Heart Speaks to Heart

Sea Fever

BY JOHN MASEFIELD

I must down to the seas again, to the lonely sea and the sky,
And all I ask is a tall ship and a star to steer her by;
And the wheel’s kick and the wind’s song and the white sail’s shaking,
And a grey mist on the sea’s face, and a grey dawn breaking.
I must down to the seas again, for the call of the running tide
Is a wild call and a clear call that may not be denied;
And all I ask is a windy day with the white clouds flying,
And the flung spray and the blown spume, and the sea-gulls crying.
I must down to the seas again, to the vagrant gypsy life,
To the gull’s way and the whale’s way where the wind’s like a whetted knife;
And all I ask is a merry yarn from a laughing fellow-rover,
And quiet sleep and a sweet dream when the long trick’s over.

Escape or Renewal? I recently came upon this poem by the British author John Masefield who did travel the world as a sailor when he was young and jumped ship in New York and lived and worked in this country for a number of years. He went on to a successful career as a poet and novelist, eventually being appointed the Poet Laureate of the United Kingdom by King George V.

Are you itching to get away after all this pandemic confinement is over? I am, I may not want to sail away in a ship like in the poem, but I’d sure like to drive to see my family, all out of state. I’d even just like to go to a movie in a cinema!

Does this mean we are trying to escape our serious times? We have demonstrations calling for justice and against racism, we have a presidential election coming up. Is it wrong to want to escape?

The poem, I believe, really is seeking not escape, but renewal. The poet knows the sea will renew him, give him new strength and life. We should all be seeking that in our serious times. Prayer, going to Mass, now we are allowed, and, yes, driving to see family and friends and see a movie, these are all things that can help us deal with the serious business that still must be done, so seek the renewal from God, nature, family, friends, culture, and the sea!

Blood Drive: Our blood drive is accepting walk-ins! Our last blood drive will be at St. Margaret’s McNeil Auditorium (the gym) on June 18th. Please give blood, if you can. They still prefer you make an appointment. You can make an appointment online at www.redcrossblood.org or by calling 1-800-733-2767.

Food Pantry: Food Pantry hours are: Monday – Tuesday 9:30 AM – 2:30 PM; Wednesday 9:30 AM – 1:00 PM; Thursday 9:30 AM – 2:30 PM. Closed Fridays and weekends. Evening hours are suspended. Suitable precautions are being taken. Please call 315-454-4515 if you have food to drop off or you need food. At this time cash donations are very useful for the Food Pantry as they can purchase needed items from the Food Bank that are in short supply in grocery stores. You can mail cash donations or drop them off at the rectory through the mail slot. You can also give at www.stmargchurchmattydale.org, simply go to the donations link at the bottom of the page, click on it. Choose “Human Development” for your donation. Thank you in advance.

Enjoy your renewal wherever you find it. God bless you.

In Christ,
Fr. Rob Hyde
Please remember in your prayers all our sick, especially:

The Sanctuary Lamp in the church is lit in memory of:
Robert & Carmella Zingaro & William Dixon
(requested by family)

The Sanctuary Lamp in the Hannon Chapel is lit in memory of:
John & Kathleen (Scanlan) Betar
(requested by family)

Masses Online: We will continue to have Masses on FaceBook live and YouTube. You can link to our Facebook page & YouTube channel on our parish webpage: www.stmargchurchmattydale.org. Mass times for livestreaming are posted on the parish FaceBook page. The YouTube page has Masses available for viewing throughout the day.

Public Masses: We have resumed our normal weekend Mass times: Saturday at 4:30PM, Sunday at 8:00 AM and 10:45 AM. If you want to attend in church, please call the rectory Wednesday - Friday at 315-455-5534 to make a reservation. You can also come and see if there is room at the Mass, last week there were extra spaces so people just walked in. We have room for 104 people at each Mass, 312 each weekend. If this fills up, don’t worry, you can still attend in your cars in the parking lot you where can hear and see the Mass livestreamed on Facebook live over your cellphones. We are exploring how to make the Mass available in the parking lot on your car radios.

You need to wear a mask and sign in when you enter. Please enter through the Rte. 11 side main entrance.

We will have communion during Mass for those in their cars.

While you were out…
Our 6th grade Teacher, Mrs. Townsend & Principal, Mr. McAuliff are planning a special social distance graduation ceremony for our St. Margaret’s students and their immediate families on June 22nd!

REMINDER: Our Saturday evening vigil mass is livestreamed on Facebook at 4:30 PM and recorded for viewing on our YouTube and website pages.

Key to the Word
+Blood Blood is the carrier of life, and its power is bestowed by God, who gives life to all beings. Thus in sacrificial rituals, the animal’s blood represents its life. When a covenant was ritually sealed through a sacrifice, the blood was partially sprinkled on the altar (for God) and partially on the people. This symbolized that through this covenant bond they would share a common life together. So when we shared in the Eucharist, Jesus’ blood binds us into communion with him for eternal life.

Living with Christ This Week (eleventh week of ordinary time)
This week we are encouraged to live out the meaning of our Eucharist by offering ourselves to God and others in service to God’s kingdom. We continue the story of Elijah as he calls King Ahab to accountability for his insatiable greed that leads to murder. Then we read of Elijah’s final return to God. In the gospels, Jesus continues his Sermon on the Mount, declaring that Christians are to be Characterized by a new and different lifestyle with regard to almsgiving, prayer and fasting.

Prayer for St. Margaret’s Capital Campaign

“If the LORD does not build the house, in vain do its builders labor (Psalm 127)”

Lord as we seek to maintain and repair this, our house of worship, we ask you to bless our efforts.

Give us all hearts open to generous giving, both to our Capital Campaign and other works of charity. My our prayer, praise, and thankful hearts in this parish church make us all your willing servants.

We thank you for this, our beautiful church, and we ask your blessing on all those, living and dead, who helped build this church. May all our work be built up by your guidance and help. AMEN

Novena prayer for an end to the Coronavirus Pandemic

O Mary, full of grace, Patroness of this nation and Mother of the Church, in this time of illness and worldwide need we seek your intercession for the human family before your Son’s throne of grace and mercy. We ask for strength in adversity, health in weakness and comfort in sorrow. Help us, O Blessed Mother, to be filled with confidence and trust in the tender compassion of our God. Let us not be afraid, like our own Saint Marianne Cope, who entrusted her life and Ministry among the outcasts of society in the care of our Divine Physician. Continue to watch over all who are sick as well as those who care for them and give wisdom to all who are seeking a cure. We ask this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Spiritual Communion: You may pray this prayer during communion time while watching Mass on TV or on the internet, whether the Mass is live or recorded, it unites you to Jesus in Holy Communion time. “My Jesus, I believe you are present in the Most Holy sacrament, I love you above all things and I desire to receive you into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from YOU.” Amen
