GOOD NEWS

A REFLECTION OF SAINT IGNATIUS OF ANTIOCH, BISHOP AND MARTYR.

As I was praying my morning office I was touched and moved by this reflection, so I thought of sharing verbatim.

Have faith in Christ and Love.

“Try to gather together more frequently to give thanks to God and praise him. For when you come together frequently, Satan’s power are undermined, and the destruction that he threatens is done away with in the unanimity of your faith. Nothing is better than peace, in which all warfare between heaven and earth is brought to an end.

None of this will escape you if you have perfect faith and love towards Jesus Christ. These are the beginning and the end of life: faith the beginning, love the end. When these two are found together, there is God, and everything else concerning right living follows from them. No one professing faith sins; no one possessing love hates. A tree is known by its fruits. So who profess to belong to Christ will be known by what they do. For the work we are about is not a matter of words here and now but depends on the power of faith and on being faithful to the end.

It is better to remain silent and be than to talk and not be. Teaching is good if the speaker also acts. Now there was one teacher who spoke, and it was made, and even what he did in silence is worthy of the Father. He who has word of Jesus can truly listen also to his silence, in order to be perfect, that he may act through his speech and be known by his silence. Nothing is hidden from the Lord, but even our secrets are close to him. Let us then do everything in the knowledge that he is dwelling within us that we may be his temples, and he God within us. He is, and will reveal himself, in our sight, according to the love we bear him in holiness.

Make no mistake, my brothers and sisters: those who corrupt families will not inherit the kingdom of God. If those who do these things in accordance with the flesh have died, how much worse will it be if one corrupts through evil doctrine the faith of God for which Jesus Christ was crucified. Such a person, because is defiled, will depart into unquenchable fire, as anyone who listens to him.

For the Lord received anointing on his head in order that he might breathe incorruptibility on the church. Do not be anointed with the evil odor of teachings of the prince of this world. That he may not lead you captive away from the life that is set before you. But why is it that we are not all wise when we have received the knowledge of God, which is Jesus Christ? Why do we perish in our stupidity, not knowing the gift the Lord has truly sent us?

My spirit is given over to the humble service of the cross which is a stumbling block to unbelievers but to us salvation and eternal life.”

Above are the reflections are they applicable now in this day and age?

Fr. John

Receive with favor, O Lord, we pray, the offerings of your people, that what they profess with devotion and faith may be theirs through these heavenly mysteries. Through Christ our Lord.

"Be Who God Meant You To Be And You Will Set The World On Fire."

St. Catherine of Siena

In 2019, Pope Francis established the Sunday of the Word of God to be celebrated each year on the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time. As the Holy Father stated in his apostolic letter instituting the observance, “Devoting a specific Sunday of the liturgical year to the word of God can enable the Church to experience anew how the risen Lord opens up for us the treasury of his word and enables us to proclaim its unfathomable riches before the world” (Aperuit illis, no. 2.)

To celebrate the “Sunday of the Word of God,” the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops has prepared a series of videos in English and Spanish by renowned Catholic biblical scholars. The videos will address the Bible’s authorship, the canon of Scripture, a Catholic approach to reading the Bible, the practice of lectio divina, and the synoptic Gospels. You can access the videos, along with discussion guides and suggestions for further reading at catholic.bible.

On January 23, 2023, in observance of the Sunday of the Word of God, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, through a grant from the American Bible Society, will offer a “Sunday Seminar Series” of five videos about Sacred Scripture in the life of the Church. These videos, available in English and Spanish, will feature some of the most renowned biblical scholars in the United States and will be accompanied by discussion/reflection questions and suggestions for further reading.

The videos will be made available on January 22, 2023 at: <https://catholic.bible/sunday-of-the-word-of-god/>

The Feet of Jesus - All Saints Parish Works of Mercy - January 2023 Sock Drive

To benefit the Corning Salvation Army, The Community Food Pantry, Catholic Charities of Steuben County.

During the cold months ahead, the need for warm socks for the needy and homeless is high. Socks are the number one most requested item at shelters. During the month of January, please drop off new socks for men, women and/or children in the totes at St. Mary’s entrances. They will be collected at the end of the month and given to the local charities.

Thank you for your kindness in taking care of the feet of Jesus.

All Saints Parish Visitation Ministry has been blessed with volunteers who serve our community by taking communion on Sundays to the sick and homebound and Nursing homes/Assisted Living facilities in the Corning/Painted Post area.

This ministry has been serving our faith community for the past 45+ years. However, our volunteers have been greatly reduced and we are looking for new members to assist the current diminished volunteers for Sunday communion.

We are grateful for the time and talent volunteers in our parish and are extending our request to help out in this ministry at least one Sunday a month. Please contact Kathy Warner in the church office to sign up. Any questions concerning this ministry can be directed to Fr. John or Stephanie Rodgers at the main office at 607-936-4689, or member Kathi Gronski at 607-684-1404

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION
at St. Mary's Church

We have such a wonderful opportunity to be in the presence of our Eucharistic Lord every Tuesday from 9am to 9pm. Even though we currently have a person officially committed for every hour, the ideal is to have at least two people committed along with an alternate list of substitutes.

If you are interested in signing up for an hour or even desire to be a possible substitute, please contact Deacon Brian at (607) 937-8270.
