Second Sunday of Lent

Dear Friends,

Tomorrow is St. Patrick’s Day. St. Patrick was born into a Christian family in northwest England in the fifth century. What impresses and inspires me about St. Patrick is how as a teenager he was kidnapped from his family’s home by Irish raiders who sold him as a slave in Ireland. For 6 years he tended his master’s livestock. Prayer became his sustenance. He spent his time while herding the animals in prayer. The love and awe of God, he said, took over more and more as his faith deepened and the Spirit worked within him. In his early 20s he felt the Holy Spirit guiding him in his escape from slavery. Back home with his family, he felt called by God to return to Ireland as a Christian missionary. Having escaped from slavery, he willingly returned to Ireland to spend the rest of his life teaching and ministering in the name of Christ. He is a great example of loving our enemy—or of discovering that the enemy is actually a neighbor to be loved as ourselves.

Wednesday, April 2nd is the Diocesan Day of Penance. We will offer confession that day at St. Anne. From 11:30AM to 1:30PM I will hear confessions, and from 5PM to 7PM Fr. Lawlor will hear confessions. Of course, we offer confession each Saturday at 3PM at St. Anne, or you can contact either Fr. Lawlor or me to arrange for confession at another time.

*Grace and peace,
Fr. Gary Tyman*

We Are the Hands of Christ:

Our Soup Supper Lenten tradition

continues this year with soup and bread provided by generous volunteers (look for soup sign up sheets at Masses!), and a new guest speaker each week reflecting on the truth that we are Christ's hands in the world:

March 19: Dawn Burdick

March 26: Matt Flanigan

April 2: Steve Witkowicz

April 9: Adam Baber and McQuaid High School students

We Are the Hands of Christ - Soup Supper speaker Dawn Burdick

Don't forget our Lenten Soup Supper at St. Anne this Wednesday, March 19 from 5:30-7:00! We'd love to see you for food and fellowship. If you can, please bring a nonperishable food donation for the 14621 food pantries.

If you can bring your own spoon and bowl (a tradition for our Soup Suppers — don't worry, we have extra), that'd be great! We'll all enjoy delicious soup and bread along with edifying talks on our Lenten theme.

Our second speaker is Dawn Burdick, Executive Director for Rochester Hope, and the Faith Formation Director for Cabrini Parish in Rochester. Her talk, titled "Walking in Hope: the Privilege of Being the Hands and Feet of Christ," will focus on her role in helping those in need in Rochester, from the perspective of 24 years in parish work. Hope to see you there!

The suppers are free!

We invite you to bring a nonperishable food donation to each Supper if you can, and it will go directly to "Group 14621 Community Association," which will use them to stock small food pantries in Rochester.

Color Brighton Green Climate and Diet event

There are immense connections between the global climate and biodiversity crisis, food production and food choices, and our personal health. Making choices that benefit both our individual health and wellbeing and that can contribute to reducing negative impacts on the climate system and nature are well within our reach. Our former deacon and member of the cluster pastoral team, Bill Rabjohn, was a testament to this as he made a personal journey (and shared with the parish his story during an evening talk) to a plant-based diet.

On Monday, March 31 at 6:30, Color Brighton Green is organizing a talk at the Brighton Memorial Library featuring local doctor Ted Barnett, MD, who is founder of Pale Blue Dot Community (<https://www.rochesterlifestylemedicine.org/pale-blue-dot>). The event will explore the impact of diet on human and planetary health with a Q&A session to follow.

Participation is available both in person and on Zoom. To register for the Zoom link, call 784-5300, or email bmlcurbsidepickup@gmail.com. Or for more information, write Cheryl at info@colorbrightongreen.org.

First Fruits for Lent

Over the past two Lenten seasons, Our Lady of Lourdes & St. Anne have sponsored a nonperishable food drive for the benefit of our sisters and brothers living in the 14621 zip code. We invite our parishioners to continue this tradition during this Lent, ever mindful of Jesus' startling statement found in St. Matthew's Gospel that when we feed the hungry, we feed Jesus Himself. We have two requests:

- 1) Donations of canned goods, pasta, paper products, cleaning supplies, even pet food and other nonperishable items to the people of the 14621 zip code this Lenten season, i.e. from Ash Wednesday, March 5th to Good Friday, April 18th;
- 2) Volunteers to assist in food distribution. Help would include assistance in loading delivery vehicles at church or in joining in distributing donations to curbside food pantries in the 14621 geographical area.

Donations may be brought to our parish offices or if closed, in the atrium of St. Anne or the chapel at Lourdes. Those wishing to help with our distribution efforts should contact Dick Sullivan, 585-473-3723; sullivanrichard238@gmail.com.
