A PRAYER FOR UKRAINE

Our world is wrought with war and violence, as brother turns on brother, become instruments of peace.

We ask this in the name of One who is the Prince of Peace, Jesus Christ.
Amen

PASTOR'S PERSPECTIVE

As we continue to rejoice in the Easter season, I would like to pass on the following wisdom given by Ann Landers. This was given to me by a good friend, and I believe the words reflect what we believe as Easter people and followers of the Risen One.

Keep skid chains on your tongue; always say less than you think. Cultivate a low persuasive voice. How you say it counts more than what you say.

Make promises sparingly, and keep them faithfully, no matter what it costs.

Never let an opportunity pass to say a kind and encouraging word, to or about somebody. Praise good work, regardless of who did it. If criticism is needed, criticize helpfully, never spitefully.

Be interested in others, their pursuits, their work, their homes, and families. Make merry with those who rejoice; with those who weep or mourn. Let everyone you meet, however humble, feel you regard him or her as a person of importance.

Be cheerful. Don't burden or depress those around you by dwelling on your minor aches and pains and small disappointments. Remember, everyone is carrying some kind of a load.

Keep an open mind. Discuss but don't argue. It is a mark of high character to be able to disagree without being disagreeable.

Let your virtues speak for themselves. Refuse to talk of another's vices. Discourage gossip; it is a waste of valuable time and can be extremely destructive.

Be careful of another's feelings. Wit and humor at the other person's expense are rarely worth it, and may hurt when least expected. Pay no attention to ill-natured remarks about you. Remember, the person who carried the message may not be the most accurate reporter in the world. Live in such a way that nobody will believe anything bad about you. Disordered nerves and bad digestion are a common cause of backbiting.

PASTOR'S PERSPECTIVE CONTINUED:

Don't be too nervous about the credit due you. Do your best, and be patient. Forget about yourself and let others "remember". Success is much sweeter that way.

Have a great week. Please continue to take care of yourself and each other!

On The Light side

I once made a remark about the hidden books of the Bible. It was a lulu; kept people looking so hard for facts... and for others it was a revelation. Some were in a jam, especially since the names of the books were not capitalized. But the truth finally struck home to numbers of our readers. To others it was a real job. We want it to be a most fascinating few moments for you. Yes, there will be some really easy ones to spot. Others may require judges to help them. I will quickly admit it usually takes a minister to find one of them, and there will be loud lamentations when it is found. A little lady says she brews a cup of tea so she can concentrate better. See how well you can compete. Rest assured, for there really are sixteen names of books of the Bible in this paragraph.
