Pastors Note ...

Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In the reading from Genesis, Abraham has some unusual guests. The story continues in the Bible for another five verses after today's passage. Those verses include Abraham's wife, Sarah, who is well beyond child rearing years, overhearing and laughing at the announcement that she would have a son within the year. Only we, the readers, know from the opening verse that "the Lord appeared to Abraham" in this sequence (although verse 13 makes this clear, stating, "But the Lord said to Abraham"). Three chapters later, in Genesis 21, Isaac is born to Sarah and Abraham.

The Gospel, as well as the First Reading, is about hospitality. The Gospel passage is both familiar and challenging. While the Gospel of St. John recounts two stories involving the sisters Martha and Mary (See John 11, "the raising of Lazarus," and John 12, "the anointing at Bethany"), only St. Luke tells of this particular incident. What Jesus is telling us is that there is a time to go and do, and there is a time to listen and reflect. Knowing which and when is a matter of spiritual discernment.

Father Prior

On the weekend of August 13-14, 2022 our parish will host a speaker for the Alliance for International Monasticism (AIM USA). Once a year, as part of the Missionary Cooperative Plan throughout the United States, each parish in the diocese welcomes a member or an associate of a religious community involved in missionary work. Sister Donald Corcoran, OSB Cam from Transfiguration Monastery in Windsor, NY, is this year's representative who will share with you some of the work of AIM USA. AIM USA has formed an alliance between 140 US and Canadian monasteries with over 400 Benedictine and Cistercian monasteries in Africa, Asia, the Caribbean and Latin America and Eastern Europe. These Benedictine and Cistercian women and men form centers of prayer, education, health and agriculture in some of the poorest regions of the world. Please respond to this appeal with openness and generosity. Thank you and God Bless!!
