

THE HOLY FAMILY

He went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was obedient to them; and his mother kept all these things in her heart. And Jesus advanced in wisdom and age and favor before God and man. - Lk 2:51-52

Bishop Lucia expects that all parishes in the Diocese of Syracuse will cooperate with this important public health matter and comply with the mask mandate. Please wear a mask completely covering your nose and mouth when inside the building.

Welcome back to Holy Cross!

James Buttner is back with us for a while during his break from the Seminary. Take a minute to say hello.

Feast of the Holy Family

Our celebration today invites us to consider the holiness of our own families. Can our families even be holy? Is it even possible?! The chaos of life, the struggle of inter-family dynamics, broken relationships, complicated trauma and drama—all together they form an equation that seems to make holiness challenging, if not impossible.

There are several options for readings with this Feast of the Holy Family... Sirach (Sir 3:2-6, 12-14), Colossians (Col 3:12-21)...but while they are beautiful texts—really, even potential Mission Statements for our families—they don't really articulate what makes a family holy per se. Anyone or any family can be compassionate, forgiving, patient, etc. but what is it that specifically makes a family holy?

Well, if we look at the Gospel reading today (Lk 2:41-52), what is of highest priority for the young Jesus? Being in his [heavenly] Father's house. Jesus is found in the Temple, he says he "must" be there. Jesus lives out obedience to Mary and Joseph, and obedience especially to his heavenly Father. What makes a family holy is not simply being loving, kind, committed to service and works of charity, but even more than that, living out a reverence and faithful trust in God the Father as being THE priority of life.

Could I invite you to see the chaos and the difficulty of family life as the context for your holiness? The obstacles and challenges around you—while often may seem insurmountable—they are yours and your family's path to sanctity. Trust in our heavenly Father at all times to provide for your needs and to be your strength. It's what makes a family holy.

Peace,
Father Foley

CHRISTMAS SEASON REFLECTION FOR 2021

Perhaps God said, hmmm, what else can I do to show how much I love my people? I have already given them a beautiful and bountiful home called the Earth, so many different types of life, and so many descendants from Adam and Abraham. Oh, I know! I will send to them my Son to save them and show them the way. He shall be the human form of love, mercy, healing, and joy without fear and without end. With Him, they shall more fully understand and feel my love, hope and everlasting life. How can they not help but become my arms and legs in this world showing my love, mercy, and healing to others and to my Earth.

Let's feel it and embody Hope, Joy, and Love for ourselves and for others this Christmas season and throughout 2022. What else matters? The Lord blesses us during this Christmas season and indeed during all the days of our lives (from Psalm 128). Let heaven and nature sing!

Christmas Message

Dear Friends,

As we celebrate Christmas, I am reminded of the struggles Mary and Joseph encountered as they sought a place for the infant to be born. They must have been fearful as the blessed moment drew ever closer, yet I am sure like all parents, we're looking forward to a bright future. After all, God does not disappoint!

I believe we are very much like Mary and Joseph this Christmas. Our lives have been turned upside down and we are again not able to honor our normal patterns of celebration, and yet we long and hope for a better future. Christ will provide us with that future that we long for!

I, along with Father Foley, Deacon Dare, our Seminarian James, and the entire staff of Holy Cross wish you a joyous, anticipation-filled Christmas, as we look forward to the blessings that a new year with our savior, Jesus the Christ, will bring us all!

May the peace of the infant Jesus reside within us all!

Pastor
