Lenten Reflection

AND JESUS SAID:

A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so must you love one another.

You must love your neighbor as yourself.

Give to everyone who begs from you; and of him who takes away your goods do not ask them again. And as you wish that men would do to you, do so to them.

If you want to be perfect, go, sell your possessions and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven.

Behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.

Yes, but I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, so that you may be sons of your Father who is in heaven; for he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust.

Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy.

If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them. And if you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners do the same.

Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to cast a stone.

I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God; trust also in me.

And know that I am with you always; yes, to the end of time.

For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and everyone who humbles himself will be exalted.

Do not be anxious about tomorrow, for tomorrow will be anxious for itself. Let the day's own trouble be sufficient for the day.

Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and eat with him, and he with me.

So I say to you, Ask and it will be given to you; search and you will find; know, and the door will be opened for you.

I tell you the truth, it is hard for a rich man to enter the kingdom of heaven. Again I tell you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of heaven.

CHURCH SUPPORT

I have been asked about church support during this time of absent church goers. If everyone who is able to fulfill the yearly pledge that they made three years ago our finances will be stable. Many thanks to the parishioners who sent in their contributions this week. We are deeply appreciative. Please do whatever you can at this difficult time. We encourage you to use online giving: go to stdaniel.weshareonline.org . If you wish you can mail your offering envelopes to us at 3004 Court St. Syracuse NY 13208. You can drop off your offering envelopes through the mail slot in the side door of the rectory: from Court Street, turn in the driveway that runs along the right side of the rectory — the door with the slot is about a third of the way along the building.

Charitable Contributions: As part of the PATH ACT of 2015, each year, any person who is at least 70 ½ years of age may make direct charitable contributions of up to $100,000 from an IRA without having to report that IRA distribution as taxable income on their federal income tax return. Those annual IRA distributions are normally referred to as required minimum distributions (RMD). If interested in finding out more about this, please contact your financial advisor to see how you may be able to take advantage of this benefit with respect to your annual contributions to St. Daniel. Church.

THE SEVEN SORROWS AND SEVEN JOYS OF ST. JOSEPH

The Seven Sundays in honor of St. Joseph are observed by receiving Holy Communion in his honor on seven consecutive Sundays, and on each Sunday the prayers in honor of the Seven Sorrows and the Seven Joys of St. Joseph are recited. This devotion may be practiced at any time of the year, but especially on the seven Sundays preceding his solemnity on March 19th.

Fifth Sunday (February 28)

Fifth Sorrow: The flight into Egypt (Matt. 2:14)

So he arose and took the child and his mother by night, and withdrew into Egypt.

Fifth Joy: The overthrow of the idols of Egypt (Is. 19:1)

The burden of Egypt. Behold the Lord will ascend upon a swift cloud and will enter into Egypt, and the idols of Egypt will be moved at his presence, and the heart of Egypt shall melt in the midst thereof.

O most watchful Guardian of the Incarnate Son of God, glorious St. Joseph, what toil was your in supporting and waiting upon the Son of the most high God, especially in the flight into Egypt! Yet at the same time, how you did rejoice to have always near you God Himself, and to see the idols of the Egyptians fall prostrate to the ground before Him. By this sorrow and this joy, obtain for us the grace of keeping ourselves in safety from the infernal tyrant, especially by flight from dangerous occasions; may every idol of earthly affection fall from our hearts; may we be wholly employed in serving Jesus and Mary, and for them alone may we live and happily die.
