GOOD NEWS

DO YOU FEEL CALLED TO THESE NOBLE VOCATIONS:

What is vocation? It comes from the Latin word 'Vocare' to call. It is an answer to God's call to be part and parcel of Him to enhance his work of creation. Either in priesthood, consecrated life, married life or single life.

There are so many notable ways to serve the church as a priest of the diocese or as a priest in the religious order like the Dominicans, Benedictines, Franciscans, Jesuits, Passionists, Redemptorists, Cistercian monks and many religious congregations for sisters, like the first three have the same sister congregations, to mention but a few.

If you feel that God is calling you, to any of these vocations contact your parents or your pastor for more information.

For those called to married life contact your parents for advice. For those who feel to be Martha and Mary in the church, contact the Martha and Mary that we have in our church.

The most important point to stress on this vocation Sunday is that let us respond to God's call in the vocation that he has called you to and be happy in it and enhance the work of evangelization and his creation. For those who are still discerning listen to the voice of God, and like Samuel say "here I am Lord since you called me", so that at the end of it all, we will see Him as he really is. After having completed what he created us to do.

God bless you and happy vocation Sunday.
Father John

Receive with favor, O Lord, we pray, the offerings of your people, that what they profess with devotion and faith may be theirs through these heavenly mysteries. Through Christ our Lord.

Special Eucharistic Adoration in Reparation

Where: St. Mary's Church

When: April 28th-30th

As the culture deteriorates, we need to seek God more than ever and pray in reparation for the outrages and blasphemies taking place in our society.

One such example is the Satanic Temple conference which will take place openly in Boston during the weekend of April 28th-30th. This satanic event is well promoted and will be hosted at the Marriott hotel with all types of blasphemous evil which cannot be mentioned here. Even though this event will be in Boston, we are asked to pray in solidarity with fellow Catholics and Christians for reparation and conversion of souls.

As a result, we at All Saints plan to have a 3-day Eucharistic Adoration which will be as follows:

- Friday (April 28th 1pm - 9pm)
- Saturday (April 29th 10am – 2pm)
- Sunday (April 30th 1pm – 7pm)

Please join us in prayer these 3 days as we lift up all the souls affected through this nefarious event and call upon our Lord Who is Divine Mercy Itself for His Mercy!

Can contact Deacon Brian Mizzoni at (607) 481-2309 with any questions.

Please congratulate the 2023 confirmation class on their full initiation into the life of the Church through the Holy Spirit!

After two years of study, these students have received the last of the sacraments of initiation, which prepares them for a life of ministry and evangelization. We look forward to the many ways these young people continue to support and enhance parish life with their participation, volunteerism, and enthusiasm. Confirmation was conferred by the Most Reverend Bishop Salvator Matano at St. Mary Our Mother in Horseheads on Thursday, April 13th. Their catechists were Mary and Adam Barrett, who have planned and taught classes, organized retreats, and modeled and encouraged these young adults on their journey.

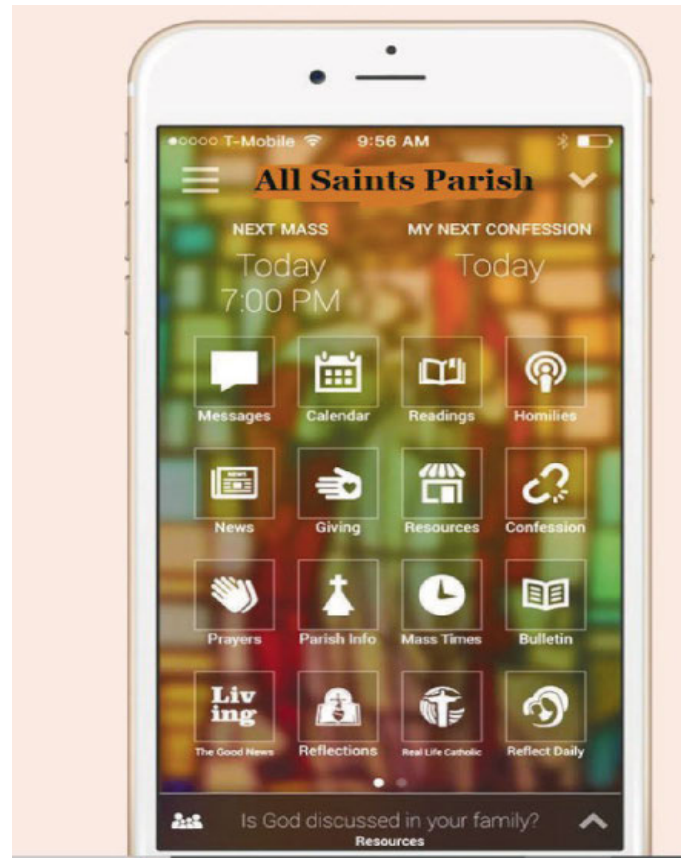

Faith formation is its own reward; nevertheless, please share your appreciation with all our volunteers when you see them at Mass. They are a blessing to us and our children!
