WE HOLD THESE TRUTHS TO BE SELF-EVIDENT, THAT ALL MEN ARE CREATED EQUAL, THAT THEY ARE ENDOWED BY THEIR CREATOR WITH CERTAIN INALIENABLE RIGHTS, THAT AMONG THESE ARE LIFE, LIBERTY AND THE PURSUIT OF HAPPINESS. (Declaration of Independence)

This section from The Truth and Meaning of Human Sexuality explains how married couples are to receive the grace they need to live the virtue of chastity and explains the importance of this witness for their children.

In order to live chastely, man and woman need the continuous illumination of the Holy Spirit. At the centre of the spirituality of marriage... lies chastity, not only as a moral virtue (formed by love), but likewise as a virtue connected with the gifts of the Holy Spirit—above all the gift of respect for what comes from God (donum pietatis)... So therefore, the interior order of married life, which enables the manifestations of affection to develop according to their right proportion and meaning, is a fruit not only of the virtue which the couple practice, but also of the gifts of the Holy Spirit with which they cooperate.

On the other hand, convinced that their own chaste life and the daily effort of bearing witness are the premise and condition for their educational task, parents should also consider any attack on the virtue and chastity of their children as an offence against the life of faith itself that threatens and impoverishes their own communion of life and grace (cf. Ephesians 6:12).

Education for Chastity: Educating children for chastity strives to achieve three objectives:

- (a) to maintain in the family a positive atmosphere of love, virtue and respect for the gifts of God, in particular the gift of life;
- (b) to help children to understand the value of sexuality and chastity in stages, sustaining their growth through enlightening word, example and prayer;
- (c) to help them understand and discover their own vocation to marriage or to consecrated virginity for the sake of the Kingdom of Heaven in harmony with and respecting their attitudes and inclinations and the gifts of the Spirit.

Pastor's Column – 29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear friends in Christ,

In the Gospel this weekend we hear Jesus ask James and John: “Can you drink the cup that I drink or be baptized with the baptism with which I am baptized?” They said to him, “We can.” Jesus said to them, “The cup that I drink, you will drink, and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized...”

Here we note that Jesus had already been baptised with water by John the Baptist at the Jordan. What then is this second baptism that Jesus is speaking of? It is His going down into death and then rising victorious over sin, suffering and death. Our baptism unites us with Christ in this second baptism. St. Paul, in his letter to the Romans explains:

What then shall we say? Shall we persist in sin that grace may abound? Of course not! How can we who died to sin yet live in it? Or are you unaware that we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were indeed buried with him through baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might live in newness of life.
(Romans 6:1-4)

The Catechism of the Catholic Church explains the meaning of the word Baptism:

This sacrament is called Baptism, after the central rite by which it is carried out: to baptize (Greek baptizein) means to “plunge” or “immerse”; the “plunge” into the water symbolizes the catechumen's burial into Christ's death, from which he rises up by resurrection with him, as “a new creature.” (CCC, #1214)

Baptism also signifies the nature of discipleship for those who seek to follow Christ. We too, like James and John are invited by the Lord to love one-another as He loved us by dying for love of us. ...with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized.

Jesus taught this to his disciples in the Upper Room the night He was handed over. This teaching is addressed to all who are baptised: This is my commandment: love one another as I love you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. (John 15:13-14)

One might ask: Where do we find the grace we need to love in such a sacrificial and selfless manner? The second reading gives us a hint. ...we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who has similarly been tested in every way, yet without sin. So let us confidently approach the throne of grace to receive mercy and to find grace for timely help.

We approach the throne of grace when we draw near to Jesus in the Eucharist. Here we encounter the person of Jesus Christ and through faith we receive from Him the grace to love as He commands..

Grace be with you all,

Rev. Thomas I. Ward

CHURCH SUPPORT

I have been asked about church support during this time made difficult by the pandemic. By keeping our yearly pledges made three years ago our finances will be stable. Many thanks to the parishioners who sent in their contributions this week. We are deeply appreciative. Please do whatever you can at this difficult time. We encourage you to use online giving: go to stdaniel.weshareonline.org

If you wish you can mail your offering envelopes to us at 3004 Court St. Syracuse NY 13208. You can drop off your offering envelopes through the mail slot in the side door of the rectory: from Court Street, turn in the driveway that runs along the right side of the rectory —

The 2021 HOPE Appeal Commitment has begun. Please respond generously as you asked to make your pledge, so we may make our goal. Thank you!

CHARITABLE CONTRIBUTIONS DIRECTLY FROM IRA ARE TAX DEDUCTIBLE

As part of the PATH ACT of 2015, each year, any person who is at least 70 ½ years of age may make direct charitable contributions of up to $100,000 from an IRA without having to report that IRA distribution as taxable income on their federal income tax return. Those annual IRA distributions are normally referred to as required minimum distributions (RMD). If interested in finding out more about this, please contact your financial advisor to see how you may be able to take advantage of this benefit with respect to your annual contributions to St. Daniel.
