their hair cut.

Can You Help?

If you have a couple of hours a week, or even a couple of hours a month, consider being a volunteer driver. You can select your geographic area and the times you wish to drive. You will be provided with training, and supplemental accident and liability insurance.

Call Sr. Anne Guerin at 585-244-8400, ext. 142, or email her at aguerin@lifespan-roch.org and she will help you get started. Why wait?

The Catholic Ministries Appeal continues. Our parish goal is to have 250 parishioners/households participating in the CMA. As of January 11th, we have 83.6% of that goal. 209 parishioners have pledged $64,333.61 which is 135.06% of our goal $47,634.

Please participate in the CMA campaign, which supports the ministries of our Bishop and our parish. Remember, half the amount over our goal comes back to the parish. Pledge any amount; what's important is participating at any level. You can mail your pledge to the Diocese, or place the envelope into the Sunday offering and we will forward it for you. There are extra envelopes at the entrances to the church.

Thank you to all who have already most generously contributed!
