From the Desk of ...

Dear Parishioners and Visitors:

When I was in the Navy, when a new officer came to the ship, and the person they replaced left, there was a process called “Hail and Farewell”. This weekend we say “Hail” to our new Pastor, Fr. Richard Prior. While Fr. Prior may be living at OLS, Vestal, be assured that he will be OLGC’s pastor in every sense of the word. Bishop Lucia has entrusted him with the care and welfare of all our parishioners. Fr. Prior graduated from the Air Force Academy and after one tour in the Army as an officer, he left to study for the priesthood. Fr. Prior is excited to learn about us and has asked that he have a chance to meet us at future “Listening Sessions”. More information will be coming soon.

The “Farewell” part pertains to me, as I am leaving my position as Deacon Administrator of St. Ambrose and OLGC. Thank you to everyone for their prayers and support this past year. But it is only a partial Farewell as Fr. Prior has asked me to stay on at OLGC in my previous capacity of Pastoral Associate. I even get to keep my office on the second floor, or as some would call it, “the Ivory Tower”.

I am looking forward to working with Fr. Prior as he brings a sense of renewed energy and commitment to our parish family. It’s time to put these last two years of diminished activity, because of Covid aside and work hard to bring back to OLGC the joy and excitement that we are capable of showing to the community. Remember that our mission is “To bring our community into a living relationship with Christ”. Let’s make that relationship bigger and better than ever.

July 1, 2022 OLGC ended its formal linkage to St Ambrose (who also has a new pastor; Fr Ken Kirkman) and going forward we look to work closely with the people of OLS. See you at the Listening Sessions!

Deacon Tom Harley
