From the astor of Our Lady & Saint Anne

Dear Friends,

Happy Mothers' Day! Today we give thanks to God for our mothers, grandmothers, Godmothers and all who have filled the role of mother in our lives. I remember with affection my mother and grandmothers, who have been deceased for many years. My mother and her mother taught me our faith. I remain grateful that they took me to Mass and began my introduction to Jesus. My other grandmother read to me and instilled in me a love of books and reading (she also made the best cookies and pies).

Both last Sunday and today our second reading is taken from the First Letter of John, chapter 4. The last verse of the reading last Sunday and the first verse of our reading this Sunday go together [I John 4:10-11].

In this is love: not that we have loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as an expiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also must love one another.

In these two verses St. John sums up the core of our faith. God loves us. We do not earn God's love, because he loves us before we do anything. God proves his love for us in the sacrifice of Christ. Our response is to share God's love with each other. Everything else (Mass and the other sacraments, the Bible, prayer, the Catholic community) serve to help us receive God's love and to extend that love to all of our neighbors. Learning to love as God loves is a life-long task that we all work on as we accompany one another on life's journey. I give thanks to God for my mother and grandmothers who taught me the first lessons of love and brought Jesus Christ into my life.

*Grace and peace,
Fr. Gary Tyman*

All Mothers

A message from Miss Julie for the Knights of Columbus.

When I think of a knight, I think of the shining armor, and I think of a protector. Protectors of a kingdom, protectors of the vulnerable, and protectors of women and children. I cannot express our gratitude enough that you Knights would come alongside of us in this battle against the heinous crime of human trafficking. It is with a most grateful heart that I write to you, and let you know this act of generosity gives me and our whole team the courage we need to continue our fight. Your strength empowers us to fearlessly continue our work. Thank you for helping us show our students there truly is hope and a beautiful future in sight.

Garden Day at Saint Anne Volunteers Needed!

If you are interested in join our Garden Club in beautifying Saint Anne and willing to contribute your time, talent, or treasure towards this project, please contact Amanda at Amanda.padgett@dor.org or call the office. We are looking to set a day in June for the cleaning and planting! Once the weeds are removed we need to rebuild the garden with mulch and flowers. We don't have to be extravagant, a simple row of flowers would be beautiful.

Gardening can be a wonderful spiritual practice too. In the Spirit of St. Joseph the Parent, it's an opportunity to care for our Cluster and those who visit Saint Anne Church.

Environmental Committee

New local programming: Environmental Connections

A new monthly program has launched on our local PBS television station, WXXI, called Environmental Connections. With the threat of increased rain, and smoke from nearby wildfires affecting our area, anxieties about climate change are rising for many people. To address these concerns, WXXI's Environmental Connections explores all things climate from a local to a wider perspective. The program launched on the radio in February as a two-hour spinoff of the daily talk show, Connections with Evan Dawson, and is also now a weekly half-hour television version.
